BRITISH DEFEAT GREAT GERMAN AIR RAID

THIRTY AIRPLANES IN SMALLER GROUPS FLY OVER ENGLAND

Defensive Measures Are Proved Effective and But Two or Three of the Invaders Reach London.

DAMAGE AND CASUALTIES ARE LIGHT

London, Nov. 1.—About thirty airplanes in seven groups took part in an air raid last night. Three of them penetrated to the heart of London, says an official report today. The casualties and damage were slight.

Eight persons were killed and twenty-one others were injured in the German air raid last night, according to an official statement issued today by the British war department.

The first group of air raiders dropped bombs near the coast. Two more groups were broken up by a barrage on the southeastern outskirts of the metropolis.

The fourth group was turned back up the Thames half way to London. Of the fifth group one or more airplanes penetrated southeastern London. Some of the sixth group reached the southeastern part of the city. The seventh group was dispersed before it reached the outer defenses of the city.

The official announcement:

"Determined and repeated attacks were made upon London last night by groups of hostile airplanes. The first group of raiders crossed the Kentish coast at about 10:40 p. m. and proceeded toward London over Kent. They did not penetrate far inland, however, but turned in an easterly direction and dropped bombs at various places in and near the coast.

"Meanwhile two more groups of raiders were steering toward London along the south bank of the Thames. The sky was half to three-quarters covered with thin low clouds, which rendered extremely difficult observation of the enemy machines. None the less their altitude was correctly calculated and they were broken up by barrage fire on the southeastern outskirts of the metropolitan area at about 11:50 p. m. where some bombs were dropped.

"The fourth group of machines, which came along the Thames estuary was turned back about half way to London. Meanwhile the fifth group crossed the Essex coast at about 12:15 a. m. and steered toward London by way of the north bank of the Thames.

"The sixth group of machines, which came along the Thames estuary was turned back about half way to London. Meanwhile the fifth group crossed the Essex coast at about 12:15 a. m. and steered toward London by way of the north bank of the Thames.

JAPAN TO SEND NO ARMY TO DO BIT IN EUROPE

A Pacific Port, Nov. 1.—Baron Tani, head of the Japanese financial commission that has arrived here, said today it was impossible for Japan to send an army to aid the allies on the European battle front. "If in the face of physical impossibilities Japan should be foolishly enough to make a superhuman effort to send troops and if she speedily became exhausted," he asked, "who would then protect the Orient if Germany remained undefeated?"

Cork Merchants and Hotel

Voice Protest.

Cork, Ireland, Oct. 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The Sinn Fein is keeping $2,500 a week from the hands of the Cork merchants. The amount was spent each week for four months by American naval officers and sailors.

It ceased when the Sinn Feiners began to attack the American bluejackets and it will not be resumed until the streets of Cork are again made safe for the Americans.

At present, no naval man below the rank of a destroyer commander may visit Cork without laying himself open to a general court-martial. The same rule applies to the British naval forces.

Tradesmen Suffer Much. Indignant over this loss the tradesmen have urged Mayor Butterfield to use his good offices to have the ban lifted. The mayor is powerless in the face of the decision of the American and British naval authorities not to allow their men to visit Cork until they are absolutely certain that trouble will not follow.

The local newspapers publish the following letter from Richard Blair, head of the local Business Men association:

"I suggest, in the interest of the business men taxpayers and hotel keepers of our city, who find it hard to carry on in these times, that the sailors of the United States navy be invited to come to the city as formerly, before it is too late and they are removed altogether to some foreign station, to be replaced by the sailors of Department.

Washington, Nov. 1.—License restrictions today were imposed on the nation's manufacturers and distributors of staple food commodities in an order by the food administration to regulate the war time supply and eliminate profiteering abuses.

More than 100,000 dealers, including producers, importers, middlemen and the largest retailers are now under federal regulation with drastic penalties provided for speculation, hoarding and excessive profits. Although retailers doing a business of less than $100,000 annually are not included in the licensed class, they will be required to conform with the directions of the food law.

Thousands of license applications continued to pour into food administration headquarters today. Although no licenses yet have been mailed dealers have been informed that mere compliance with the law will be ample protection until the licenses arrive.

No Fort Wayne industry will be closed because of lack of coal, states Henry Beadell, Allen county fuel administrator, after a conference with factory managers of the city.

Local industries will co-operate on the matter of the coal supply and the empty fuel bins of shops which cannot obtain the mineral will be supplied from factories which have some coal on hand, Mr. Beadell is assured.

Arrangements are being made to supply the Wayne Knitting Mills, which plant seem to face the most critical coal situation, with fuel in a few days if more coal is not brought to the mills at once. Two west side industries have said they would send coal to the aid of the mills temporarily in order to keep the plant going.

"After talking with the factory managers, I can say definitely that there is no need to fear that local institutions will be shut down because of lack of steam-generating fuel for some time at least," said Mr. Beadell, Thursday.

The Fort Wayne factories are showing a fine spirit of co-operation and will tide over the present crisis. From coal centers Mr. Beadell says

WAR PRISONERS ATTEMPT BREAK FROM THEIR PEN

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 1.—An unsuccessful attempt of war prisoners to escape from the prison at Fort Douglas was made known today by Col. George L. Byram, commandant.

Those engaged in the attempt to escape have been placed under discipline and Colonel Byram warned them that if they persist in their attempts to gain their liberty, some of them are likely to "encounter bullets."

The identity of those engaged in the attempt to escape is withheld by the prison authorities, but it is stated they are some of the same prisoners who engaged in a recent plot to make a wholesale prison delivery of the alien enemy contingent.

GUNS OF FRENCH DESTROY CAVE HOLDING ENEMY

Washington, Nov. 1.—The destructive effects of the bombardment by French heavy guns of the ancient and extensive rock caverns in which the German forces have found shelter since 1915 are described in a dispatch just received here. In one case the ground was so upheaved that no sign of the cavern remained. In another, the entrance and exit completely disappeared under the bombardment, so that efforts of French troops to reach 300 imprisoned Germans were unavailing.

SEEK BEST WAY TO STOP WASTE OF FUEL SUPPLY

Washington, Nov. 1.—The fuel administration's conservation division is devoting considerable time to investigating all suggestions for conservation of fuel which are coming from all parts of the country. The analysis is aimed to discover not only the largest wastage of fuel, but those large consumptions of coal for non-essential purposes in which lighting is most available and will produce the quickest results. Many activities which involve large consumptions of fuel and many methods of using this fuel which are perfectly legitimate in times of peace will, according to fuel administration officials, be favorably susceptible of change, which involve very slight sacrifice of material interests, but offer opportunity for considerable savings of fuel. These are the first considerations of the fuel administration.

Campaigns for the saving of coal in domestic heating, lighting and cooking, as well as in the large industrial establishments, it is stated, are well under way. Confidence is expressed that the saving of an enormous amount of coal will be effected.

"My position in this contest is that the city lighting plant, if honestly managed and placed in the hands of its friends, can beat its competitor in legitimate competition, but if it is throttled and not allowed to use progressive methods of increasing its patronage it will soon fail," Mr. Niezer declared.

Niezer Serves Notice. "I now serve notice upon the republican candidate and his managers and advisers that I will never tolerate any scheme to sell to the city of Fort Wayne the plant of the city's competitor," Mr. Niezer continued. "I do not believe that after the people of Fort Wayne have erected and successfully maintained their own lighting plant in the face of established competition it would be fair or just to their interest

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A formal demand for a general wage increase to 250,000 railroad employees is expected to result from a joint conference started today by officials of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors. Brakemen, flagmen, baggage men, switchmen and yardmen are the men affected. Labor officials deny emphatically that a strike is contemplated.

The contemplated action of the railroad men follows the demand made last Tuesday by members of the Switchmen's Union of North America for a 50 per cent wage increase. This latter organization is not affiliated with the brotherhoods. FRESH BLOW IS INFLECTED UPON ITALIAN FORCES

Sixty Thousand More Prisoners Taken and Hundreds of Guns Captured in New Teuton Stroke.

ALL TAGLIAMENTO BRIDGEHEADS GONE

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Austro-German forces invading Italy have increased the number of prisoners taken to more than 180,000. They have captured 1,500 Italian guns. The foregoing information was officially announced today by the German war office.

The German statement says the Teuton fourth army yesterday gained another great victory. Portions of the Italian retreating forces made a stand at the Tagliamento river.

The bridge head positions at Dimenano and Codroipo were captured by the Germans. The Austro-Germans penetrated the rear guard positions to the east of the lower Tagliamento, where they cut off and captured sixty thousand Italians.

According to the announcement, all the Tagliamento bridgeheads have been captured. Several hundred guns are said to have been taken by the Germans.

THE EARLIER ADVICES.
Italian Headquarters, Wednesday, Oct. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—

Summary of the Day's War News

General Cadorna's forces retreating to the line of the Tagliamento river have suffered another crushing defeat. Berlin today reports the capture of two bridgehead positions from Italian troops which made a stand east of the middle Tagliamento and the cutting off of an Italian force which was retreating toward the lower course of the river. In the latter operation 65,000 Italians were captured, according to the German claim, bringing the total of prisoners taken by the invaders of northern Italy to 180,000 and the number of guns to 1,500. One of the bridge heads captured was that at Dignano, which is on the Tagliamento about 23 miles almost directly west of Udine.

The other bridge head lost by the Italians was at Codroipo. This place is also about 23 miles from Udine but lying off to the southwest on the main railway line from Udine to Treviso and Venice. It is some three miles east of the Tagliamento. The Germans do not claim to have forced a crossing of the Tagliamento, but it is evident they are now on its easterly bank in strong force and probably ready for an assault upon the line itself.

Gen. Cadorna's retirement before the invading Austro-Germans is slackening and the opposing forces are at

COUNT HERTLING IS NOT BADLY WANTED BY THE REICHSTAG

London, Nov. 1.—Count George von Hertling has been rejected as imperial chancellor by the reichstag majority leaders, according to special dispatches from Amsterdam, which construe this as a rebuff to the emperor and a victory for parliamentarism. The messages, however, apparently were written before the German wireless stations had been placed under the control of the German government.

EMPLOYEES MUST WEAR THE BUTTONS

Cannot Get Into Electric Works Without Badge of Identification.

The inauguration of the button identification system in which every employee must be supplied with a button when he applies for entrance at the gates or doors of the General Electric works was made Thursday morning and it was not the "joke" that some of the employees considered it. This class did not take the proposition seriously and as a result a number of them appeared for admittance without their buttons and had to go home and get the little but powerful badge of employment. Ample notice that none would be admitted to the works on and after Nov. 1 was given by bulletins on the various boards and by other means and the gatekeepers enforced the order regardless of person. The buttons indicate by color and wording on them the department the wearer belongs. Office men and women have a small metal button running in number from 1 to 600; employees in section A, east of Broadway, have red buttons numbered from 601 up to 3,000; section B, west of Broadway, have blue buttons numbered from 3,001 to 6,000; the maintenance of way department, of which Henry Stallut is the head, have white buttons numbered 6,001 to 7,000, and the warehouse and shipping department employees have green buttons numbered from 7,001 to 7,400.

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

It is Observed in All the Catholic Churches Thursday.

The feast of All Saints was celebrated in all the Catholic churches of Fort Wayne Thursday. Masses were held at the same hours as at the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception, where the forty hour devotions have been in progress since Tuesday. Early services were held there at 5:30, 6, 7, 8 and 9, and solemn high mass at 10 o'clock. Hundreds received holy communion at these early services. The sermon at the high mass was delivered by Bernard Mulloy, who has been assisting in the devotional services. Holy hour will be observed from 2:30 to 3:30 in charge of Rev. George Finnigan. The solemn closing of the devotion will occur at 7:30 Thursday night, with Rt. Rev. Bishop Herman Joseph Alerding officiating.

At the services Wednesday evening Father Mulloy gave a masterful sermon on the subject of "Mortal Sin." He stated that the present European war, with which the United States has now become a part, was primarily caused as a result of that first mortal sin of Adam.

In the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the founding of the Lutheran church, held Wednesday at Concordia college, fully 10,000 people were present at the four services. The devotions were to have been held in the gymnasium, but long before the opening of the building was filled to the overflowing and a kindred service had to be held in the chapel. The entire afternoon service was conducted in German, with the Rev. W. C. Kohn, of Chicago, in the pulpit. After an interesting program of songs and refreshments were served in the college mess hall. At the evening services Praeses F. Protenhauer and Rev. F. Brand, of Springfield, spoke in the gymnasium, and Rev. F. Trose, of Detroit, and Professor Goeller, of Springfield, spoke in the chapel. One of the features of the meeting was the singing of the children's choir of 900 voices.

Good Program.

The young people of the Calvary United Brethren church have arranged an interesting program for Thursday night at 7 o'clock in the church. After the entertainment a social hour will be held at the parsonage. The program includes singing by the congregation; prayer, Rev. J. W. Borkert; vocal duet, Edith Lee and last night, Mr. Walters met her in Chicago yesterday and accompanied her to the city. Mrs. Walters was gone several weeks.

The Tolleston tower of the Pennsylvania was damaged by fire to the cause of the fire, which was so sudden that the operator had to descend on the outside of the building, the usual passage being shut off by the flames.

Raymond LaFollette, 16 years old, was fined $17 by a police justice at Plymouth yesterday for putting six signals out of commission by shooting at them. He was arrested by Lieut. U. H. Strasser. LaFollette lives in Cincinnati and is visiting relatives at Plymouth.

The superintendents are still in the lead in the bowling games of the G. R. & I. office league. After the game at the Star last night the score stood: Superintendents, won 10, lost 3; road foremen of engines, won 7, lost 5; trainmasters, won 5, lost 7; time clerks, won 2, lost 10. At the game last night Joseph C. Brake, of the road foremen of engines, made the high score, 225.

CUTSHALL RECORD ON LIGHTING PLANT SHOWS NO FRIENDSHIP

Pointed Out by One of the Oldest Supporters of the City Enterprise That in the Time of Mr. Cutshall's Management Poor Progress Was Made With the City's Lighting Business.

"It is apparent to the public that Mr. Cutshall's unusual claims that he is sincere in his advocacy of the cause of the city lighting plant is all a sham." was the declaration today of a man who has been one of the steadfast friends of the city enterprise since its projection almost twenty years ago. "In desperation, as it must seem, he now claims that there should be but one lighting plant in Fort Wayne."

He does not say how he intends to make the city lighting plant the only one. Most people think the best way to give the city plant the exclusive field is to patronize the city plant. Strange to say, Cutshall, the republican candidate for mayor, in buying current for his business patronizes the competitor of the city, the Traction company, pays his money into the Traction company, and does not support the city plant. No doubt, the amount of current consumed in his business is very large and the sums of money he pays to the Traction company for current are large and would help the city plant considerably. "Then, too, it is remembered that when Cutshall was controller of the city light plant did not progress. When he took the management of the plant it operated one year and there were 905 customers. During the years of Cutshall's administration the withdrawal of patrons from the city lighting plant was as follows:

"First year, 272 patrons.
"Second year, 308 patrons.
"Third year, 514 patrons.
"It is strange that his administration would result in such an increase of withdrawal of patronage.
"When, too, when you compare this with the small net growth in patronage, it is almost impossible to believe that Mr. Cutshall is sincere when he says he is for the city lighting plant. The net increase of the plant during Cutshall's administration was as follows: For the first year, 703 patrons. For the second year, 501 patrons, and for the third year, 301 patrons. Every year the patronage grew less.

"It seems that when he was managing the plant he was not possessed of the idea which he now advocates of making the city light the only light.

"It is evident that the influence back of Cutshall which killed the law which would authorize the city lighting plant to lower the rate are still working against the plant and in favor of Cutshall.

"It is known that Maurice Nizer has always been a very enthusiastic supporter of the city lighting plant and both in his business and private concerns he has always paid his money for electric current to the city lighting plant, and not to the traction company."

The boxes are two feet long, two feet wide and three feet high and contain the following articles: From 7 to 9 dozen suits of pajamas, from 5 to 6 dozen bath robes, 25 dozen bed shoes, 12 dozen sweaters and 5,000 bandages. The bed shoes are used to keep bandages on a patient's feet clean, and are therefore of a very large size.

Their plan is to abolish the giving of prizes and the serving of refreshments and turn over this money to the Red Cross. They started the plan by donating $2 to the work Wednesday. This is one of the many ways which local organizations have planned to aid in the war.

The Tuesday club donated $1.15, the M. Y. club fifty cents and Mrs. Catherine Gaskins $1 Wednesday. The general fund was also helped greatly when it was found that it had been a red

AN UNUSUALLY BRIGHT CAT.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 1.—Sanford Biggs, of this city, has a cat that is earning its salt. It has been trained by the children to raise up on its haunches and press with its paws an improvised lever that has been constructed for the purpose of ringing a door bell. Tuesday evening, while the members of the family were seated in the living room, the door bell rang. It was answered and when the door was opened, there "Tom" stood, sagely switching his tail, blinking and holding a struggling, dying wild rabbit within his jaws. The Biggs home is near a field at the south end of the town. The cat has previously caught wild rabbits, which come to the Biggs lot to feed with some white tame rabbits belonging to the Biggs family. "Tom" looks the part. He weighs ten pounds, and is a pretty-malesse cat.

MOWER DISAPPEARS.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 1.—The court house lawn mower has disappeared, and although he thinks he probably will have no further use for it this year, Jerry Aldridge, the elevator engineer, should like to have it brought back, so he can put it away for the winter. The lawn mower had been kept in the south entrance vestibule, and was used not long ago. The next day Mr. Aldridge decided it was time to put it away for the winter, but it was gone. The court house attaches indicate that they know who has the mower, and may take further action if the request to bring it back is not heeded.

"VERY LONELY" ENDS LIFE.

Defiance, Ohio, Nov. 1.—"Have been very lonely since Mrs. Brown went home. My children have been the best ever, but I could do nothing for them. I would only be a burden to them in the days to come, so I decided to relieve them of the burden. Have tried to deal square with my fellows all along the way." That is the note left by Dr. C. L. Brown, formerly a member of the state tax commission, and recently ordained as a Baptist minister, who ended his life by hanging himself in the woodshed at his home here. He was one time president of the board of trustees of the Findlay college.

ANNUAL STATE TEACHERS' CONVENTION IS OPENED

Lively Session is Being Held at Indianapolis This Week.

The average normal youngster of Fort Wayne is to be found with a grin on his face today, for the public schools will not be reopened until Monday morning. Practically all of the teachers left for the annual convention at Indianapolis Thursday morning. Most of the pedagogues found it almost impossible to obtain rooms at any of the large hotels but practically all of them had their reservations made by Thursday morning. The usual visiting work will be done, and several fine lecturers have been obtained. The convention will close Friday evening, but practically all of the teachers will remain in Indianapolis until Saturday evening as the majority of them expect to attend the Indiana-Ohio football game at Washington park, Saturday afternoon. Upon the reopening of the schools

Monday morning a new superintendent will be in charge. Prof. R. W. Himelick will arrive in Fort Wayne Sunday and will assume his duties immediately. Superintendent Himelick has established his reputation for executive ability and several changes in present school phases are expected.

CIGARS MAY ADVANCE IN THE RETAIL PRICE

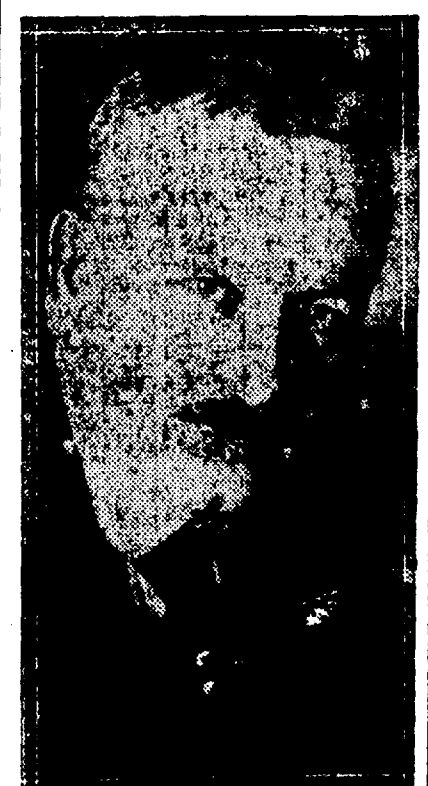

Cigarmakers Are Forced to Raise Because of Added Cost of Materials.

There may be another raise in cigars soon. The local dealers have tried to keep the price down as long as possible, but the revenue tax added to the advance prices on cigar leaf tobacco, boxes, labels, etc., has made it necessary for the local cigar manufacturers to raise the price to the retailer, who in turn must advance its cost to the consumer. Foreign cigar factories, who employ a number of girls as rollers and at a reduced wage rate, have already raised. The material in the cigars made by local cigarmakers is just as good as those that are made anywhere. From this the passing of the "five-cent cigar" may readily be seen.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

"War Strain" Shattering Nerves of Millions!

Doctors Urge Wide-Spread Use of Bitro-Phosphate for Restoring Wasted Nerve Energy, Increasing Strength, Power of Endurance and for Putting Flesh on Bones of Thin Folks.

Dr. Joseph D. Harrigan, Formerly Visiting Specialist to the North Eastern Dispensary, N. Y., says—"Nerve Weakness is a Curse to the Nations—Legions of Men and Women Have Become Prematurely Old, Simply for No Other Reason Than they Want of More Bitro-Phosphate in Their Systems."

NEW YORK, N. Y.—"No wonder we have so many people with shattered nerves and other conditions of nerve energy. Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, anaemic or run-down take a natural, harmless, unadulterated strength and tissue building substance, such as bitro-phosphate, for two weeks and you will soon see most astonishing results in many instances in cases under fifty years of age, while others who are generally feeble will often feel to a marked degree the increase in nerve energy, strength of body and mind, power of endurance, and desire to be 'up and doing.' Why, I now have in mind the case of a gentleman who advanced in thought and action and gained strength that has taken place in his body. I have often said, and I again unhesitatingly assert that physicians as well as such other who suffer, should be grateful to Pelour, the French scientist, who discovered this form of action and movement, which, when taken into the human system, is quickly converted into healthy, living nerve tissue."

Anyone who suffers in this or any other city, can easily test and see what the taking of bitro-phosphate will do. Before taking it, however, make a note of your weight. Also see how steadily you can point your finger at a certain spot for one minute without becoming nervous, shaky or your arms increasing in tremor. Then, after a simple experiment, take one 5-grain bitro-phosphate tablet after each meal, three times daily for a few days, then repeat the experiment again. If the results justify what has been stated, continue its use for a while and you may happily note from day to day the increase of nervous energy, power of endurance, healthy tissue, co-ordination of thought and action and improvement in general.

NOTE—According to authoritative medical journals, the term of organic phosphate mentioned above which is dispensed by drug stores in this country as bitro-phosphate, is recommended by the English authority, Sir James Barr, and such other who have happily noted from day to day the increase of nervous energy, power of endurance, healthy tissue, co-ordination of thought and action and improvement in general. The dose usually recommended is one 5-grain tablet three times daily, but those who wish to personally test the substance are cautioned against over-dosing. A small percentage of the genuine organic phosphate, as Dr. Harrigan has pointed out, in order to derive the maximum benefit it should be taken in its pure, unadulterated state and it is well known to remember to ask for Bitro-Phosphate. It is sold in this city by the D. C. Harrigan Co., 125 Calhoun St., and by other reliable dealers.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1917.

A DESPICABLE RESORT.

Efforts to incite religious prejudices in political campaigns are not new to Fort Wayne. Such attempts have been made frequently heretofore, but it is more than surprising at this time, when the country is facing a perilous crisis and must have the loyal and ungrudging support of all citizens irrespective of their religious convictions and their church affiliations, that this evil thing should arise again. Nevertheless, it has been projected into the municipal campaign.

Secretly and under cover of darkness there has been circulation of a small handbill of such purport and tenor as to disclose promptly the insidious purpose of it. Nothing could be plainer than that the candidates in whose behalf this handbill is given the pretense of having been put out had nothing to do with it. The handbill itself bears convincing testimony to that. Neither those candidates nor their friends would contemplate such a clumsy trick in a fatuous belief that it might help them, nor would they basely engage in such an effort even if it had seemed to hold out any promise of gain at the polls.

No patriotic citizen will be misled by this despicable business to harbor any prejudice against candidates whose injury is sought through the sneaking and cowardly circulation in the determination of greater and graver issues than those staked upon the municipal campaign in Fort Wayne. To bind all our people together in unswerving devotion to the flag and in consecrated and undivided support of the government in the war is a duty that stands above all others. Attempts at any time and under any circumstances to create religious prejudices and stir evil passions that may divide one class of citizens from another, to make friend distrust friend and to turn neighbor against neighbor are evil and despicable, but to launch such efforts now is an unspeakable infamy and a traitorous employment.

No good American, no matter what his religion or his creed, will have else than contempt and abomination for a political enterprise of the sort that has just been set afoot in this city.

THE BIGELOW INCIDENT.

If the hogging lately given to Herbert S. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, had been administered by authority of law not much violence of dissent would have been provoked. There is general agreement that Bigelow ought to be suppressed. There is a considerable volume of opinion that his preachments against the war are unpatriotic and injurious and that for the offense of uttering them he should be punished. It is only because lawlessness was invoked to put him under the merited pains of transgression that the whipping he was given by the masked men who kidnapped him seems to be considered anywhere to have been an outrage. There has been no expression of sympathy for Bigelow himself. It is deplored and denounced merely that a lawless act was committed. And that is a serious thing always, but the more so now because it may lead to similar acts of lawlessness against similar offenders, whereas those should be reserved for and committed solely to the law's penalties. Here and there are a good many of one kind or another who for one purpose or another are opposing the government in the war and making its huge tasks more difficult. The Bigelow incident may have much evil influence to provoke like employment of lawlessness against them. The country can now so ill afford anything as it can even the semblance of anarchy. Obedience to law and respect for all its forms and injunctions rest with special weight upon the people at this time. The Bigelow whitecapping set a flagrant example of lawlessness.

AROUND THE TOWN WITH HOSEY—A 5.

Mayor Hosey will be hard put to it to recall a finer tribute to himself and his public service than was paid him four years ago by Mr. Cutshall, the present republican candidate for mayor.

"Having in mind the progressive spirit with which you have conducted public affairs in the past and believing that your ambition is to give Fort Wayne the best administration it ever had," said Mr. Cutshall in his letter to Mayor-elect Hosey, November 13, four years ago, Mr. Cutshall went on to beg the privilege of associating himself with that "progressive spirit" and to join Mr. Hosey in an effort to realize the ambition to "give Fort Wayne the best administration it ever had."

For now some weeks Mr. Cutshall, for himself and in his own behalf and vociferously aided by his organ and his speakers, has been attempting to convince the people of Fort Wayne that "Hoseysism"—whatever that is—is the sum of all evil. Why is this? What has been done during the past four years to place Mr. Cutshall's spirit and utterance in complete opposition to what he assumed the pains to say to Mayor Hosey four years ago? What has taken place in Mr. Hosey's second administration that damns all the good that Mr. Cutshall not only beheld but acknowledged as distinguishing Mayor Hosey's first administration?

It may be that it was a culpable blunder, a crime against the people that four years ago Mr. Hosey did not think fit to attach Mr. Cutshall to his administration and that perhaps is the head and front of his offending. Mr. Cutshall ought to be as frank with criticism, as candid in his denunciations, as he was when only the honeyed words of approval and of praise issued from him.

This newspaper happens to be in a position where it may speak what it likes of Mayor Hosey and his administration, so long as it holds to the truth. This newspaper has privileged itself to be consistent as well as honest. It did not like some things about Mayor Hosey's first administration and at the time it said so. It finds much to approve in Mayor Hosey's present administration and does not hesitate to say so. But that is not the point. What was there four years ago that stirred Mr. Cutshall to such raptures of praise of Mayor Hosey and what has there been since that time that rouses him to such excesses of incontinent detraction?

If Mr. Cutshall then believed Mayor Hosey all good, how can he now believe him all bad? There was hypocrisy then or there is hypocrisy now and we leave it to Mr. Cutshall to say for himself on which occasion he chose to be the hypocrite.

MR. CUTSHALL SHOULD ANSWER.

We trust Mr. Cutshall will take early occasion to declare his plans for a complete monopolization by the city of the electric light and power field in Fort Wayne.

He has stated his belief and announced his purpose to proceed to the realization of such a monopoly in the event of his election to the mayoralty.

Has Mr. Cutshall in mind what has been more than hinted for some months that he will attempt to take over the competing electric light and power interests if he shall become head of the city government?

Mr. Cutshall's conversion to municipal ownership as a complete monopoly appears to have been sudden, except we view his statement as a rather disingenuous disclosure of a purpose well in mind and now put out not for what it is, but for what may be made to appear.

As we stated yesterday, the design for a city monopoly of the electric light and power field has been the democratic policy in Fort Wayne. The advance to that goal has been steadfast. The distance will not be great if the city can get itself free of the restraints and around the obstacles created by the state utilities law and commission.

Those restraints and obstacles would before this have been removed but for the efforts of one man who, in contravention of the highest public interests here, caused that law to be killed. The man who killed the Fort Wayne relief bill is the man who speaks loudest, longest and strongest for Mr. Cutshall's candidacy. He cannot be for Mr. Cutshall if Mr. Cutshall is not his kind of a man on the municipal lighting issue.

Is there to be an unloading upon the city at a heavy cost of the plant, lines and remaining business of the competing interest if Mr. Cutshall is elected? Mr. Cutshall should answer.

Enemy propaganda is working with diligence against the food pledge campaign. Every American housewife who is approached with any of the insidious discouragements that peculiarly mark the nature of this propaganda should note the person engaged in the work and report to the proper persons—some member of the local councils of defense, preferably.

There seems to be some hope that the Austro-German invasion of Italy can be converted into a trap. We'll all hope so.

If your life is somehow mixed,
Just—forget it!
Try to live each hour the best,
Trials come, but for a test,
When life's over you'll have rest—
Don't—forget it!

If things go all upside down,
Just—forget it!

Just—forget it!

With an old sour-apple face;
Charge the guns, and take a brace—
Don't—forget it!

Just—forget it!
They're abused—and so are you,
Just—forget it!
Chase the whine, and bite your lip,
Face the music, get a grip,
This life's but a trial trip—
Don't—forget it!

All the world's a stage—but we won't play on it if we can't do a little of the star business. As the days go by the handwriting on the German wall becomes ever more apparent—and some of that writing seems to be in cuss-words. "Thou shalt not kill," says the book known in polite company as the Bible—but it wasn't written by the Crown Prince so its commands may be disobeyed by all loyal Germans.

It's a fine thing to realize these days that the plans of the Creator are not mixed to Him no matter how badly tangled up they seem to us. Love is sometimes as strong as death, but in a great many cases it is hardly as strong as the breath—still there is always sen-sen.

PORTRAIT OF A PATRIOT PERUSING THE PAPER

HELPING TO WIN THE WAR

Article IV—Advice to Americans Between Ages of 21 and 30

BY GEORGE ADE.

(This Another in the Series Prepared by Mr. Ade for the Indiana State Council of Defense.)

Six months ago the new voters were very much in the background or off at the sides.

No man under 30 held a top-notch executive position or had moved to the front row of his profession.

Any man under thirty was likely to be regarded by a man well over thirty as a bit pit-feathery and somewhat of a squab.

The word "half-baked" is much favored by those who begin to feel a stiffening in the joints. Just a few shifting moons and now the whole nation is looking up in reverence and admiration and dread at our lads still in the twenties.

The bank president is a pigmy alongside of the first lieutenant. Elderly persons sit lonesomely in clubs, feeling depressed and unworthy.

We have witnessed the transfiguration of the cub. The very qualities which we appraised so lightly or regarded as minor faults are now recognized as the ingredients of heroism.

We do not smile tolerantly at the eager enthusiasm, the sense of danger, the cheerful optimism and the candid patriotism of these coltish youngsters.

We look at them with eyes a bit misty and say, "Boys, you're great!" Many of us are sitting in sheltered corners, away from the front-hand activities of the war, trying to comprehend that thousands of our boys are now in France and thousands more are going, and we have passed the long preamble of talk and come up against the flinty realities of shrapnel and hand grenades.

How easy it is for a man living in a steam-heated apartment, sleeping on a box mattress and just about 3,000 miles beyond the range of the longest guns—how easy it is for him to tell the boys to endure grimly the trench privations and then go over the top like a whirlwind!

Are words of any account just now? Shall we advise our soldiers to be brave? Probably the French and English instructors will urge them to be cautious.

Shall we tell them to go out and die for their country? That is not the prospectus, at all, at all. The plan is for our boys to tame the Germans and then come home alive.

If we are to poster them with counsel, let it be to the following effect: "You are going to tackle the big adventure of your life, but the chances are that you will come out of it all right—not even nicked by a wound. The Americans are bound to get into action at the front. They will share hard responsibilities with the English and Canadians and French. It is a grisly thing to check up on a cold-blooded percentage basis, but, from a view of the averages, we believe that nineteen out of every twenty boys going to France will come home again.

Every month the heavy artillery spreads a more effective curtain between the advancing infantry and the enemy. You are going into a zone of extreme fire. After the fighting is over, you will find yourself in advance, the glory of your performance. But, the figures from Canada (which is a fair example) indicate that you are not going to be trapped at sea and that only a small percentage of your comrades are going to be put away by the Germans and there is no need of assuming that all the breaks of luck are going to be against you instead of for you. Therefore, we count on giving you a welcome home.

for you to return to her, don't be ashamed to meet her.

"Another day, which no young fellow should resent when it is offered by an older man who has traveled in foreign parts. Remember that the "Yank" has the reputation in Europe, of standing on his hind legs and crowing, at the slightest provocation. We are supposed to blow too much about our native land. We are said to be "cocky" and credit ourselves with a sick superiority over the old-fashioned Europeans. Possibly some of our citizens have over-developed the gift of loose conversation.

"The 'typical American' that Europeans have discovered in popular fiction, moving pictures and standard novels, is an over-estimated combination of cow-puncher and Bovey boy. Just now the 'Sammy' is receiving an hysterical welcome. One year ago the people pelt him with flowers were calling us pretty hard names. These impulsive affections are apt to be lived unless they are expressed tactfully. Let us sincerely hope that the attentions crowded upon our boys will not cause a rush of blood to the head, enlarging it.

"Every American soldier landing in France or England has a golden opportunity to show his good sense by using the cheerful optimism and the candid patriotism of these coltish youngsters. HINT TO COAL MEN.

(New York World.)

Fuel Administrator Garfield spoke feelingly to 1,500 bituminous coal operators at Pittsburgh:

"Do not forget that when you are considering the question of traffic, transportation and wage the country is at war. I do not say this as a threat, but as long as I am fuel dictator I propose to see that all the coal we expect is produced."

This may not have been a threat, but it certainly was a hint. With many different excuses, coal mining has been interrupted, in most cases with intent to force the government's hand in the matter of higher wages and prices. Operators as well as miners are believed to have acted in harmony to these ends in some localities.

As fuel administrator Mr. Garfield's powers of suggestion are great because the law under which he is acting is far-reaching. When he delicately insinuates that he is going to have all the coal that the country requires he is merely reminding the industry in perfect kindness that he is about to commandeer the mines and to conscript the labor needed to work them on public account.

No great business interest ought to assume that with war in progress it can apply a stranglehold to the United States, but if an example of the folly of such an undertaking must be had, the coal trade appears to be an inviting subject.

The raising of Siberian hares for commercial purposes has been undertaken on a large scale by business men near Hamilton, Ontario.

Lake Superior whitefish and trout have been selling in the retail markets of Port Arthur and Ft. William, Ont., at 15 to 18 cents a pound.

Uncle Harry Tells How Our Destroyers And Shipyards Are Helping to Win the War

"Uncle Harry," said Joe, "about a week ago we were down town shopping with mother and we saw on a newspaper bulletin board news of the sinking of the U. S. transport Antilles by a submarine. And shortly before that I also read that a U. S. destroyer had been torpedoed."

"Yes, Uncle Harry," broke in Jimmy, "does this mean that our destroyers are not able to beat the U-boats? I thought they were built especially to fight and sink submarines."

"That is one of the important things that the destroyers are supposed to do," replied Uncle Harry, "and notwithstanding these few mishaps, they have been very successful since the United States entered the war."

"The American destroyer flotilla, commanded by Admiral Sims, has, for some time, been doing patrol duty in the so-called 'barred zone' around safely conveyed to their destinations by these little guardians of the sea."

"Our brave men on the destroyers must feel very happy when they succeed in rescuing people from torpedoed ships," said Helen.

"Yes," replied Uncle Harry. "That is humane work and also very dangerous work. Whenever possible, two destroyers will go together on a rescue mission of this sort and while one is engaged in the difficult work of picking up the survivors from lifeboats or rafts, the other will circle around, keeping a sharp lookout for any U-boats that may be lurking around waiting for a chance to attack."

"Are the U-boats sinking as many of the Allied ships as they said they would?" asked Jimmy.

"I believe not," replied Uncle Harry. "When the present submarine campaign was started, the German Ad-mirally boasted that they would sink a million tons of shipping every month. But the official figures based on actual losses during the month of September, for example, show that the Germans are not sinking more than 650,000 tons of shipping a month.

TRANSPORT CONVOYED BY DESTROYERS

"This reduction in losses is due largely to the efficient convoy system now in use. Fifty and sixty cargo ships are taken through the danger zone at one time by a cordon of American destroyers through which the U-boats are seldom able to break."

"But 650,000 tons of shipping is a great amount, even at that, isn't it, Uncle Harry?" said Joe.

"Yes, it is, and the situation is serious enough in spite of the good work being done by the destroyer fleet. The problem of supplying the American troops on the firing line with food and munitions and of also furnishing the allied armies with a large proportion of their food and raw materials is a tremendous one."

"Chairman Harry, of the Shipping Board, expects to have on the seas one million tons of brand new shipping laden with cargo and on the way to Europe by March, 1918. This will include ships originally ordered by British, French and Norwegian owners, but being built in American shipyards and now taken over by the United States."

"The immensity of the task is fully realized by those in charge of the work, but it is thought that American brains and brawn will prove equal to it."

"Watch the papers closely for more news of our destroyers and for a record of the progress we are making in shipbuilding, for on both of these the success of the war largely depends."

Editor's Note—Uncle Harry will be glad to answer inquiries, either in this column or by mail, provided letters are signed with the full name and address of the persons writing. The correspondents' names will not appear in the articles.

RETAIL LICENSES MAY CUT FOOD COST

Government's Big Campaign to Reduce Cost of Eat-ables Begins Nov. 1.

By Harry B. Hunt, of the Daily Sentinel, Washington, D. C. Nov. 1.—Uncle Sam's grip on the food situation tightens perceptibly with the placing under license, November 1, of all large food-stuff dealers, from producer to consumer.

This license, bringing under government regulation meat packers, storage houses, millers, canners, grain dealers, brokers, commission men and food wholesalers, also covers retailers doing a business of $100,000 per year or more.

This brings under federal control the larger individual grocers and all the chain-store firms, and means there will be at least one government-controlled retail grocery in every city of size.

For immediate price control the food administration has singled out 20 groups of staple commodities on which regulations will be imposed. The price of these commodities will be followed from producer through the wholesaler and large retailer and the margin of profit in each case strictly limited. Dealers found asking exorbitant prices will be deprived of their license, without which they cannot continue in business.

The profits to be allowed the various middlemen on the staples selected have not yet been determined. Food administration experts, busy on the schedule for weeks, probably will work it out within 10 days. In the absence of exact established margins, the food administration will act upon all cases in the light of whether the profits exacted are "reasonable."

It is the hope, eventually, to fix an official price range for all commodities, announcing the prices weekly or oftener, as changes in supply and demand justify. These prices would be carried in all newspapers, the way Chicago and New York produce prices heretofore fixed by the dealers themselves have been announced. This fixing of specific prices, however, has been complicated by the necessity of meeting regional conditions of supply and transportation, and by the many grades that would have to be covered in some commodities. It is expected ultimately a government price list will show the housewife exactly what her retailer is paying. She will then know if he attempts to charge an excess profit.

The foodstuffs taken immediately under federal control by the licenses of November 1, are:

Wheat, wheat flour, rye and rye flour.

Fresh, canned or cured beef, pork or mutton.

Milk, butter, cheese, lard, lard substitutes, oleomargarine, oleo oil and cooking fats.

Sugar, syrups and molasses.

Barley and barley flour.

Corn, corn meal, corn meal, hominy, corn flour, corn starch, corn oil, corn syrup and glucose.

Rice and rice flour.

Dried beans.

Pea seed or dried peas.

Cottonseed, cottonseed oil, cottonseed cake or cottonseed meal.

Peanut oil or peanut meal.

Soya-bean oil and meal, palm oil and copra oil.

Condensed, evaporated or powdered milk.

Poultry and eggs.

Fresh and frozen fish.

Fresh fruits and vegetables.

The Quaker Oats Company, 1708 Railway Exchange, Chicago

Quaker Oats Which Saves You 75%

Measured by food value, Quaker Oats costs one-fourth as much as the average mixed diet. So each dollar you spend for Quaker Oats saves an average of $3. Oats stand supreme among grain foods, in nutrition and in flavor. They form a complete food, supplying every need. As an energy food their fame is proverbial.

Make this the chief breakfast dish. Meat and eggs cost five and six times as much. Also use Quaker Oats in bread and muffins, pancakes and cookies. No other food is so economical.

Use Quaker Oats because of the matchless flavor. It is made of queen grains only—just the big, plump, luscious oats. We get but 10 pounds from a bushel. Yet it costs you no extra price.

Pettijohn's The Laxative Luxury

Pettijohn's Breakfast Food is soft rolled wheat, hiding 25 per cent bran flakes. It is a flavory dainty of which no one ever tires. And it supplies the needed bran. Bran is Nature's laxative. Everybody needs it. Most folks would feel better if they ate it every day.

Fine foods clog the system. Bran supplies the needed roughage. Every doctor, as you know, urges its use, to avoid the need of drugs.

Try it one week. Note the good spirits which result. Never again will you return to a branless diet.

Pettijohn's Flour is another bran dainty. That is 75 per cent white patent flour and 25 per cent bran flakes. Use like Graham flour in any recipe. With these two products every meal can include some bran-made dainty.

FLOTILLA PRINTER IS THE BUSIEST AMERICAN

"Skee" of "Chi" Does the Art Preservative for Navy Abroad.

Base American Flotilla. In British Waters, Oct. 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The flotilla printer is one of the busiest Americans here. He is a native of Chicago and holds a card of Typographical Union No. 16, of that city. "Skee" from "Chi," he is called by the bluejackets who seem to have a nickname for everything.

"Skee" does not go to sea. He works on board a vessel that swings at a buoy in this port. Even morning till night he is kept busy on the avalanche of orders that come rolling in for printed stuff for the whole flotilla. Of late he has been doing some work for the British naval forces. His workroom resembles a small jobbing office and is tucked out of the way in the stern of the flotilla flagship. It is fenced off with warnings against intrusion. All type is set by hand and printed on a small hand press electrically operated.

The flotilla printer has made a hit by the way in which he illustrates the program he prints of the bluejackets at their shore clubhouse, turning out rough wood cuts for the cover of the program. Last week he had a picture of the clubhouse with sailors arriving in limousines. Girls who are barred from the clubhouse are frequently depicted waiting in automobiles for the sailors to re-appear. His latest attempt was an illustration of that part of West 43rd street, New York, known as "Melody Lane," to go with the burlesque of that musical thoroughfare produced by the sailors.

The flotilla printer is a chief petty officer with the rating of a first-class printer. With the increase in pay made recently he gets $62 a month as printer, and to this must be added his $50 a year allowance as a naval reserve man which brings his monthly stipend up to $70. Uncle Sam pays his board and lodging. A satisfactory feature is that there is no composing room foreman to boss him. He alone in the whole flotilla, knows his job.

WILDWOOD PARK AT NIGHT IS BEAUTIFUL

Sparkling Boulevard Lights Suggest a Veritable Fairyland.

Since the boulevard lighting plan in Wildwood Park has been completed, the beautiful new west side community is truly a fairyland after nightfall. Seen at a distance, as for instance, from the Taylor street entrance to the city, the stretch of sparkling lights extending over the broad sweep of dark, distant landscape appears like "a city set upon a hill." The closer view, however, gained only as the automobilist enters at either the Washington road, gives an entirely different impression. Here, he is in the midst of it, and he finds the distant sparkling lights to be set upon graceful posts and at sufficiently separated points along the drives to harmonize perfectly with the general plan of the boulevard "city" perfectly.
The place as a location for homes is merely an improvement upon all that Nature could provide. Nothing has been marred or destroyed. Everything beautiful and useful has been preserved. The people who now live in Wildwood Park are delighted with the choice of their choice of homes of similar taste still have the opportunity to secure the broad roomy home sites in this ideal community.

YOUNSTERS ESTABLISH RECORD FOR HALLOWE'EN

Neither Complaints Nor Arrests Testify to Good Behavior.

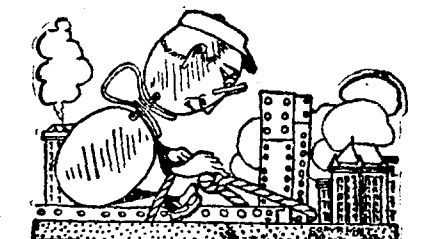

What with a sane Fourth of July and a pranksome Halloween the kids of Fort Wayne will surely make a day find themselves minus any suitable material for fireside reminiscences. All officers reported an unusually quiet evening. Wednesday night. Masqueraders were to be found in large numbers, but they were all of the harmless variety, and most of them were off of the streets at 9 o'clock. One of the police officers found a lad sitting on the curb at about eight thirty in a very pessimistic mood. When questioned the lad stated that since there were no bricks to be hurled or gates to be carried away life was not worth living. The officer furnished the boy with some popcorn from a nearby store and advised him to gather his cronies and spend the evening popping corn. The youth at once saw the brighter side of life and sped off to get Skinnay and the rest of the gang.

Deaths of Cases.
The high cost of getting fined has evidently caused Fort Wayne police characters to strike, for nearly a one graced prisoners' row Thursday morning. George Wilson reported that he had a good job at Bowser's and was admonished to stay a good boy. He was the runaway lad found a week ago. The case against Mose Jacobs, fruit merchant, was dismissed, while the case of Frank Cramer of wife desertion, was continued until December 1.

ORGANIZED LABOR STRONGER THAN EVER BECAUSE OF ITS WAR SERVICE SAYS GOMPERS

BY SAMUEL GOMPERS, President American Federation of Labor.

Organized labor of the United States, as represented in the American Federation of Labor, will be stronger when it assembles for its annual convention in Buffalo a few days hence than ever before.

This great increase in strength is evidenced whether we measure it by the growth in membership to more than two and a half millions, by the great extension of industrial activities in which union scales and conditions are obligatory, by the government's ever increasing recognition of organized labor, or by the degree of solidarity.

It is no exaggeration to say there never has been in all labor history such a rapid extension of the principles and practices of industrial democracy as since the United States was forced to enter the world conflict.

And, mark this point—In every case this extension has been made not to impede the nation's war preparations but to accelerate them by promoting co-operation between employers and labor, but its wisdom has in every instance appealed to official officials.

The workers in hundreds of establishments, in the past denied every form of recognition, with their wages, hours and working conditions arbitrarily determined, are now receiving the union scale and have their grievances equitably adjusted.

In four great branches—ship-building, armament construction, mercantile marine, and longshore work—agreements have been perfected between the government, the employers and labor to safeguard even the unorganized men. These agreements have government sanction because of an ever-growing realization of the necessity not only for industrial stability but for a proper standard of living as the basis for efficiency.

Already the 8-hour law for government contracts has greatly extended the 8-hour day, for in many branches there is hardly a firm not working on government contract.

Although many establishments are now working 9 or 10 hours, the basis 8-hour day is in effect and the payment of time-and-a-half for overtime beyond 8 hours is a sufficient check on the employment of men more than 8 hours except in cases of genuine emergency, such as the present.

I predict the war's end will find the 8-hour day practically universal in American industry, as the result not of any spectacular "general strike" but of the recognition, at the insistence of organized labor, that in the long run more and better work can be produced in eight hours than in any longer period.

There is a rapidly growing recognition that the workers are the true basis of national strength. If labor's hand is not strong, skillful and willing, not a ship will sail, not a gun will roar. Through this recognition labor will assume a new status in the nation's councils.

Some of our American "Bolsheviks" of the socialist party, of the so-called People's Council, and other similar irresponsible undertook a campaign to swerve American labor from the standpoint of loyalty to self and country. Their futile efforts have only demonstrated that among all the millions of American workers there were only a handful mean or silly enough to join the traitorous plan.

It cannot too often be emphasized that American workmen are concerned in this great struggle not only as Americans, but as workers. They must help destroy Hohenzollernism not only because it menaced America and democracy, but because the workers more than any other class stand to suffer by the triumph of Prussianism.

To the capitalist it need matter little in what country he lives, his wealth exists him above the laws and political government of any country.

With the worker the existence of a military absolutism of daily concern. Whether he is the slave of the state, as in Prussia, or whether the state is his servant, determines his whole existence. Therefore labor has mobilized for an early and lasting peace.

It must be recognized, however, that labor's unswerving loyalty is not maintained without sacrifice. Not only have the men of labor gone forth as soldiers, not only have they redoubled their efforts in mine and factory, but at the same time they have had to see their family far beyond through price increases far beyond any increase in their wages. Already the standard of living has been reduced far below what is necessary to maintain their energy unimpaired. All this labor has borne with wonderful patience.

The toilers of America are willing to make sacrifices, but they must be sacrifices for the republic and not for private profit.

Labor is with the government in this war because we know the government is with labor to a degree surpassing any other administration. We believe, we know, that the wise, good-hearted man in the white house will not endure abuses, but will descend upon the war profiteers and put an end to their pernicious practices.

There is a rapidly growing recogni-

GOVERNMENT STARTS THEATER TICKET TAX

Extra Pennies Will Go to Help Win Freedom's War.

The government will make another strategic move in its financial campaign for the world war when the theater tax of 10 per cent goes into effect all over the United States Thursday.

The tax will gain about $600 in pennies from Fort Wayne theaters alone, according to the average attendance at the city's motion picture and vaudeville houses on Thursday afternoon and evening. On days of the largest theater attendance the amusement tax should gather $1,000 in Fort Wayne for the fighting boys "over there."

There will be no falling off in theater attendance because of the tax, amusement experts who have studied the workings of the theater assessment in Canada say. People will not hesitate to pay the extra penny in order to see Theda Bara vamp or Fattie Arbuckle throw fresh black-berry pies, when they know that the special assessment goes to feed soldiers and buy ammunition.

The tax as ordered from Washington will be: One cent additional for every 10 cent ticket; 15 cent tickets will be 17 cents; 20 cent tickets, 22 cents; 25 cent tickets, 28 cents; 50 cent tickets, 55 cents, and $1 tickets, $1.10.

Loving picture theater men have been paying a special tax of 15 cents for every reel which has been shown since November 15, and vaudeville houses have had to bear the brunt of the additional car fare rate levied by the government, but no burden is to be placed upon the public for these profit-reducing assessments, theater managers state.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

"THIS STOCK IS FOR TRAITORS"

The old-fashioned stock, which with the pillory was a favorite form of punishment in old colonial days and in England, is in service again. A committee of patriotic citizens installed on Government Square, Cincinnati, as a warning to those guilty of unpatriotic utterances. It is thought a few hours' ridicule will cure the worst case of knicker worship. The back of the bench bears the motto: "This Stock is for Traitors," and on the footrest is the sign: "Made Somewhere in America." The photograph shows one of its builders illustrating how offenders will be punished.

INDIANA ELEVEN IS GIVEN LETUP

Risley and Hathaway Rounding to Shape and Will Be in Big Game.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 1.—After their fine performance last night, when they ran over the freshmen in the best scrimmage of the year, the Indiana varsity was given a letup in the work last evening, drill ending with another demonstration by the yearlings of the Ohio State style of attack. The youngsters had the ball and the man carrying it merely waded through the formation without charging the line.

Neither Jordan field nor the university golf links was the scene of today's workout. The coach found a stretch of high ground on Forest avenue, a quarter of a mile back of the regular meeting place, where a several wagon loads of straw had been scattered. This made a very good footing for the men with their heavy football cleats and an improvement over the soft, spongy ground elsewhere. Contrary to expectations, not a single player in this week has been behind closed gates, but as nearly all the members of the student body were not aware of the lid was not on very few have witnessed practices.

With the return of Left End Risley every man is in the fold and the team probably will be in as good physical condition as it has been this season. Capt. Hathaway reported the scrimmage last night had not hurt his ankle over again and that he will be in the pink of condition. Risley played last night without limping and soreness has practically left his leg. Officials agreed upon by both schools for the game are: Birch (Earlham), referee; Davis (Princeton), umpire; Gardner (Cornell), field judge. Stehm said his men will not go to Indianapolis the night before the contest, but will make their trip on the second section of the rosters' special over the Illinois Central, on which a special parlor car will be attached. Every member of the squad will be taken, including the freshmen.

The Howling Host, which will head the parade with their fifty new hats, will attend the pep session tomorrow night en masse and introduce the new Indiana song for the first time to the student body. The band will play the accompaniment. Great care is being taken by the Boosters' club in selecting speakers for this meeting. Besides Coaches Stehm and Rathbun, talks will be given by Judge J. L. LaFollette and Prof. A. L. Parks.

FRANKLIN IN SHAPE.

Franklin, Ind., Nov. 1.—In spite of the wintry breezes which swept over Franklin field yesterday afternoon, Coach Thurber sent the Blue and the Gold squad through a hard practice in preparation for the Rose Poly game. The Franklin team came out in the Butler contest in good shape, and it is thought that the coach will have the use of his best lineup in the remaining two games on the Baptist schedule. Naugle, crack back field man, was able to be out for practice scrimmage for the first time in many weeks. Campbell is another man who has been missed, but who is fully able to take a place in the Franklin lineup now.

WHERE'S THE WAR TAX?

Cincinnati, Nov. 1.—Seventy-three boxes for the football game to be played at Redland field November 17 between the Camp Sherman team and the University of Cincinnati, yesterday sold for a total of $34,250 when auctioned off by B. H. Kroger at the booster luncheon for the game. In addition $10,000 worth of tickets for the game were sold, making it certain the gate receipts will pass $50,000. Twenty-one of the boxes brought $1,100 each. Several battalions of Camp Sherman's best soldiers will drill before the game.

CLEVELAND BEAT SOLDIERS.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 1.—Cleveland Americans yesterday defeated a team from the One Hundred and Forty-fifth United States infantry, Ohio national guard division, 10 to 7. Sixteen errors and thirty-one hits were made by the Cleveland team in the eight innings played, and practically every man on the Cleveland team took turns in pitching to the soldiers. Score: Cleveland 2 6 5 1 3 0 1 1—19. Soldiers 1 3 3 0 0 0 0—7.

HAMMOND CLASHES WITH PINE VILLAGE SUNDAY

Effort to Ignore Friars in the Championship Talk Reaches Funny Stage.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 1.—The football championship of Indiana will be at stake Sunday, when the Hammond football team travels to Lafayette to tackle Pine Village. Hammond's victory over Wabash last week has boosted its stock, and nearly a thousand fans will follow the team to the Pine Village habitat. A special train will leave over the Monon at 8 a. m. from Hammond, returning at 3 p. m. A week from Sunday Hammond will meet the Cornell-Hamburgs at Hammond.

The football championship of Indiana will not be at stake as stated in the above dispatch from Hammond. It cannot be at stake until both Hammond and Pine Village defeat the Friars, which as all Fort Wayne fans know cannot be done this season. If Pine Village defeats Hammond the championship rightfully belongs to the Friars, whether the locals and the two above teams ever meet. And the cause for this line of reasoning is based on the result of the Pine Village and Cincinnati Celts game, which ended in a scoreless tie and the overwhelming defeat of the Celts by the Friars. As a matter of fact the Friars have anything but in Indiana.

CHICAGO-MICHIGAN ALUMNI CLUB MEETS

Plans Going Ahead for Big Benefit Game to Be Played on Dec. 1.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A further step in the movement to bring about a football game between the University of Chicago and the University of Michigan here on Dec. 1, was taken today when members of the Chicago-Michigan Alumni club met at the Union League club. It is planned to appoint a committee to confer with Coach A. A. Stagg, of Chicago, and Athletic Director Philip Bartelme, of Michigan, for the purpose of placing the question of a game formally before the athletic boards of the two institutions in case the faculty representatives of the western conference give their consent for a post season game for war charity.

No official suggestions have been offered for post season games between other members of the "Big Ten," but alumni of both Ohio State and Minnesota have discussed the feasibility of a meeting between the two eleven for the benefit of a war charity.

It was also proposed some time ago that Indiana play West Virginia at Camp Shelby, where national guard troops of the two states are in training.

THE HOWLING HOST.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 1.—The "Howling Host," Indiana's rooting organization, will wear Turkish turbans when they march and yell at the Indianapolis next Saturday. The turbans are red and display a big white "I." Final arrangements for the trip of the Indiana supporters were perfected at the meeting of the Boosters' club Wednesday evening.

WABASH BARS BACON.

Bacon, star Wabash college baseball and football player, who played last season in the "Three I" league under the name of Williams, has been found out at his college and barred from college athletics on the ground that he is a professional. They do say that last season wasn't his first professional experience, but the college authorities were asleep.

HARRY GREB BLAZES METEORIC WAY THROUGH MIDDLEWEIGHT DIVISION BY MANY KNOCKOUTS

Second only to the meteoric career of Les Darcy in the pugilistic world in the last few years is that of Harry Greb, the sensational Pittsburgh lad who has been blazing a trail of uninterrupted victories in the middleweight division and has the best opportunity of any in that division to win for himself the crown left by the death of the Australian.

The career of Greb has been as brief as it has been sensational. Four years ago he was laying tin roofs in Pittsburgh for $12 a week, figuring he was making good money.

Today his income approximates $23,000 a year by laying tin ears on other fellows' skulls. In the meantime there isn't a good middleweight in the country whom he hasn't beaten or held even, and this goes for Mike and Tommy Gibbons, Jack Dillon, Billy Miske, George Chip, Battling Levinsky, Gus Christie, Jeff Smith, K. O. Brown, Al McCoy and others.

In a year he has made himself one of the most popular boxers in the country which is attested to by the fact that he always has four or five bouts booked ahead and every fight club of importance in the country is clamoring for his services.

In the last eleven months he has fought forty-one bouts, netting himself more than $30,000, and sometimes fights as many as three and four times a week.

Until a year ago he boxed for points. Then he developed a punch and in his last forty-one bouts has won fifteen by knockouts. His record for knockouts in September was perfect, Jack London, Johnny Howard, K. O. Brown and Battling Kopin, the only men he met during the month, taking the count.

Harry Greb and Two of His Training Starts.

Greb has been knocked out once, Joe Chip turning the trick in Greb's thirteenth fight.

Just now Greb is on the trail of Al McCoy's so-called middleweight title. Greb offers to post $1,000 or his end of the gate for a 15 to 20 round bout with the New Yorker. McCoy recently barely managed to last out ten rounds with Greb and has shown no sign of accepting the offer.

Greb's early path was a thorny one. His first bouts were at amateur shows given by the Pittsburgh Athletic club. Greb's father threatened to kick him if he went near a boxing bout, but his mother would sneak his fighting trunks out to him so he could battle.

"My father is German," Greb says succinctly, "but my mother is Irish."

Moriarity Makes Good As Umpire First Year Out

GEORGE MORIARIETY

When George Moriarity was appointed umpire in the American league last spring there were many critics and ball players who feared he wouldn't do.

Not that George hadn't been a smart ball player or didn't know the game—not that he wasn't a good fellow—but Moriarity was regarded as a man of a hot temper who he might not be able to control.

But as the season rounded out and Moriarity was grinding out game after game with some of the older heads in the league these doubts were cancelled.

Moriarity did have a little trouble at the start of the season. He showed signs of becoming excited when players kicked on decisions but he later overcame this and the season closed he ranked well up with veterans in the game.

TOLEDO MAROONS HAVE A SPLENDID RECORD

They Have Defeated Both the Dayton Heralds and Hammond.

Judging from past performances the Toledo Maroons, who play the Friars here Sunday afternoon, are perhaps the equal of any team that has appeared here this season, being generally regarded as one of the strongest independent football aggregations in the country.

No fan should stay away from Sunday's game because the Racine team cancelled and through fear the Maroons were booked at the eleventh hour just to fill in. The Maroons had a game Sunday and for that reason it was necessary for the Friars to pay a pretty price to secure them. Like the Friars, the Maroons prefer to play at home to get them away from their home lot is no easy matter.

The Maroons have defeated some of the fastest and best teams in the country, including the Detroit Heralds and Hammond.

Sunday will be boys' day and all youngsters of Fort Wayne under sixteen years old who secure a ticket from a local merchant will be admitted. These tickets are being handed out without cost to the boy.

SPORT CHATTER.
In days of old, when Yale was bold
And Harvard piled up scores abhorred
They didn't squirm at every turn
And call their puny teams in formal.

When they were beat they met defeat
With measures calm and calculator
"Next year," they said, "We'll knock 'em dead
Our exploits will be worth relating."

But Yale today, and Harvard—say,
They play the game with rule and reason.
But when they're licked, their lips ain't nicked "Informal teams don't count this season."

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Ridge, College-Elwood streets, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

good, safe medicine to reduce my abnormal weight about 30 pounds.

Answer: I thank you for your confidence and advise that five grain arbutone tablets is the reliable obesity medicine which I always prescribe. In sealed tubes with directions. Any druggist can supply you.

James J. asks: "For several months I have not been feeling well. My skin is itchy, my tongue is coated, head aches, am sleepless, nervous and bothered with chronic constipation. Please help me."

Answer: You need laxative blood cleansing treatment in the form of three-grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur). Choose the tendency to constipation and gradually your good health and pure blood will return.

"Bloodless" writes: "I sign after my name 'bloodless' because that seems to be my condition. I am pale, thin and chilly all the time. My appetite is fickle, but even when I eat a great deal I do not gain in weight."

Answer: I would advise plenty of exercise and a persistent use of three-grain hypo-nutrient tablets to increase your blood and flesh. They tend to improve digestion and the proper absorption of nourishment. A gain of a pound or two a week is not unusual.

Mrs. P. G. writes: "I hesitate to ask advice as my husband is in the army. I am tired and worn out all the time. Heat does not refresh me. I have been married over a year and former did not know what it was to be tired or nervous. Sometimes I feel hysterical. I fear I will become a nuisance to my husband if this continues."

Answer: Your nervous system has been depleted. You need a tonic invigorating medicine that will aid in supplying more food-energy to your nerves. Take three grain codonate tablets regularly for several months.

NOTE: For many years Dr. Baker has been giving free advice and prescriptions to millions of people through the press columns. A doctor has helped in relieving illness and distress more than any single individual in the world's history. Thousands have written him expressions of gratitude and confidence.

CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL'S VIEW OF BLOW TO THE ALLIES

Now Let American Copperheads See in Italy the Result of Their Work Against the New Republic of Russia.

CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL, Member of Our Staff Who Spent Three Months in Russia With the Official American Commission.

The news from Italy is the sure result of the state of things in Russia.

The weakness of the Russian line gave Germany two chances to deliver a staggering blow.

She could either break through to the north, try for Moscow and Petrograd, and put Russia out of the fighting business; or she could make a feint at Russia, then wheel her great armies down south and smash Italy.

If she went north she would encounter very soon the Russian winter operations, which were impossible.

On the plains of Italy she can operate almost as well at one time of the year as at another. She chose the Italian drive.

Here are some facts that ought to make us very thoughtful about this outlook.

Germany would never have dared to withdraw troops from the Russian front to drive at Italy, if Russia had been in good fighting trim.

Russia would have continued to fight in earnest if her people had willed to fight.

The strongest reason why the Russian people had no stomach for the war was because they had no confidence in the United States.

There were two chief reasons why they had no confidence in the United States. First, the work of American pacifists, German sympathizers and the German agents sent from this country to Russia to bring about exactly this condition. Second, the attitude of a large part of the American press toward Russia and its troubles.

I have from the beginning tried to warn you that the work of the American pacifists and of copperhead persons here that are helping Germany to win was far more deadly to you than all the German troops and all the German commanders. You can judge now whether I had good reason for the warning.

If Germany shall succeed in over-running northern Italy, she will have France between two fires. The whole complexion of the war will be changed in an instant.

The French and British offensive on the western front will be changed to a desperate defense, and half of the allied forces will have to be withdrawn to defend France on the south, where there are no forts, strongholds or troops!

There is hardly a limit to the disaster that might follow. We might see a situation in which this country alone would have to bear all the fighting and strain every resource to win. It would mean an American army of 10,000,000 men, two-thirds fighting in Europe.

It would probably mean five years of war.

All this growing primarily out of the fact that Russia did not understand the United States, and the United States did not understand Russia.

How could Russia think the United States was sincere in the war when the Russian public was told every day that this country was ruled absolutely by its munition makers, who had driven on the government into the war to get fat contracts, and having secured these were about to make peace? How could Russians believe the United States was in earnest when they heard on every hand assurances that the American people were opposed to the war and had been forced into it by their despotic rulers? What impression would Russians naturally get when thousands of agents ran about quoting the words of traitorous Americans as the real voice of the American people, and when all these lies went without refutation?

The thing to inspire Russia was the spectacle of the American republic, absolutely united, absolutely determined to wage to the end the righteous war, unselfish motives understood, and when all these lies went without refutation?

BY AHERN.

nothing to gain but the liberty of mankind.

Instead of this, ninety-nine in every hundred Russians believe that the United States entered the war merely to make money and will quit it the moment she thinks she has made money enough. Almost as many Russians believe that the people of the United States are divided about the war, the overwhelming majority being against it.

On the other hand, two-thirds of the newspapers of the United States have pictured Russia as in a state of wild anarchy and chaos, and the Russian people as utterly unfit for the democracy they have undertaken to set up.

What was required for the solution of the heavy problems confronting the United States and Russia was a close understanding, warm sympathy and practical working co-operation.

These influences together, have utterly destroyed the chance of any such co-operation and sympathy, and now we can see the results.

The American pro-Germans and the disloyal senators may feel some satisfaction in the catastrophe they have helped to pull down, but it should be otherwise with the editors. Their share in the mischief has been due to prejudice, lack of information and the fixed habit of taking foreign dispatches without analyzing them.

Having helped, nevertheless, to get us into this appalling situation, they ought now to tell us what they think of their work and what they propose next.

Meantime, the rest of us may as well be enjoying on this subject. The situation is of the utmost possible gravity. We have in hand a tremendous job. We shall have to turn on all the steam we have and we had better begin now.

All together—no shuffling and no hanging back. We have come to the great crisis of the struggle. We can be Americans now or we can be yellow curs, but we can't be both.

LIGHTNING PLAYS PRANK AT ANTWERP

Strikes Brass Knob on Bed in Which Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Were Sleeping.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Antwerp, Ohio, Nov. 1.—While the rain and thunder storm of Sunday night was at its worst, a bolt of lightning struck the house belonging to Asa Smith, on Daggett street, occupied by the family of J. Miller. The lightning came through a window near the bed on which Mr. and Mrs. Miller were sleeping and struck a brass knob on the bedpost, then following the post to the floor ran across the room tearing up the carpet and then vanished out the side of the house. The bed was set afire, but the occupants were not seriously injured although badly shocked. A pane of window glass was knocked out of the window, and it is thought the lightning entered the room through the window. It was a miracle no one was injured in the house.

Antwerp Brief Notes.

Mrs. Joseph Fleck is home from a visit at August, Mich., where she was the guest of her brother, Leonard Munger, and family. She also visited relatives at Toledo on the return home.

HOW TO PREVENT APPENDICITIS

Appendicitis is primarily due to the poisons formed by decayed food in the bowels. It is a disease caused by improper and insufficient bowel elimination. Many people have only a small passage in the center of the bowels while the sides are clogged with old, stale, fermenting matter. They may have a bowel movement every day but it is not a complete movement and the old stale matter stays in the system to ferment and cause trouble. Besides appendicitis such unclean bowels are the cause of all other sicknesses. The old foul matter sticking to the sides of the bowels often enters the blood stream, poisoning the body and causing that listless, tired feeling known as "auto intoxication."

HOW TO AVOID TROUBLE.

The way to avoid sickness and to keep feeling full of ambition is to watch your bowels. Just as you keep the outside of your house clean, so you should also KEEP THE INSIDE CLEAN. It is even more important to keep the bowels clean than it is to keep your body washed, because the millions of pores in the thirty feet of bowels quickly absorb old, fermenting matter decaying food left carelessly in the bowels. Don't allow it in your bowels for weeks, but GET IT OUT and keep it out. Remember, filthy bowels are the cause of all sickness—no stomach, liver or any other organ can do its work with a foul, unclean, seething out, gases and poisons.

Even if your bowels move slightly each day, that is not enough. There must be an occasional THOROUGH, complete cleansing to rid your system of all accumulated, decaying matter.

HOW TO CLEAN BOWELS QUICK.

The MOST COMPLETE bowel cleanser known is a mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine and ten other ingredients, put up in ready prepared form under the trade name of Adler-Like. This mixture is so powerful a bowel cleanser that it ALWAYS does its work properly and thoroughly. It removes food and poisonous matter which other cathartic or laxative mixtures are unable to dislodge. It does a COMPLETE job and it works QUICKLY and without the least discomfort or trouble. It is so gentle that one forgets he has taken it until the THOROUGH evacuation starts. It is astonishing the great amount of foul, poisonous matter a single spoonful of Adler-Like draws from the alimentary canal—matter you would never have thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural bowel movement and notice how much MORE foul matter will be brought out which was poisoning your system. In slight disorders such as "occasional constipation," sour stomach, "gas on the stomach" or "itchy headache" one spoonful brings relief almost INSTANTLY. Adler-Like is the MOST THOROUGH bowel cleanser and anti-poisonous ever offered in ready prepared form. It is a constant surprise to people who have used only cathartics, laxatives and stomach medicines and the various oils and waters.

REPORTS FROM PHYSICIANS.

Dr. James Weaver, Los, Utah: "I have found nothing in my 30 years' practice to excel Adler-Like."

Dr. W. A. Line, West Baden, Ind.: "I have found nothing in my practice and have found nothing to excel it."

Dr. F. M. Prettymann, Mallard, Minn.: "I have found nothing in my practice and have found nothing to excel it."

Dr. J. E. Puckett, Gilman, Ark.: "I had had stomach trouble for 20 years. Having language to express the awful importuning which were eliminating from my system, I tried Adler-Like. It made me feel better than I have felt for 20 years."

Dr. L. A. Austin, Austin, Texas: "I could not eat a thing, my stomach was so weak. Adler-Like made me feel better and am now able to work and gain weight."

Adler-Like is sold only by the nearest druggist in each city.

Sold in Fort Wayne only by E. W. Pfeiffer, Druggist, corner Main and Adams streets.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system.
Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them by relieving your bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick-headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with sodium and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—

REVEALS NEW GERMAN PLOT TO RULE WORLD

Luxburg Wanted Steps Taken to Lay Hands on
Part of Brazil.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—Sinister aims of Germany to overthrow the Monroe doctrine and gain a foothold in South America, were divulged today through publication by the state department of two additional telegrams
from Count Luxburg, the German charge at Buenos Aires, to the German foreign office.

In these telegrams Count Luxburg urged the German government to send a submarine squadron to South American waters to intimidate the Argentine government, then threatening to break relations, explaining that the presence of such a squadron would "exercise a decisive influence on the situation in South America."

Defiance of the Monroe doctrine was seen in the conviction expressed by Luxburg in one of his telegrams that Germany would be able to "carry through our principal political aims in South America," including the "reorganization of South Brazil."

Colonization of South Brazil was begun by Germany before the war. The
"political aims" mentioned by Luxburg were believed here to disclose a plan of Germany to establish a German colony, or, in effect, a German principality, in the province of Rio Grande do Sul in Brazil, as the opening wedge in an attempt at subjugation of South America.

Luxburg urged a threatening naval demonstration to dispel the impression that the German "easy going good nature" can be counted on.

"This is dangerous in South America," he told his government, "where the people under thin veneer are Indians."

The Luxburg telegrams.
The text of the state department statement and the Luxburg telegrams
follow:

"In view of the fact that the substance of certain telegrams addressed by Count Luxburg to the German foreign office has been published, the secretary of state makes public the actual text of the telegrams:

"No. 63, July 7, 1917. Our attitude towards Brazil has created the impression here that our easy going good nature can be counted on. This is dangerous in South America, where the people under thin veneer are Indians.
A submarine squadron, with full powers to me, might probably still save the situation. I request instructions as to whether, after a rupture of relations, legation is to start for home or to remove to Paraguay, or possibly Chile. The naval attaché will doubtless go to Santiago De Chile."

"LUXBURG."
Urges Friendship for Chile.

"No. 89, Aug. 4, 1917. I am convinced that we shall be able to carry through our principal political aims in South America—the maintenance of open market in Argentina and the reorganization of South Brazil—equally well, whether with or against Argentina. Please cultivate friendship with Chile. The announcement of a visit of a submarine squadron to salute the president would even now exercise decisive influence on the situation in South America. Prospect excellent for wheat harvest in December."

The state department has felt indisposed to publish these telegrams with out the consent of the Argentine government. With the publication of the two telegrams today, it is believed the way may be opened for publication of further Luxburg plots, outlining the more detail German plans of aggression in South America.

May Force Argentina's Han.
Another development, following the publication of the new Luxburg telegrams, may be to force Argentina's hand. Both houses of the Argentine congress have voted for rupture with Germany, but the Argentine executive has refused to carry the decree into effect. The banishment of Luxburg is the only action Argentina has taken.
Chile may be forced also to declare her attitude through the evidence Lux-burg gives of the efforts to "cultivate her friendship" made by Germany.

Rheumatism

Remarkable Home Cure Given by One Who Had It—He Wants Every Sufferer to Benefit.

Send No Money—Just Your Address.

Years of awful suffering and misery have taught this man, Mark H. Jackson, of Syracuse, New York, how terrible an enemy to human happiness rheumatism is, and how given him some relief, he would have been within its grasp. He wants every rheumatic victim to know how he was cured. Read what he says:

"I Had Sharp Pains Like Lightning Flashes Shooting Through My Joints." "In the spring of 1915 I was attacked by muscular and inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case."

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent—simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. If you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today. MARK H. JACKSON, No. 57D, Gurney Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.

To Stop a Persistent, Hacking Cough

The best remedy is one you can easily make at home. Cheap, but very effective.

Thousands of people normally healthy in every other respect, are annoyed with a persistent hacking-on bronchial cough year after year, disturbing their sleep and making life disagreeable. It's so needless—there's an old home-made remedy that will end such a cough easily and quickly. Get from any druggist "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" (60 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Begin taking it at once. Gradually, but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also promptly loosens a dry or tight cough, stops the troublesome throat tickle, soothes the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relief comes almost immediately. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma there is nothing better. It tastes pleasant and keeps perfectly. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is used by millions of people every year for throat and chest colds with splendid results. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

JOLLY MAY IRWIN GOES TO THE MAT WITH SOPHIE, CHAMPEEN OF HER KIND

Perhaps the reason May Irwin, famous comedienne, likes to milk so well as the fact that you can sit down to it. There is too much of May for her to find a standing posture very comfortable. However, in all fairness to Miss Irwin, it must be admitted that she milked Sophie, world champion cow, at the National Dairy Show at Columbus, bus, not because the operation gave her a good chance to rest her feet but because Sophie is one of her closest friends. The comedienne, Mrs. Kurt Eisler, in private life, is one of the country's leading breeders of fancy cattle. She offered $50,000 for Sophie, and had her offered been accepted would have left the stage and settled down on the farm to milk Sophie every day.

part the results of the canvass in the larger cities in those states, that have reported, while there are still eleven states that have made no returns as yet. The number is an increase of more than 74,000 over yesterday's figures.

Indiana Still Leads.

Indiana still leads the field with 110,282 pledges. Virginia is a close second with 110,071, while Ohio and Maine are third and fourth with 109,000 and 97,000, respectively.

Storrs throughout the country are still trying up the means of communication from the outlying districts and are proving a severe handicap to the campaign.

"The close of this campaign will see one family out of every two in the United States enrolled for membership in the United States food administration," said H. J. Hill, national campaign director, today. "Reports indicate intense pro-German propaganda in certain parts of the country, but the effect of this has been to solidify our 500,000 workers and to make evident to the communities farthest removed from war conditions the fact that this is a vital war work. After all, the thing we are striking at is not numbers, though we are sure of the numerical result. The canvass has an infinitely deeper underlying purpose.

"It is to bring home to the average American family the part it can play in preparing the nation for an inevitable position in the war. The campaign has established the fact that food conservation is a definite war service, and we could submit thousands of letters and reports to prove that the matter is so being understood. "The little pledge cards which families sign is anything but a scrap of paper. So closely are we all linked in this war that one phase of it is being fought out in the American kitchen. "The scheme is unbeatable in spite of the enemy's efforts to make it appear that we are listing the contents of family pantries to seize them. Needless to say, no intelligent family 'falls for' this malicious propaganda and the great mass of our people are beginning to recognize the fact that homes united, families enrolled, food conserved, means America invincible."

the word has been brought to him that the present trying state will not continue long. As soon as the alarming coal famine in the northwest has been alleviated to a degree, the fuel will be supplied for the middle west. Coal dealers expect shipments in large quantities in this region in a few weeks.

Woodburn Alarmed. Closing of the Woodburn schools is threatened unless coal can be obtained for firing the furnaces in the large school building there. There is no coal supply ahead for the Woodburn school.

Mr. Beadell went to Woodburn Wednesday and made a careful investigation of the situation. Woodburn coal dealers state that their only chance to get coal is from Edgerton, where supply is being held. The Woodburn dealers say that they will drive the six miles between the towns and haul the coal to Woodburn if arrangements can be made for obtaining the fuel.

It is reported to Mr. Beadell that the price asked by the Edgerton firm for the coal held there is almost prohibitive. He will go to Edgerton Thursday afternoon and endeavor to arrange for sale of a part of the fuel to Woodburn in order that the schools may be kept going.

Mr. Beadell has received reports that Sheldon and Gar Creek also face coal famine.

Awaits Full Commission. While Mr. Beadell is actively engaged in attempting to solve the Allen county coal problems he will not assume full control as government fuel administrator until he receives more word from Indianapolis.

Before he asserts his authority in the matter of helping to bring more fuel to Allen county he is anxious to learn the exact scope of his powers and the limit of his responsibilities. He has inquired from the state office about these matters and is expecting a reply soon.

to sink hundreds of thousands of dollars in purchasing equipment or the plant of a competing company in order to obtain an exclusive field for the city's business. The people have no money to waste in that way. The selfish interests which seek to unload their private property upon the city will receive the rebuke which their scheme deserves.

"Look to the history of your utilities in this town. At the time the water-works was established there was that crowd of selfish interests who sought to sell to this city the old feeder canal as a water supply. They even persuaded our city council that such would be the proper plan of supplying water. Citizens were compelled to seek redress in court to enjoin the purchase of the feeder canal. At the following election every councilman who stood for the purchase of the canal was defeated, and the people of this city thereby freed themselves from the burden of carrying the worthless institution as a pile of junk.

BOYCOTT CORK

another allied power not nearly so opulent as the United States. There are many bonds and ties between our folk and the people of the great republic who use to flock to our shores as tourists before the war. Their place was filled in a large measure by the officers and the men of the United States navy, to the benefit of all traders.

Miss Lynch Makes Appeal. Another appeal for the return of the American sailors is made by Miss Marie Lynch, who as head of the Poor League Guardians, made an official investigation of various charges which the Sinn Fein leaders brought against the American visitors. She says, in placing before the house the result of her investigation:

"Many stories unproved by specific facts were spread throughout the city regarding the conduct of most American sailors. It was mentioned that the Cork union could produce evidence to bear out the allegations. Upon investigation there I found not the slightest proof. I am fully aware that many good people were led by specious arguments to believe these wicked tales against the sailors, and were so deceived themselves. Now, it is a well-known fact that the American navy, composition and organization, is one of the best in existence. Strict and constant supervision is exercised over every man by the officers in charge.

"I feel sure that the sort of our city fathers conclude their investigations that they may be led to assume that some mischievous people for ulterior motives have sought to cause a breach in the friendship between America and Ireland. May I hope the good sense and intelligence of our people will defeat such object, and that we shall endeavor to make an amende honorable to our American kinsmen and continue to extend to them 'cord mile failithe' which America has so justly earned on her shores."

Demagogue by Newspaper. The Cory County Eagle in an editorial account of the anti-American demonstrations, which preceded the American decision to put Cork out of bounds, says:

"Many strange things have happened in Cork. From time to time though no more discordant than the wanton blackguard attack made there on the sailors of the United States on Monday night. To the cries of 'Up the Huns,' hundreds of young men of the city, bearing the Sinn Fein flag in front, not only hissed and jeered American sailors whom they chanced to meet, but displayed their decided hostility in more decided fashion, by stoning some unfortunate young men who had taken shelter from the rowdiness, and whose only offense was that they wore the uniform of the American."

"What political wisdom could bring even the most brainless, thoughtless youth of Cork to insult the representatives of the great people whose land has made welcome the oppressed from every clime; but in a particular and special manner the exiles of Erin? Try to picture what America will think of the people who, not content with their cries of 'Up the Huns' must emphasize that admiration by hunting, as if they were wild beasts, through the streets of their city, the men who are facing the deadly perils of the Atlantic that these wanton scoundrels, who attacked them on Monday night, might have American flour to keep them from starving.

"The Cory republicans salute the greatest of the world's republic with paving stones. Let us at least, take this poor consolation to heart, we can never sink lower than this exhibition of Monday evening."

THIRTY AIRPLANES

FLY OVER ENGLAND

Some of these raiders were turned back by the outer defenses, but one or more penetrated into southeast London where bombs were dropped.

"The sixth group followed along the same course about a quarter of an hour later. Some of these machines penetrated in the southeastern suburbs of London, where some bombs were dropped. Meanwhile one or more machines dropped bombs in the southwestern outskirts of London. The seventh group which approached along the south bank of the Thames, was dispersed by gun fire before reaching the outer London defenses.

"In addition individual raiders attacked the Kentish coast, between midnight and 1:30 o'clock. Reports indicate that each group consisted of three and four machines, the total number of raiders engaged being about thirty. Of this total only about three machines succeeded in actually penetrating into the heart of London.

"The raiders were harassed by our gun fire during the whole of their flight and were also attacked by our air craft. The facility with which they were able to escape observation by taking advantage of the clouds, prevented any decisive engagement.

point to comparatively light casualties and damage, considering the number of the machines and the determined nature of the attack."

TRANSPORT

The Finland is one of the largest steamers flying the American flag. Before being torpedoed she was carrying 25 American sailors and 25 European ports in the International Mercantile Marine company's service under the Red Star and other lines. The vessel has a gross tonnage of 12,860 and a net tonnage of 7,711. She normally carries a crew of 257 men. The Finland was built in Philadelphia in 1902. Her home port is New York.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK.

An Atlantic Port, Nov. 1.—A German submarine torpedoed the British steamship East Wales of 4,321 tons gross, off Queenstown on October 14, according to a survivor who arrived here today. One of two U-boats which took part in the attack shelled the open life boats and four of the crew perished and five others were wounded.

FRENCH SHIPPING LOSSES.

Paris, Nov. 1.—French merchant ships sunk by submarines or mines during the week ending October 28, according to the French navy, are: ships of more than 1,000 tons and one of less than 1,000 tons. No fishing boats were sunk. Four steamers were attacked unsuccessfully.

FRESH BLOW IS

INFLECTED UPON

ITALIAN FORCES

as the bulletins of General Cadorna, the commander-in-chief, indicate, the Italian troops, perfectly reorganized, are holding back the enemy at a distance of seven miles west of Udine.

The Germans and Austrians did not succeed in their prearranged plan of rushing beyond the Isonzo into the Friuli valley and enveloping the third Italian army, which occupied the region of Gorizia and the Carso.

Although they broke the Italian lines from Plezzo to Talmio, the resistance offered by picked Italian contingents, who offered themselves for the supreme sacrifice, so decided and so enthusiastic in its war bulletins.

If the Germans counted upon inflicting a disorder in Italy helping to open the way to Lombardy, it has been disappointed as all indications point to a strengthening of the Italian national army as well as the government of France, Great Britain and the United States are bending every effort to give the Germans blow for blow on the Venetian plains, the fighting ground of the early campaigns of Napoleon against Austria.

The French in their successful offensive north of the Aisne in the direction of Laon last week captured 12,157 prisoners, including 237 officers. The guns taken numbered 180. There has been little infantry fighting in this region and the German troops have been unable to carry out counter attacks of any strength. The artillery duel continues violently.

Count von Hertling has not accepted the German imperial chancellorship pending conferences with reichstag leaders. Reports from Germany by way of Amsterdam and Copenhagen indicate that the Bavarian premier will have difficulty in getting even a working majority in the reichstag, where various leaders are much opposed to him. His attitude toward parliamentary reform and the reichstag resolution is said to complicate his position.

Indications from Palestine are that with the advent of favorable weather the British are resuming their active campaign up the Syrian coast. The capture by British troops of Beersheba, approximately forty miles southwest of Jerusalem, is reported in an official statement today.

When the operations in Palestine halted last spring the British had pushed up the coast from Sinal peninsula to the gates of Gaza, on the coast in southern Palestine, while in interior Palestine their columns had advanced on a virtually parallel front, to the vicinity of Beersheba. There were reports that there had been a penetration as far northward as Hebron, which is less than twenty miles from Jerusalem, but apparently there was no definite advance of the British main force to this point.

Reports early last month stated that the British and revolting Arab forces from the southern interior had effected a junction in southern Palestine and that combined operations by these forces against the Turks might be expected shortly.

Seven groups of German aeroplanes, totalling about thirty machines, made a determined effort to bombard London last night, but apparently not more than three of them succeeded in penetrating to the heart of the city, a few others reaching the outskirts. The British defensive measures—barrage fire and attacks by British aircraft—broke up the enemy formations. The few bombs dropped in London did slight damage and the casualties are reported to have been comparatively few.

Infantry fighting on the French front last night was of limited extent. The most important was an attack by the German northwest of Rheims, which was repulsed by the French.

NOTED SPORTING MAN DYING.

New York, Nov. 1.—Charles White, known throughout the country as the referee of important boxing bouts, who has been ill for a number of months of a complication of diseases, was reported today to be dying at his home. White's last appearance in the ring as a referee was at the Willard-Moran fight, March 25, 1916.

FAMOUS DOGS ARRIVE.

An American Port, Nov. 1.—Three Arctic dogs that accompanied Donald B. McMillan, the explorer, in his last quest for the so-called Crockerland, have arrived here on the steamer Neptune, which rescued McMillan at Etah, Greenland, last August. One of the dogs, In-you-gee-ta, has a remarkable record for endurance, having traveled more than 8,000 miles over Arctic ice fields. The other dogs have records of 4,000 miles of travel. The trio will be sent to the explorer's home at Provincetown, Mass.

"The sky was constantly springing into a vivid fire-like instantaneous sunset followed by a deep grumbling roar. Black clouds of smoke were outlined against the glowing heavens. Ammunition vents were blown up, stores were being burned and bridges destroyed. The glare of explosives gave a light of ghastly brilliance over the throngs of the retreating army. "A rain storm broke and lasted for three hours, often with extreme violence. It added to the hardships of the retreat, already severe enough, and must have meant death to many of those wounded while covering the retreat. But it delayed the enemy's advance by swelling the rivers, softening the ground to mud and making air reconnaissance and bombing raids on congested roads and railroads impossible. Such are the outlines of the story of which fuller details are not permitted.

"The situation undoubtedly is grave but the silence which the now imposes must not be construed as indication that things are worse than they actually are. The blow has been severe, but it will not crush Italy."

SUMMARY OF THE

grips at several points between Udine and the Tagliamento, where the Italians probably will make their first determined stand. The German effort to outflank the Tagliamento from the Carnic Alps apparently is not gaining ground fast.

While the German blow overpowered and dispersed the Italian forces along the Isonzo, north of Gorizia, the German effort to advance from his headquarters, saved his other armies virtually intact and the third army, which guarded the Carso plateau, succeeded in getting away in its entirety, with its guns and war material. The Italian retreat did not become a rout, as it was before assisted by Gen. Cadorna's strategy was to withdraw his troops from the Isonzo and across the Friuli plains to a position from which to make a strong counter attack. The invading forces are within four miles of the Tagliamento, northwest of Udine, after having captured 120,000 prisoners and more than 1,000 guns. This is the center of the advancing line and the southern wings probably are not as near the Tagliamento. Should Gen. Cadorna have to retire from the Tagliamento because of the breaking of the Italian defenses in the Alps and before assistance arrives, he will have the Piave river, which runs southwest and south from Belluno, on which to stand.

Reinforcements are being hurried to northern Italy not only by France and Great Britain but also by Italy. The German advance apparently is not as rapid as at first and Berlin is less enthusiastic in its war bulletins.

If the Germans counted upon inflicting a disorder in Italy helping to open the way to Lombardy, it has been disappointed as all indications point to a strengthening of the Italian national army as well as the government of France, Great Britain and the United States are bending every effort to give the Germans blow for blow on the Venetian plains, the fighting ground of the early campaigns of Napoleon against Austria.

THREE POSTERS ARE

SENT TO HEADQUARTERS

Large Number Designed by High School and Eighth Grade Pupils.

The food posters designed by Margaret Ann Keegan, Helen Rapp and Edith Longworth at the high school have been sent to Indianapolis as the three best from this section. The posters will be placed on exhibition at the Herron Art Institute together with about fifty other posters from various sections of the state. The best designed posters will be adopted as originals for large place cards which will be distributed throughout the country within a short time. Posters designed by school children will be placed in downtown windows this week.

A considerable number of these posters are on display in the windows of downtown stores, the Steele-Myers company devoting one entire window to the display of them.

Many of the posters were designed by eighth grade pupils, the eighth grade of the Harmer school turning out more than any other school in the city. The work was done under the supervision of Miss Alice Hall, supervisor of art in the city schools.

BALTES STONE COMPANY

HAS BEEN REORGANIZED

France Brothers Take Over Control of the Montpelier Quarry.

The Baltes Stone company, of this city, which owns a large plant just east of Montpelier, has been reorganized, and France Brothers, big quarry owners, have taken stock in the concern and will have charge of the operating of the plant near Montpelier, as well as the other plants they own.

The new men in the company are owners of large stone plants at Huntington, the Erie plant near Bluffton, and a large plant at Cleveland, Ohio, and now will have control of the Montpelier quarries after November 1. The reorganization has been made, and everything was in readiness for the new stockholders to take charge Thursday. Ed Baltes, of Fort Wayne, retains stock in the concern, but will not have charge of the operations.

The Montpelier plant is well equipped, and the quality of stone turned out is excellent for road and concrete work of all kinds, and it makes a valuable addition to the string of quarries the Frances now control. This firm is one of the largest in the country, and will operate the Baltes quarries heavier than they have ever been run before, when the season opens up in the spring.

HEAVY SELLING ON

THE STOCK MARKET

U. S. Steel Drops Below Par

With Other New Low

Records.

New York, Nov. 1.—Heavy selling of stocks was resumed at the active opening of today's session, with many new low records for the year and a much lower price for U. S. Steel was again offered in large lots from 29 to 38, an extreme overnight loss of 24 points. Rallies of as much as a point set in before the end of the first half hour.

The initial rally failed to hold being met by increased selling. United States Steel made a further decline of two points to 36, its lowest price of the year, and related industrials broke two to four points. Ralls were liquidated in larger volume, active issues in that group yielding 1 1/2 to three points.

Bonds were weak but Liberty is held at par and the 3 1/2s from 99.78 to 99.82.

ANOTHER BIG DAY FOR HAY AND OATS

Top Price on Oats Drops
Two Cents—Hay is Unchanged.

Wednesday and Thursday have been busy days at the city scales. Hay and oats again topped the local market. Twenty-seven loads of hay brought a top price of $20 and a low price of $19. Hay in first-class condition brought the top price. Fifteen loads of oats brought from 57c to 60c a bushel. The top price was 2c lower than that paid Wednesday. One load of corn brought $1.80 a bushel, which was an advance of 5c. Three loads of new corn were received at $1 a bushel. Rice dropped at the mill while the paying price of barley was raised.

Damson and Grand Duke plums are now off the market. Western Italian prunes and egg plums are still arriving in good quantity and prices are holding steady. Peaches are off the market. New York being the last shipping point to clean up its offerings.

Celery is said to be more plentiful. The stock is of unusually fine quality.

"THE YELLOW KID" IS POSITIVELY THE MAN

Mr. Worden Picks Well Out from Number of Other Prisoners.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Joseph Weil, alias "The Yellow Kid," was positively identified yesterday by Charles H. Worden, president of the First and Hamilton National bank, Fort Wayne, Ind., who on Sept. 6 was fleeced out of $15,000.

Mr. Worden was taken to the South Clark street police court, where a number of prisoners, including Weil, were waiting, and picked Weil out of more than fifty people.

Weil would make no comment. In making the identification Worden said that the ring Weil was wearing belonged at one time to a count. "Weil told me that he had received the ring from J. Pierpont Morgan for telling Mr. Morgan of some wise investment to make," said Worden. "He said that Morgan had received the ring from a count on his last visit to Europe."

The hearing on the charge of conspiracy was continued until Nov. 20 by Judge La Bay. Bonds were fixed at $20,000.

James Head, who was arrested with Weil, was partly identified by the banker as another member of the gang of men who swindled him.

PREPARED FOR PEOPLE'S VOICE

Machines Are Set at Zero and All Supplies Gathered.

FINAL INSTRUCTIONS ON THURSDAY NIGHT

Announcements Are Out for Last of Oratorical
Efforts.

All plans are now in order for the battle of ballots to be waged in Fort Wayne Tuesday, Nov. 6. Preparations are nearing completion for the great roll call and the last of the verbal sallies are being made by political war generals.

Voting machines have been placed in perfect working order, and are set at zero all along the line of names. Attorney William Fruehtrich, head of the city election commission, has worked for two days, aided by two mechanics, in putting the voting apparatus in condition. The machines will not be moved to the precinct polling places until Monday, however.

Over in the city clerk's office, Deputy Clerk Leroy Swartz is imprisoned with the heaps of election supplies. He is guarding the sample ballots and all notices by day and night. He will sleep on a cot in the city hall room very night until next Tuesday.

Called for Orders.
All election officers have been ordered to meet in the assembly room of the court house at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night to receive final orders as to their duties on election day. Attorney William Fruehtrich, who has delivered the charge to the election men for the past twelve years, will again relate the exact obligations of those who will conduct the election.

The city council met on Wednesday night for ten minutes and ratified the list of inspectors, one for each precinct, which were nominated for that work by the democratic central committee.

500 IN BIG PRODUCTION

Immense Cast Will "Do
Their Bit" in University Club Show.

SHOULD NOW HAVE PATRIOTIC SUPPORT

Every Cent of Profit to Be Expended for War Relief Work.

In the midst of big, unusual things, the University club's stupendous production, "The Army and Navy," has grown to the proportion of a wonderful production, away beyond the realization of the people who have possibly looked upon it as merely "another local amateur show." The fact is that five hundred loyal Fort Wayne people, including many of the most talented artists in various lines, have volunteered their best services to this exceptional affair, feeling that in this way they can "do their bit" as possibly they are not able to do in any other.

The event will take place on the Majestic stage on the evening of Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, the 9th, 10th and 11th of November.

The production will be an artistic success from every viewpoint. The University club is enthusiastic over the splendid leadership of W. Mills, the New York directors who have charge of the entire production. It now remains for the people of Fort Wayne and the surrounding territory to co-operate to the extent of coming to enjoy the big production and gain a new patriotic inspiration. Every cent of profit from the event will be placed in a fund to spend for war purposes only, at the direction of the

CALL FOR MECHANICS.
W. J. Hess, secretary at the post-office, has received a communication from the civil service commission asking for a large number of additional mechanics, particularly machinists, boiler-makers, machine operators, drop forgers and blacksmiths. The government can use 3,000 machinists, several hundred boiler-makers and any number of mechanics.

MAKERS OF CIGARS

ADVANCE PRICES

Increased Cost of Materials
Given as Cause for Increase to Retailers.

The cigar manufacturers, at a meeting, were unanimous in their convictions that to continue selling their goods at the present prices would spell ruin. In addition to the war tax, assessed by the government, the cost of cigar leaf tobacco, boxes, labels, etc., has advanced to such proportions that it is impossible to stand the pressure any longer. Those whose old stock is depleted and now must pay the present market prices for their raw material, are operating at a loss. The increased cost to the retailer will, unquestionably, be of such character and extent that the heretofore first class five cent cigar will be a thing of the past. The local manufacturers claim that most all the large union factories, who employ principally girl cigarmakers and pay from three to four dollars less for wages per thousand cigars, are asking as much for their goods and some are asking more. All smokers know that for quality no better cigars are made anywhere than our local manufacturers produce. Under the advanced prices the dealers, in order to make living profit, will be compelled to ask the consumer an advance on the selling price of their cigars. There should be no doubt as to the public's co-operation with the dealers at this time.

LEAVE FOOD PLEDGE

CARDS AT LIBRARY

C. B. Tolan, food administrator, is anxious that all food pledge cards which are taken from the public library be returned to the library desk after being signed. Many of the cards are believed to have been lost by being left elsewhere.

There is a good response to the local appeal for signers to the food pledge and members of the relief committee are anxious that none of the Fort Wayne records be lost.

BRITISH DEFEAT GREAT GERMAN AIR RAID

Defensive Measures Are Proved Effective and But Two or Three of the Invaders Reach London.

DAMAGE AND CASUALTIES ARE LIGHT

London, Nov. 1.—About thirty airplanes in seven groups took part in an air raid last night. Three of them penetrated to the heart of London, says an official report today. The casualties and damage were slight.

Eight persons were killed and twenty-one others were injured in the German air raid last night, according to an official statement issued today by the British war department.

The first group of air raiders dropped bombs near the coast. Two more groups were broken up by a barrage on the southeastern outskirts of the metropolis.

The fourth group was turned back up the Thames half way to London. Of the fifth group one or more airplanes penetrated southeastern London. Some of the sixth group reached the southeastern part of the city. The seventh group was dispersed before it reached the outer defenses of the city.

The official announcement: "Determined and repeated attacks were made upon London last night by groups of hostile airplanes. The first group of raiders crossed the Kentish coast at about 10:40 p. m. and proceeded toward London over Kent. They did not penetrate far inland, however, but turned in an easterly direction and dropped bombs at various places in and near the coast.

"Meanwhile two more groups of raiders were steering toward London along the south bank of the Thames. The sky was half to three-quarters covered with thin low clouds, which rendered extremely difficult observation of the enemy machines. None the less their altitude was correctly calculated and they were broken up by barrage fire on the southeastern outskirts of the metropolitan area at about 11:50 p. m. where some bombs were dropped.

"The fourth group of machines, which came along the Thames estuary was turned back about half way to London. Meanwhile the fifth group crossed the Essex coast at about 12:15 a. m. and steered toward London by way of the north bank of the Thames.

JAPAN TO SEND NO ARMY TO DO BIT IN EUROPE

A Pacific Port, Nov. 1.—Baron Tanaka Megata, head of the Japanese financial commission that has arrived here, said today it was impossible for Japan to send an army to aid the allies on the European battle front. "If in the face of physical impossibilities Japan should be foolishly enough to make a superhuman effort to send troops and if she speedily became exhausted," he asked, "who would then protect the orient if Germany remained undefeated?"

"Though we have sent no troops to Europe," he said, "we have helped in other ways. Our navy is serving the allied cause in the Mediterranean and the Indian ocean and our merchant marine is largely at the disposal of the allies. Japanese ships do practically all of the carrying between Asia and Europe."

Baron Megata said that the great distance and the condition of the Trans-Siberian railroad stood in the way of sending troops to Russia, for once sent there they could not be

More than 100,000 dealers, including producers, importers, middlemen and the larger retailers are now under federal regulation with drastic penalties provided for speculation, hoarding and excessive profits. Although retailers doing a business of less than $100,000 annually are not included in the license class they will be required to conform with the directions of the food law.

Thousands of license applications continued to pour into food administration headquarters today. Although no licenses yet have been mailed dealers have been informed that more compliance with the law will be ample protection until the licenses arrive.

Cork, Ireland, Oct. 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The Sinn Fein is keeping $2,500 a week from the hands of the Cork merchants. That amount was spent each week for four months by American naval officers and sailors.

It ceased when the Sinn Feiners began to attack the American bluejackets and it will not be resumed until the streets of Cork are again made safe for the Americans.

At present, no naval man below the rank of a destroyer commander may visit Cork without laying himself open to a general court-martial. The same rule applies to the British naval forces.

Tradersmen Suffer Much. Indignant over this loss the tradersmen have urged Mayor Butterfield to use his good offices to have the ban lifted. The mayor is powerless in the face of the decision of the American and British naval authorities not to allow their men to visit Cork until they are absolutely certain that trouble will not follow.

The local newspapers publish the following letter from Richard Blair, head of the local Business Men association:

"I suggest, in the interest of the business men, taxpayers and hotel keepers of our city, who find it hard to carry on in these times, that the sailors of the United States navy be invited to come to the city as formerly, before it is too late and they are removed altogether to some foreign station, to be replaced by the sailors of Edgerton.

No Fort Wayne industry will be closed because of lack of coal, states Henry Beadell, Allen county fuel administrator, after a conference with factory managers of the city.

Local industries will co-operate on the matter of the coal supply and the empty fuel bins of shops which cannot obtain the mineral will be supplied from factories which have some coal on hand, Mr. Beadell is assured. Arrangements are being made to supply the Wayne Knitting Mills, which plant seem to face the most critical coal situation, with fuel in a few days if more coal is not brought to the mills at once. Two west side industries have said they would send coal to the aid of the mills temporarily in order to keep the plant going.

"After talking with the factory managers, I can say definitely that there is no need to fear that local institutions will be shut down because of lack of steam-generating fuel for some time at least," said Mr. Beadell, Thursday. "The Fort Wayne factories are showing a fine spirit of co-operation and will tide over the present crisis."

From coal centers Mr. Beadell says

In another, the entrance and exit completely disappeared under the bombardment, so that efforts of French troops to reach 300 imprisoned Germans were unavailing.

SEEK BEST WAY TO STOP WASTE OF FUEL SUPPLY

Washington, Nov. 1.—The fuel administration's conservation division is devoting considerable time to analyzing all suggestions for conservation of fuel which are coming from all parts of the country. The analysis is aimed to discover not only the largest wastage of fuel, but those large consumptions of coal for non-essential purposes in which limitation is most available and will produce the quickest results. Many activities which involve large consumptions of fuel and many methods of using this fuel which are perfectly legitimate in times of peace will, according to fuel administration officials, be favorably susceptible of changes which involve very slight sacrifice of material interests, but offer opportunity for considerable savings of fuel. These are the first considerations of the fuel administration.

Campaigns for the saving of coal in domestic heating, lighting and cooking, as well as in the large industrial establishments, it is stated, are well under way. Confidence is expressed that the saving of an enormous amount of coal will be effected.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A formal demand for a general wage increase to $250,000, railroad employees is expected to result from a joint conference started today by officials of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors. Brakemen, flagmen, baggage men, switchmen and yardmen are the men affected. Labor officials deny emphatically that a strike is contemplated.

The contemplated action of the railroad men follows the demand made last Tuesday by members of the Switchmen's Union of North America for a 50 per cent wage increase. This latter organization is not affiliated with the brotherhoods. A conference was held yesterday by the chairmen of the committee of the switchmen who are members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and the General Man-

Employees at the plants of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company and the Packard Piano company were urged at noonday meetings today to vote for Maurice C. Niezer, democratic candidate for mayor, next Tuesday if they want to make sure that their property—the city lighting plant—will be promoted and extended.

Higher gas rates also will not be permitted under Mr. Niezer's administration, they were told, even if a municipal gas plant has to be built. "My position in this contest is that the city lighting plant, if honestly managed and placed in the hands of its friends, can beat its competitor in legitimate competition, but if it is throttled and not allowed to use progressive methods of increasing its patronage it will soon fail," Mr. Niezer declared.

Niezer Serves Notice. "I now serve notice upon the republican candidate and his managers and advisers that I will never tolerate any scheme to sell to the city of Fort Wayne the plant of the city's competitor," Mr. Niezer continued. "I do not believe that after the people of Fort Wayne have erected and successfully maintained their own lighting plant in the face of established competition it would be fair or just to their interest in New Teuton Stroke.

ALL TAGLIAMENTO BRIDGEHEADS GONE

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Austro-German forces invading Italy have increased the number of prisoners taken to more than 180,000. They have captured 1,500 Italian guns. The foregoing information was officially announced today by the German war office.

The German statement says the Teuton fourth army yesterday gained another great victory. Portions of the Italian retreating forces made a stand at the Tagliamento river.

The bridge head positions at Dignano and Codroipo were captured by the Germans. The Austro-Germans penetrated the rear guard positions to the east of the lower Tagliamento, where they cut off and captured sixty thousand Italians.

According to the announcement, all the Tagliamento bridgeheads have been captured. Several hundred guns are said to have been taken by the Germans.

THE EARLIER ADVICES. Italian Headquarters, Wednesday, Oct. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—

Summary of the Day's War News

General Cadorna's forces retreating to the line of the Tagliamento river have suffered another crushing defeat. Berlin today reports the capture of two bridgehead positions from Italian troops which made a stand east of the middle Tagliamento and the cutting off of an Italian force which was retreating toward the lower course of the river. In the latter operation 65,000 Italians were captured, according to the German claim, bringing the total of prisoners taken by the invaders of northern Italy to 180,000 and the number of guns to 1,500. One of the bridge heads captured was that at Dignano, which is on the Tagliamento about 23 miles almost directly west of Udine.

The other bridge head lost by the Italians was at Codroipo. This place is also about 23 miles from Udine but lying off to the southwest on the main railway line from Udine to Treviso and Venice. It is some three miles east of the Tagliamento. The Germans do not claim to have forced a crossing of the Tagliamento, but it is evident they are now on its easterly bank in strong force and probably ready for an assault upon the line itself.

Gen. Cadorna's retirement before the invading Austro-Germans is slackening and the opposing forces are at

News of Our Neighbors

AN UNUSUALLY BRIGHT CAT.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 1.—Sanford Biggs, of this city, has a cat that is earning its salt. It has been trained by the children to raise up on its haunches and press with its paws an improvised lever that has been constructed for the purpose to ring a door bell. Tuesday evening, while the members of the family were seated in the living room, the door bell rang. It was answered and "Tom" stood, savagely switching his tail, blinking and holding a struggling, dying wild rabbit within his jaws. The Biggs home is near a field at the south end of the town. The cat has previously caught wild rabbits, which come to the Biggs lot to feed with some white tame rabbits belonging to the Biggs family. "Tom" looks the part. He weighs ten pounds, and is a pretty mottled cat.

MOWER DISAPPEARS.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 1.—The court house lawn mower has disappeared, and although he thinks he probably will have no further use for it this year, Jerry Aldridge, the elevator engineer, should like to have it brought back, so he can put it away for the winter. The lawn mower had been kept in the south entrance vestibule, and was used not long ago. The next day Mr. Aldridge decided it was time to put it away for the winter, but it was gone. The court house attaches indicate that they know who has the mower, and may take further action if the request to bring it back is not heeded.

"VERY LONELY," ENDS LIFE.

Defiance, Ohio, Nov. 1.—"Have been very lonely since Mrs. Brown went home. My children have been the best ever, but I could do nothing for them. I would only be a burden to them in the days to come, so I decided to relieve them of the burden. Have tried to deal with it myself. That is the note left by Dr. C. L. Brown, formerly a member of the state tax commission, and recently ordained as a Baptist minister, who ended his life by hanging himself in the woods at his home here. He was one time president of the board of trustees of the Findlay college.

E. church, is in receipt of a letter from the superintendent of religious work for the southern department of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A., requesting him to join other members of which he is a member, to visit the several army camps in the south for the entertainment of the soldiers, and it is likely that Rev. Nattager will accept the invitation.

DIES IN CALIFORNIA.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 1.—W. F. Weirick, of Passadena, Cal., formerly of Warsaw, died yesterday of apoplexy, aged 40 years. Mr. Weirick was a nephew of Eli Helser and formerly a druggist at Warsaw and moved to California about 17 years ago. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Alice, Ruth and Martha.

MORE COAL CONFISCATED.

Van Wert, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Fearing that the cold weather of the past two days had depleted coal stocks in the city to the danger point, Mayor Mauk again took matters in his own hands and confiscated two cars of coal from a shipment which was passing through the city on the Cincinnati Northern railroad.

WILLIS CHILD DEAD.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 1.—The body of little Mary Edith, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Willis, of Eaton, who passed away Tuesday evening after a few days' illness of brain trouble, was brought to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willis, 307 West Wabash street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

NEW PASTOR.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 1.—The Rev. S. R. McAlpine, formerly of Princeton, N. J., and recently of Rochester, Ind., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in Huntington. PREPARES FOR AERIAL ATTACK.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 1.—Purdue continued to build up a defense against an aerial attack at practice yesterday afternoon, and things began to look more favorable in the Boiler Maker camp. After a long signal drill the regulars were sent through a snappy scrimmage with the freshmen and made a good showing. Huffine and Allen were out in uniform, but did not scrimmage. If Purdue can construct a formidable forward pass defense it has an even chance of defeating Northwestern in the annual homecoming contest here Saturday afternoon.

Prove Suffragets' Work is Never Done

If "woman's work is never done," what shall be said of a woman suffragist's work? Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse, with all her war work, has found time to engage in the suffrage campaign and also was one of the leaders of the great woman's parade, Oct. 27.

ANNUAL STATE TEACHERS' CONVENTION IS OPENED

Lively Session is Being Held at Indianapolis This Week.

The average normal youngster of Fort Wayne is to be found with a grin on his face today, for the public schools will not be reopened until Monday morning. Practically all of the teachers left for the annual convention at Indianapolis Thursday morning. Most of the pedagogues found it almost impossible to obtain rooms at any of the large hotels but practically all of them had their reservations made by Thursday morning. The usual visiting work will be done, and several fine lecturers have been obtained. The convention will close Friday evening, but practically all of the teachers will remain in Indianapolis until Saturday evening as the majority of them expect to attend the Indiana-Ohio football game at Washington park, Saturday afternoon. Upon the reopening of the schools

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

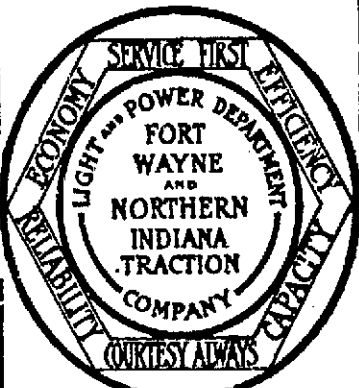

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy, With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

CIGARS MAY ADVANCE IN THE RETAIL PRICE

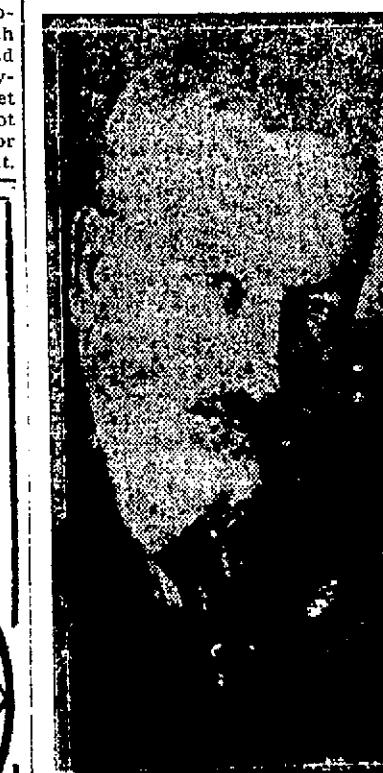

Cigarmakers Are Forced to Raise Because of Added Cost of Materials.

There may be another raise in cigars soon. The local dealers have tried to keep the price down as long as possible, but the revenue tax added to the advance prices on cigar leaf tobacco, boxes, labels, etc., has made it necessary for the local cigar manufacturers to raise the price to the retailer, who in turn must advance its cost to the consumer. Foreign cigar factories, who employ a number of girls as rollers and at a reduced wage rate, have already raised. The material in the cigars made by local cigarmakers is just as good as those that are made anywhere. From this the passing of the "five-cent cigar" may readily be seen.

THIS BIDDY IS DOING HER BIT IN THE WAR

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 1.—The number 507, a white leghorn, owned by Dr. R. L. Lindsay Ireland, of Louisville, last night was announced as the winner of the year's national egg laying contest at the Kentucky experiment station here. She laid 289 eggs and was for a time believed on the way to break the world's record of 314. The lighter breeds outlayed the heavies practically through the entire year, the records show.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

"War Strain" Shattering Nerves of Millions!

Dr. Joseph D. Harrigan, Formerly Visiting Specialist to the North Eastern Dispensary, N. Y., says:—"Nerve Weakness is a Curse to the Nation—Legions of Men and Women Have Become Prematurely Old simply for No Other Reason Than the Want of More Bitro-Phosphate in Their Systems."

NEW YORK, N. Y.—"No wonder we have so many people with shattered nerves and other complaints," says Dr. Joseph D. Harrigan, "I tell you with all seriousness that weak, nervous, anemic delicate folks especially those who are thin and all run-down, should be careful what they use, and do little or no good, but on the contrary do great harm in many instances. Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, anemic or run-down take a natural, harmless, unadulterated strength and tissue building substance, such as Bitro-phosphate, for two weeks or so, and you will soon see most astonishing results in many instances in cases under fifty years of age, while others who are very feeble will often feel to a marked degree the increase in nerve energy, strength of body and mind, power of endurance, and desire to be "up and doing." Why? I have in mind the case of a gentleman well advanced in years who has been using Bitro-phosphate only a short while. Formerly he complained of various ailments, but now he shakes hands with a grasp and a smile that tell better than words the taking of Bitro-phosphate will do. Before taking it, however, make a note of your weight. Also see how steadily you can point your finger at a certain spot for one minute without becoming nervous, shaky or your arm tiring. After trying this simple experiment, take one 5-grain Bitro-phosphate tablet after each meal, three times daily for a few days, then try the experiment again. If the results justify what has been stated, continue its use for a while and you may happily see from day to day the increase of nervous energy, power of endurance, healthy tissue, clarity of thought and action and improvement in general."

NOTE—According to authoritative medical journals the form of organic phosphate mentioned above which is dispensed by drug stores in this country as Bitro-phosphate, is recommended by the great English authority, Sir James Barr, and each noted European specialist as the best form of organic phosphate, which, when taken into the human system, is quickly converted into healthy, living nerve tissue.

Anyone who suffers in this or any other city, can easily test and see what the taking of Bitro-phosphate will do. Before taking it, however, make a note of your weight. Also see how steadily you can point your finger at a certain spot for one minute without becoming nervous, shaky or your arm tiring. After trying this simple experiment, take one 5-grain Bitro-phosphate tablet after each meal, three times daily for a few days, then try the experiment again. If the results justify what has been stated, continue its use for a while and you may happily see from day to day the increase of nervous energy, power of endurance, healthy tissue, clarity of thought and action and improvement in general.

Clinical and hospital reports, plus my personal experience, have convinced me that the nerves need organic phosphate in a state of combination essentially the same as that found in the body. The pain organic or physiological phosphate that is readily assimilable, such as Bitro-phosphate, cannot get this in sufficient quantities from the cooked foods they eat, nor from the so-called "blood tonics." Patients who were apparently physical wrecks, who foolishly thought they needed only a blood tonic to enrich the blood, have come to me for treatment, trembling and shaking, their nerve force almost exhausted and in many such cases the administration of Bitro-phosphate has produced seemingly magical results. Common sense as well as experience should teach those who suffer that the most logical and sensible thing to do is to put into their systems the very substance that is lacking, and that is organic phosphate. Bitro-phosphate, not simply a tonic to enrich the blood nor mixtures containing stimulant drugs and diluted phosphorus in combinations that often upset the stomach.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1917.

A DESPICABLE RESORT.

Efforts to incite religious prejudices in political campaigns are not new to Fort Wayne. Such attempts have been made frequently before, but it is more than surprising at this time, when the country is facing a perilous crisis and must have the loyal and ungrudging support of all citizens irrespective of their religious convictions and their church affiliations, that this evil thing should arise again. Nevertheless, it has been projected into the municipal campaign.

Secretly and under cover of darkness there has been circulation of a small handbill of such purport and tenor as to disclose promptly the insidious purpose of it. Nothing could be plainer than that the candidates in whose behalf this handbill is given the pretense of having been put out had nothing to do with it. The handbill itself bears convincing testimony to that. Neither those candidates nor their friends would contemplate such a clumsy trick in a fatuous belief that it might help them, nor would they basely engage in such an effort even if it had seemed to hold out any promise of gain at the polls.

No patriotic citizen will be misled by this despicable business to harbor any prejudice against candidates whose injury is sought through the sneaking and cowardly circulation in the determination of greater and graver issues than those staked upon the municipal campaign in Fort Wayne. To bind all our people together in unswerving devotion to the flag and in consecrated and undivided support of the government in the war is a duty that stands above all others. Attempts at any time and under any circumstances to create religious prejudices and stir evil passions that may divide one class of citizens from another, to make friend distrust friend and to turn neighbor against neighbor are evil and despicable, but to launch such efforts now is an unspeakable infamy and a traitorous employment.

No good American, no matter what his religion or his creed, will have else than contempt and abomination for a political enterprise of the sort that has just been set afoot in this city.

THE BIGELOW INCIDENT.

If the flapping lately given to Herbert S. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, had been administered by authority of law not much violence of dissent would have been provoked. There is general agreement that Bigelow ought to be suppressed. There is a considerable volume of opinion that his preachments against the war are unpatriotic and injurious and that for the offense of uttering them he should be punished. It is only because lawlessness was invoked to put him under the merited pains of transgression that the whipping he was given by the masked men who kidnaped him seems to be considered anywhere to have been an outrage. There has been no expression of sympathy for Bigelow himself. It is deplored and denounced merely that a lawless act was committed. And that is a serious thing always, but the more so now because it may lead to similar acts of lawlessness against similar offenders, whereas those should be reserved for and committed solely to the law's penalties. Here and there are a good many of one kind or another who for one purpose or another are opposing the government in the war and making its huge tasks more difficult. The Bigelow incident may have much evil influence to provoke like employment of lawlessness against them. The country can now so ill afford anything as it can even the semblance of anarchy. Obedience to law and respect for all its forms and injunctions rest with special weight upon the people at this time. The Bigelow whitecapping set a flagrant example of lawlessness.

AROUND THE TOWN WITH HOSEY—A 5.

Mayor Hosey will be hard put to it to recall a finer tribute to himself and his public service than was paid him four years ago by Mr. Cutshall, the present republican candidate for mayor.

"Having in mind the progressive spirit with which you have conducted public affairs in the past and believing that your ambition is to give Fort Wayne the best administration it ever had," said Mr. Cutshall in his letter to Mayor-elect Hosey, November 13, four years ago, Mr. Cutshall went on to beg the privilege of associating himself with that "progressive spirit" and to join Mr. Hosey in an effort to realize the ambition to "give Fort Wayne the best administration it ever had."

For now some weeks Mr. Cutshall, for himself and in his own behalf and vociferously aided by his organ and his speakers, has been attempting to convince the people of Fort Wayne that "Hoseysm"—whatever that is—is the sum of all evil. Why is this? What has been done during the past four years to place Mr. Cutshall's spirit and utterance in complete opposition to what he assumed the pains to say to Mayor Hosey four years ago? What has taken place in Mr. Hosey's second administration that damns all the good that Mr. Cutshall not only beheld but acknowledged as distinguishing Mayor Hosey's first administration?

It may be that it was a culpable blunder, a crime against the people that four years ago Mr. Hosey did not think fit to attach Mr. Cutshall to his administration and that perhaps is the head and front of his offending. Mr. Cutshall ought to be as frank with criticism, as candid in his denunciations, as he was when only the honeyed words of approval and of praise issued from him.

This newspaper happens to be in a position where it may speak what it likes of Mayor Hosey and his administration, so long as it holds to the truth. This newspaper has privileged itself to be consistent as well as honest. It did not like some things about Mayor Hosey's first administration and at the time it said so. It finds much to approve in Mayor Hosey's present administration and does not hesitate to say so. But that is not the point. What was there four years ago that stirred Mr. Cutshall to such raptures of praise of Mayor Hosey and what has there been since that time that rouses him to such excesses of incontinent detraction?

If Mr. Cutshall then believed Mayor Hosey all good, how can he now believe him all bad? There was hypocrisy then or there is hypocrisy now and we leave it to Mr. Cutshall to say for himself on which occasion he chose to be the hypocrite.

MR. CUTSHALL SHOULD ANSWER.

We trust Mr. Cutshall will take early occasion to declare his plans for a complete monopolization by the city of the electric light and power field in Fort Wayne.

He has stated his belief and announced his purpose to proceed to the realization of such a monopoly in the event of his election to the mayoralty.

Has Mr. Cutshall in mind what has been more than hinted for some months that he will attempt to take over the competing electric light and power interests if he shall become head of the city government?

Mr. Cutshall's conversion to municipal ownership as a complete monopoly appears to have been sudden, except we view his statement as a rather disingenuous disclosure of a purpose well in mind and now put out not for what it is, but for what may be made to appear.

As we stated yesterday, the design for a city monopoly of the electric light and power field has been the democratic policy in Fort Wayne. The advance to that goal has been steadfast. The distance will not be great if the city can get itself free of the restraints and around the obstacles created by the state utilities law and commission.

Those restraints and obstacles would before this have been removed but for the efforts of one man who, in contravention of the highest public interests here, caused that law to be killed. The man who killed the Fort Wayne relief bill is the man who speaks loudest, longest and strongest for Mr. Cutshall's candidacy. He cannot be for Mr. Cutshall if Mr. Cutshall is not his kind of a man on the municipal lighting issue.

Is there to be an unloading upon the city at a heavy cost of the plant, lines and remaining business of the competing interest if Mr. Cutshall is elected? Mr. Cutshall should answer.

Enemy propaganda is working with diligence against the food pledge campaign. Every American housewife who is approached with any of the insidious discouragements that peculiarly mark the nature of this propaganda should note the person engaged in the work and report to the proper persons—some member of the local councils of defense, preferably.

There seems to be some hope that the Austro-German invasion of Italy can be converted into a trap. We'll all hope so.

Rem: Is a "Bubmarine," a little-boy U-boat? I observe with interest the following headline in the estimable (and otherwise accurate) Journal-Gazette: "American Transport Antilles, Which Was Torpedoed and Sunk by German Bubmarine."

That's nothing, kid. We observe that the useful Sentinel was mixed as to its Decatur correspondent's ideas of gender, for it remarked: "Miss Sella Reynolds is visiting with 'he mother.'" And, as if it refused to be outdone, the Fort Wayne News grew musical the other day regarding the city hall's acoustics, and hummed delightedly, "Its walls are corruptive with rust and are pealing." You just never can tell which one of us will do it next.

HELPING TO WIN THE WAR

Article IV—Advice to Americans Between Ages of 21 and 30

BY GEORGE ADE.

(This Another in the Series Prepared by Mr. Ade for the Indiana State Council of Defense.)

Six months ago the new voters were very much in the background or off at the sides.

No man under 30 held a top-notch executive position or had moved to the front row of his profession.

Any man under thirty was likely to be regarded by a man well over thirty as a bit pin-feathery and somewhat of a squab.

The word "half-baked" is much favored by those who begin to feel a stiffening in the joints.

Just a few shifting moons and now the whole nation is looking up in reverence and admiration and dread at our lads still in the twenties.

The bank president is a pigmy alongside of the first lieutenant. Elderly persons sit lonesomely in clubs, feeling depressed and unworthy.

We have witnessed the transfiguration of the club.

The very qualities which we appraised so lightly or regarded as minor faults are now recognized as the ingredients of heroism.

We do not smile tolerantly at the eager enthusiasm, the scorn of danger, the cheerful optimism and the candid patriotism of these coltish youngsters.

We look at them with eyes a bit misty and say, "Boys, you're great!"

Many of us are sitting in sheltered corners, away from the first-hand activities of the war, trying to comprehend that thousands of our boys are now in France and thousands more are going, and we have passed the long preamble of talk and come up against the flinty realities of shrapnel and hand grenades.

How easy it is for a man living in a steam-heated apartment, sleeping on a box mattress and just about 3,000 miles beyond the range of the longest gun—how easy it is for him to tell the boys to endure grimly the trench privations and then go over the top like a whirlwind!

Are words of any account just now? Shall we advise our soldiers to be brave? Probably the French and English instructors will urge them to be cautious.

Shall we tell them to go out and die for their country? That is not the prospect, at all, at all. The plan is for our boys to tame the Germans and then come home alive.

If we are to pester them with counsel, let it be to the following effect:

"You are going to tackle the big adventure of your life, but the chances are that you will come out of it all right—not even nicked by a wound. The Americans are bound to get into action at the front. They will share hard responsibilities with the English and Canadians and French. It is a grisly thing to check up on a cold-blooded percentage basis, but from a view of the averages, we believe that nineteen out of every twenty boys going to France will come home again. Every month the heavy artillery spreads a more effective curtain between the advancing infantry and the enemy. You are going into a zone of extreme risk and to say that you will not be in peril would be to take away, in advance, the glory of your performance. But, the figures from Canada (which is a fair example) indicate that you are not going to be trapped at sea and that only a small percentage of your comrades are going to be put away by the Germans and there is no need of assuming that all the breaks of luck are going to be against you instead of for you. Therefore, we count on giving you a welcome home.

"The training camps will put you in readiness to fight. After the fighting is over, you will find yourself up against the highly important duty of going back to your own people and resuming the normal life. Nearly every fighting man will have a wife or sweetheart waiting for him. When she is countless miles away, don't overlook the fact that she is pulling for you and hoping for you and looking for your return. When it comes time for you to return to her, don't be ashamed to meet her.

"Another tip, which no young fellow should resent when it is offered by an older man who has traveled in foreign parts. Remember that the 'Yank' has the reputation in Europe, of standing on his hind legs and crowing, at the slightest provocation. We are supposed to blow too much about our native land. We are said to be 'cocky,' and credit ourselves with a slick superiority over the old-fashioned Europeans. Possibly some of our citizens have over-developed the gift of loose conversation.

"The 'typical American' that Europeans have discovered in popular fiction, moving pictures and standard melodrama is an effervescent combination of cow-puncher and Bowery boy. Just now the 'Sammy' is receiving an hysterical welcome. One year ago the people pelt him with flowers were calling us pretty hard names. These impulsive affections are apt to be short-lived unless they are encouraged tactfully. Let us sincerely hope that the attentions crowded upon our boys will not cause a rush of blood to the head, enlarging it.

"Every American soldier landing in France or England has a golden opportunity to show his horse sense by being somewhat of a diplomat. You are going to meet the worn and battered veterans who have stood the brunt of a three years' deadlock. Don't advertise that you are about to step in and do something which they failed to do. Don't be too specific in your assurances of what you are going to put over. Wait and put something over and then speak in the past tense. Don't patronize the men who were being scorched in the fiery furnace while you sat in the drug store at home, consuming ice cream sodas. Up on your toes—yes! But don't wear your plumes until you have earned them!"

Surely no level-headed young soldier will be bored or offended by such gentle reminders as the foregoing.

The future of the United States will be determined by the conduct of American soldiers in Europe during 1917 and 1918.

The nations that we respect are prejudiced in our favor, for the first time in years. Let us show them the new kind of American—quiet, decent, well behaved, philosophical, self-controlled, good-natured and, all the time, set upon doing, without ostentation, the important job assigned to him.

NATION OF HOME-OWNERS.

(National Republican.)

A nation made up of people who own their own homes is an ideal condition to which the National Lumber Manufacturers' association proposes to turn its attention in a nation-wide movement to encourage people of small means to acquire their own homes.

Every community has long had forces at work along the same lines and there is hardly a man or woman who does not have an ambition to get a shelter of their own, if they do not already have one.

But there is a new idea in the lumbermen's movement. It is believed by those back of the project that the lumber manufacturers and other dealers in material, by co-operation and standardization, can make it possible to erect for $2,000 a house that normally would cost $2,500.

The main point is to eliminate the waste elements that enter into building operation when undertaken independently and on a small scale. The program seems to have in it elements of promise and if it can be carried out as its sponsors hope will be an important factor in the nation's conservation effort.

Any movement that tends to make it easier for the head of an American family to secure a home is in the interest of thrift and good citizenship. The man who owns his home and pays taxes on it has an interest in local government that makes him more careful in the selection of public officials and more watchful of what those in office do. A community of home owners is one of law-abiding, progressive, thrifty and prosperous citizens.

HINT TO COAL MEN.

(New York World.)

Fuel Administrator Garfield spoke feelingly to 1,500 bituminous coal operators at Pittsburgh:

"Do not forget that when you are considering the question of traffic, transportation and wage the country is at war. I do not say this as a threat, but as long as I am fuel dictator I propose to see that all the coal we expect is produced."

This may not have been a threat, but it certainly was a hint. With many different excuses, coal mining has been interrupted, in most cases with intent to force the government's hand in the matter of higher wages and prices. Operators as well as miners are believed to have acted in harmony to these ends in some localities.

As fuel administrator Mr. Garfield's powers of suggestion are great because the law under which he is acting is far-reaching. When he delicately insinuates that he is going to have all the coal that the country requires he is merely reminding the industry in perfect kindness that he is about to commandeer the mines and to conscript the labor needed to work them on public account.

No great business interest ought to assume that with war in progress it can apply a stranglehold to the United States, but if an example of the folly of such an undertaking must be had, the coal trade appears to be an inviting subject.

Uncle Harry Tells How Our Destroyers And Shipyards Are Helping to Win the War

"Uncle Harry," said Joe, "about a week ago we were down town shopping with mother and we saw on a newspaper bulletin board news of the sinking of the U. S. transport Antilles by a submarine. And shortly before that I also read that a U. S. destroyer had been torpedoed."

"Yes, Uncle Harry," broke in Jimmy, "does this mean that our destroyers are not able to beat the U-boats? I thought they were built especially to fight and sink submarines."

"That is one of the important things that the destroyers are supposed to do," replied Uncle Harry, "and notwithstanding these few mishaps, they have been very successful since the United States entered the war."

The American destroyer flotilla, commanded by Admiral Sims, has, for some time, been doing patrol duty in the so-called "barred zone" around Great Britain and France. And, according to the news that reaches us from the other side, these fast little sea fighters have helped greatly to lessen the losses to the allied shipping caused by the German submarines, besides making things very uncomfortable for any U-boats that they may happen to run across."

Work of the Destroyers.

"Just what have our destroyers been doing, Uncle Harry," asked Helen.

"Well, to sum it up briefly, Helen, they are, as I said, combating the submarines and in connection with this they are doing splendid and vital work in conveying troop ships and merchant vessels, patrolling the shipping routes and rescuing the survivors from ships that have been torpedoed."

"How does a destroyer sink a submarine, Uncle Harry?" asked Joe.

"Sometimes by gunfire and sometimes by means of what are known as depth charges," the latter, a high explosive timed to explode by water pressure at the depth where the destroyer suspects a submarine to be lurking, are greatly feared by the U-boat commanders. There is nothing like how many submarines have been destroyed by this weapon."

"The sinking of a submarine by gunfire naturally calls for the destroyer's gun crew, for the periscope of the enemy, which is the only part showing above water, presents a very small target."

But the American gunners, known throughout the world over as expert marksmen, are equal even to this task, as the U-boat captains are discovering to their cost."

Their Value in the War.

That our destroyer flotilla has done very effective work in conveying, is evidenced by the fact that thousands of American soldiers and marines have been transported across the ocean and through the danger zone without the loss of a man. Ships carrying much-needed supplies and food to our forces in France and to our allies have been

RETAIL LICENSES MAY CUT FOOD COST

Government's Big Campaign to Reduce Cost of Eat- ables Begins Nov. 1.

Harry B. Hunt, of the Daily Sentinel's Washington Bureau, Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—Uncle Sam's grip on the food situation tightened perceptibly with the placing under issue, November 1, of all large food-stuff dealers, from producer to consumer.

This license, bringing under government regulation meat packers, storage houses, millers, canners, grain dealers, brokers, commission men and wholesale dealers, also covers retailers doing a business of $100,000 per year or more.

This brings under federal control the larger individual grocers and all chain-store firms, and means there will be at least one government-controlled retail grocery in every city of size.

For immediate price control the food administration has singled out 10 groups of staple commodities on which regulations will be imposed. The price of these commodities will be followed from producer through the wholesaler and large retailer and the margin of profit in each case strictly limited. Dealers found asking exorbitant prices will be deprived of their license, without which they cannot continue in business.

The profits to be allowed the various middlemen on the staples selected have not yet been determined. Food administration experts, busy on the schedule for weeks, probably will work it out within 10 days. In the absence of exact established margins, the food administration will act upon all cases in the light of whether the profits exacted are "reasonable."

It is the hope, eventually, to fix an official price range for all commodities, announcing the prices weekly or oftener, as changes in supply and demand justify. These prices would be carried in all newspapers, the way Chicago and New York produce prices heretofore fixed by the dealers themselves have been announced.

This fixing of specific prices, however, has been complicated by the necessity of meeting regional conditions of supply and transportation, and by the many grades that would have to be covered in some commodities. It is expected ultimately a government price list will show the housewife exactly what her retailer is paying. She will then know if he attempts to charge an excess profit.

The foodstuffs taken immediately under federal control by the licenses of November 1, are:

Wheat, wheat flour, rye and rye flour.

Fresh, canned or cured beef, pork or mutton.

Milk, butter, cheese, lard, lard substitutes, oleomargarine, oleo oil and cooking fats.

Sugar, syrups and molasses.

Barley and barley flour.

Oats, oatmeal and rolled oats.

Corn, corn grits, corn meal, hominy, corn flour, corn strach, corn oil, corn syrup and glucose.

Rice and rice flour.

Pea seed or dried peas.

Cottonseed, cottonseed oil, cottonseed cake or cottonseed meal.

This Big Aluminum Cereal Cooker

We make this One-Week Offer to Housewives here who have not had this Cooker. The cost of Aluminum has doubled in the last few years. Cooker prices have enormously advanced. But, in fairness to those who missed it last year, we repeat this Dollar Offer.

Cookers Supplied To a Million Homes

We have supplied Quaker Cookers to a million homes at very little prices. But the cost has advanced until our offer is almost impossible.

But grocers tell us that many housewives missed our former offer. They are using Quaker Oats and Pettijohn's, and they want this Aluminum Cooker. In fairness, they should have it.

So we renew this offer for next week only. It applies only to housewives whom we have not supplied already. It applies only to users of Quaker Oats or Pettijohn's, or both. It means twice as much as this Dollar Offer meant two years ago. Get this Cooker next week if you are entitled to it. You owe that to yourself.

Double Cooker
Pure Aluminum
Extra Large and Heavy
Cereal Capacity 2 1/2 Qts.
A Lifetime Utensil

To Rightly Cook Two Famous Dishes

We want every user of Quaker Oats and Pettijohn's to cook these cereals rightly. Right cooking makes them doubly delightful. It keeps the flavor intact. It makes them easy to digest.

This Aluminum Cooker has been made to order to meet exact requirements. It is extra large, so little or much can be cooked in it. It is extra heavy, made to last a lifetime.

This Cooker will next week cost you only $1, if you send us the sales slip we ask for. This is a costly offer. And we simply want to know, before sending the Cooker, that you are a Quaker Oats or Pettijohn's user.

This Offer One Week Only

Get a sales slip from your grocer showing the purchase of three packages—in any combination of Quaker Oats or Pettijohn's. Send us $1 with the sales slip and we will mail the cooker by parcel post. Sales slip must be mailed next week. This offer applies to this vicinity only.

Quaker Oats Which Saves You 75%

Measured by food value, Quaker Oats costs one-fourth as much as the average mixed diet. So each dollar you spend for Quaker Oats saves an average of $3. Oats stand supreme among grain foods, in nutrition and in flavor. They form a complete food, supplying every need. As an energy food their fame is proverbial.

Make this the chief breakfast dish. Meat and eggs cost five and six times as much. Also use Quaker Oats in bread and muffins, pancakes and cookies. No other food is so economical.

Use Quaker Oats because of the matchless flavor. It is made of queen grains only—just the big, plump, luscious oats. We get but 10 pounds from a bushel. Yet it costs you no extra price.

Pettijohn's The Laxative Luxury

Pettijohn's Breakfast Food is soft rolled wheat, hiding 25 per cent bran flakes. It is a savory dainty of which no one ever tires. And it supplies the needed bran. Bran is Nature's laxative. Everybody needs it. Most folks would feel better if they ate it every day.

Fine foods clog the system. Bran supplies the needed roughage. Every doctor, as you know, urges its use, to avoid the need of drugs.

Try it one week. Note the good spirits which result. Never again will you return to a branless diet.

Pettijohn's Flour is another bran dainty. That is 75 per cent white patent flour and 25 per cent bran flakes. Use like Graham flour in any recipe. With these two products every meal can include some bran-made dainty.

under license, the government will be able to do much more than regulate prices. It will be able to force onto the market any hoards of foodstuffs held in warehouses and cold storage plants, to distribute surplus supplies to points where supplies are short and otherwise to stabilize market conditions.

With supply equalized to meet demand, under government supervision, the natural tendency will be for lower prices. With the government ready to penalize greedy dealers prices will further tend downward.

Up to date the chief work of the food administration has been in preparation. It has about completed its regulation through voluntary cooperation—successful at least in preventing a further price rise. It is now ready to step in with orders, instead of requests.

From November 1, the food administration will direct what these food middlemen shall do, not simply "request" them to be good.

And any middleman who thinks the orders will not be enforced should make a test case.

For his own information it might be said the test case brought by one English potato dealer cost him a fine of $12,500.

FLOTILLA PRINTER IS THE BUSIEST AMERICAN

"Skee" of "Chi" Does the Art Preservative for Navy Abroad.

Base American Flotilla, in British Waters, Oct. 22.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The flotilla printer is one of the busiest Americans here. He is a native of Chicago and holds a card in Typographical Union No. 16, of that city. "Skee" from "Chi," he is called by the bluejackets who seem to have a nickname for everything.

"Skee" does not go to sea. He works on board a vessel that swings at a buoy in this port. From morning till night he is kept busy on the avalanche of orders that come rolling in for printed stuff for the whole flotilla. Of late he has been doing some work for the British naval forces. His workroom resembles a small jobbing office and is tucked out of the way in the stern of the flotilla flagship. It is fenced off with warnings against intrusion. All type is set by hand and printed on a small hand press electrically operated.

The flotilla printer has made a hit by the way in which he illustrates the program he prints of the entertainment provided by the bluejackets at their shore clubhouse, turning out rough wood cuts for the cover of the program. Last week he had a picture of the clubhouse with sailors arriving in limousines. Girls who are barred from the clubhouse are frequently depicted waiting in automobiles for the sailors to re-appear. His latest attempt was an illustration of that part of West 43rd street, New York, known as "Melody Lane," to go with the burlesque of that musical thoroughfare produced by the sailors.

The flotilla printer is a chief petty officer with the rating of a first-class printer. With the increase in pay made recently he gets $62 a month as printer, and to this must be added his $50 a year allowance as a naval reserve man which brings his monthly stipend up to $70. Uncle Sam pays his board and lodging. A satisfactory feature is that there is no composing room foreman to boss him. He alone in the whole flotilla, knows his job.

HERE IS A BEADED BLOUSE THAT IN FETCHING FORM RISES TRIUMPHANT

BY BETTY BROWN.

Forever maligned by artists and designers as a garment unrelated and unsuited to beauty of costume—forever consigned to fashion's limbo by the style arbiters—the separate blouse has triumphed over the discouragements of authority and maintains its firm place in the hearts of women. Its usefulness is its salvation.

Nowadays the blouse is making a commendable effort to profit by the criticisms of its artistic enemies and is doing its best to relate itself to the tailored skirt or suit with which it is worn, in this model with fluttering sleeves.

The skirt is of deer-brown silk velvet and the blouse is of biscuit-colored georgette crepe combined with deeper brown crepe. Opaque, polished beads of brown outline the darker crepe.

SOCIETY

The musical department of the Woman's Club League, which is to give a program at the Anthony hotel on Saturday afternoon, will be one of the most interesting, diverting and entertaining features of the week. The program will begin at 2:30 o'clock and a visiting artist, Signor Alberto Salvi, will be heard. Salvi is a harp virtuoso and belongs to the Chicago Philharmonic orchestra, a fact of recommendation that speaks for itself. He is also probably the youngest harpist in the country. A large attendance of league members is expected at the concert.

Misses Margaret and Mildred Saylor are spending a few days in Indianapolis.

Miss Georgia Leedy, of Edgewater avenue, has gone to Chicago to remain over the end of the week.

Mrs. Harry Bowser and daughter, Wilda, have gone to Indianapolis to remain over the week-end.

Mrs. Charles B. Falls, of New York city, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Reiman, of West Wayne street.

Mrs. Earl C. Eisman has returned to Ann Arbor, Mich., after a few days' visit with Miss Julia Chambers, of South Calhoun street.

Mr. and Mrs. Melser and son, Earl, of Richmond, are to be guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kaiser, 725 Wilwood avenue.

A genuine Halloween party of last evening was enjoyed by a number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Whipple, of Florida drive, last evening.

There were twenty people in the party and merry games and suitable refreshments were enjoyed.

Many Fort Wayne friends of the family of S. A. Nelson, of Peoria, Ill., former residents of this city, are interested in hearing of the marriage of their son, Lieutenant William Nelson, to Miss Gertrude Alice Wagner, which took place at San Antonio, Tex., October 27. Lieutenant Nelson is a member of the Nineteenth Infantry, U. S. A., stationed at San Antonio.

A Halloween party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace D. Reed, 2114 North Clinton street, on Tuesday evening. The usual order of games was enjoyed, together with music and a delicious supper at 10 o'clock. Enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Lasure, Miss Annie Genth, Robert Koch, Nevada Boals, Roy Henley, Masters Arnold Lasure, Frederick and Charles Engleman.

A jolly Halloween party that came off early in the week was held at the home of Miss Phyllis Madara, of Woodland avenue, on Monday evening. In an outing contest prizes were won by Gladys Moore and Carl Bunby. Other young people present were Hazel Morrison, Mabel Shaffer, Marie Rinkenber, Nellie Smith, Bernice Brown, Gladys Moore, Phyllis Madara, Lyle Smith, Carl Bunby, Harry Van Bostirk, Ralph Dunlap, Elwin Hines, Arthur Zink and Morris Stevens.

Young women of the St. Vincent's Orphans' Sewing club gave a progressive dinner on Tuesday evening at the homes of Misses Mae Centlivre, Blanche Reuss, Irene Miller and Mrs. Carl Centlivre. An equal number of young men were asked to enjoy the good time. Members of the club also include Miss Josephine Dinnen, Miss Uorline Feightner, Mrs. Willard Thomas, Mrs. William Pell, Mrs. Matthew Dronnan and the guests included the husbands of the married ladies and Messrs. Jerome Miller, Claude Beam, Gus Berghoff, William Mueller and Dr. J. M. Corlett.

The members of Miss Louise Pickard's Sunday school class were guests of Miss Katherine Hackett on Monday evening, at her home in West Berry street. It was a Halloween party and a surprise program, so no one over had an inkling of what was going to happen next.

Miss Hackett's sister, Mrs. Cherry Johnson, of Los Angeles, told fortunes and told so many interesting things that sounded as if they would surely happen, that some of the company felt like having their future told twice.

Than after a while "ghosts" appeared and the antics they cut up were easily accounted for when the masks came off and the ghostly figures proved each girl's best boy friend. There was dancing of old fashioned figures such as the Virginia reel, and some other old-fashioned and yet ever new refreshments of the apples-doughnuts-and sweet cider kind.

The ceremony of the Episcopal church of which the bride is a communicant, was read by Rev. Edward W. Averill, at half past 8 o'clock with friends and relatives to the number of sixty, witnessing it. Music of harp and violin playing the Mendelssohn wedding march announced the entrance of the bridal party to the living room, where the large fireplace had been banked with ferns and with palms on either side and white stand-ard vases of yellow chrysanthemums, with a smilax bordered kneeling cushion marked the place for the bride and groom.

Mr. Clyde Avis, of Morenci, Mich., entered from the solarium with the clergyman, while the bridesmaids grouped themselves about, their gowns of delicate organdie in rainbow tints, forming a charming contrast to the bride's gown. The bride's gown was made of white chiffon elaborately headed. The blouse and long sleeves were covered with the beads and cascades of beads and pearls of the skirt and fell over the shoulders. It was a beautiful gown for a young bride. The bride held the hair on both sides with clusters of orange blossoms. The bride wore a diamond lavallere, the groom's wedding gift. The bridesmaids wore gowns much alike in their fashioning, with touches of black velvet or silver lace and ribbon and held hats of flowers to correspond with the coloring of each gown. Miss Leedy wore pink, Miss Alice Wilding a pale blue, Miss Puckett lavender, Miss Saylor orange, Miss Cavalier green and Miss Fee a light pink. These dresses were made with tight bodices, ruffled skirts and puffed short sleeves. The flower child, Miss Dorothy, wore white organdie and a sash that combined all the colors of the rainbow, while gold sandals on her tiny feet matched gold tulle bows on her arms. During the ceremony, Mrs. Horton and Mr. Cien-oul, the musicians, played the "Evening Star" from Tannhauser and a gay program during the wedding collation afterwards. The house large blossoms of "humus" were used and they were very handsome against the mahogany trimmings of the house. In the solarium and hall pink flowers were used; in the livingroom, yellow, and in the diningroom white, with the exception of the table that had pink roses as well as ropes of smilax that hung from the four corners of the electric dome. The bridal bouquet was made in a shower of bride roses, swansonia and lilies of the valley. After receiving the congratulations of the company and partaking of the supper, the bride and groom left for Cleveland and from that point to Niagara, Buffalo, New York city, Albany, Washington and other points for a three weeks' trip. For traveling the bride is wearing a tailored suit of dark Oxford gray cloth with hat of panne velvet to match and a trimming of nuptial feathers. Handsome furs of fox are worn with the suit while one of the bride's gifts from her parents was a Hudson seal coat. Mr. and Mrs. Avis will live in Hudson, Mich., and will be at home there during the first of January. Mr. Avis is in business with his father in an electrical line and is very well to do. The bride is an unusually charming young woman who was graduated from Michigan Danner college a year ago from the home economics department, the college study

A surprise party of recent date that afforded much pleasure to Mrs. Mary Carpenter, of 441 East Taber street, and the friends and relatives who participated in it, was given on Saturday. A game of buncie was enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. Bolerjack and Mrs. Bowen. Supper was served at a late hour in the evening and Misses Edith Weber, Marie, Elmer and Julia Carpenter assisted in waiting on the guests, who were Mrs. Berg, Mrs. Burrows, Mrs. Tancey, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Bolerjack, Mrs. Martin, McNally, Cooley, Plo, Cornelius, Latourette, Mills, Cuney, El-ringer, Johnston, Smith, Walker, Williams, Maguire, Marks, Welch, Sunley, Phininger, Woods and Im-body.

The wedding of Miss Madge Thomas and Mr. Lloyd Maynard, of Flint, took place at 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Crescent Avenue Evangelical church. Rev. C. E. Boyer performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alma Thomas, and by Miss Ruth Martin and the groom by Mr. Irvin Price. The wedding party had dinner at the Anthony hotel and a little later in the day the bride and groom left for Flint, where they will live. The groom is employed in the Michigan forestry department as a tree expert.

AT THE MAJESTIC

Bernhardt's Farewell Nov. 7.

Madame Sarah Bernhardt, fresh from her triumphs at the Knickerbocker theater, New York city, where she electrified her admirers with as many as twelve performances a week, and repeated her triumph at Chicago, comes to the Majestic on Nov. 7 (Wednesday) with her own company of artists from the Theater Sarah Bernhardt, Paris. Her leading man is Jean Angelo, who received special permission from the French government to make the tour. He is a son of that famous Angelo who was Mme. Bernhardt's man when she first came to this country in 1850.

At each performance the following artists will appear during the intermissions: Albert Donnelly, shadowgraphy; Florence Hardeman, violinist; Rome Fontan, tenor; Jean Cooper, contralto; Annie Louise David, harpist; Royal Bernard, piano, and Jean Duval and company in genre of art.

Mme. Bernhardt will appear in plays chosen from among her greatest triumphs.

AT THE PALACE

THE HUMAN FLY.

He Will Appear Remainder of Week at the New Palace.

Stories of how he does it and some of his experiences with the thrill-loving American public will be told by Harry Gardner, the original Human Fly, at matinee and evening performances at the New Palace during the remainder of the week. Mr. Gardner, who yesterday made a sensational climb of the court house and who on Saturday will climb the building again and then climb down it, is an accomplished story-teller, his yarns being funny and losing none of their humor in the telling.

Harry Langdon and company in the laudable little automobile farce, "Johnny's New Car," is the legitimate headliner on this bill. The "new car" betrays all the cantankerousness of the flapper and some that are peculiar to it. Pat Barrett, the merry, good-looking and talented young musical comedy star, is to present a repertoire of exclusive song numbers in a manner all his own. The American All Revue, a sizzling flight of girls, singing, dancing and crooks, with eight winsome lassies; William Morrow and company in the wayside flirtation between the traveling man and the little country girl, who isn't so unsophisticated after all, and Hector and Pals, the crack dog act, are others on this bill which closes Saturday evening.

SERVE HOT BREADS ON WHEATLESS DAY, MENUS.

Serving hot bread seems to offer the most sensible and handy solution of the "wheatless day's" menus," says Miss Amy L. Daniels, food specialist, home economics department, University of Wisconsin.

"Delicious muffins, baking powder biscuits, and hot breads of various kinds readily present a better way to observe wheatless days than to try to bake special loaves of raised bread for the purpose," Miss Daniels says. "In the trials at the home economics kitchen, the hot breads, as well as spice cakes and doughnuts, made entirely from barley flour, have been a success and we have also made bread using but 12 to 15 per cent of wheat in with barley flour."

THIS INGENUE EVENING FROCK OF CHIFFON SEEMS TO BE "VERY IDEA"

BY BETTY BROWN.

This charming conception of chiffon and satin is worn by Dorothy Mackaye, who is starring in "The Very Idea," a Broadway success of the season. It expresses youth and daintiness and is extremely simple—merely an under-slip of white satin over which is artfully draped and caught into bodice and sleeves many yards of white chiffon stenciled with rose sheafs in delicate pinks and greens. For the debutante's dancing gown it is an ideal conception.

MANY VISITORS COMING FOR Y. M. C. A. BANQUET

Representatives Will Be Here from Seven Northern Indiana Counties.

Representative citizens of seven live Indiana counties—Allen, Adams, Wells, DeKalb, Steuben, Huntington and Whitley—are to be the guests at a banquet held at the Anthony hotel Friday evening when the great war far enough to realize that when she throws undarned underwear into the waste basket she is throwing away a certain amount of her husband's brain or muscle power—the energy he gives his employer in exchange for his salary.

And this form of modern ignorance extends to every department of the household. Early in the war, investigators reported women throw $7,000,000 into the American garbage can annually. The waste is all part and parcel of woman's mental attitude toward darning. The great American ragbag is probably the garbage can only.

Now that woman knits socks and sweaters herself, she learns to reckon their worth by the hours required to make them. With that kind of price tag most garments, obviously are well worth darning.

Thinking in cents rather than nickels and dimes is a lesson much needed in this country. Thinking stitches ought to be woman's way "thinking in cents"—for what economies she might achieve on basis "a stitch in time saves nine!"

And what a service she might perform for herself, and her country at all humanity, merely by restoring to darning bag, mending basket and darning box to the boudoir.

A touching story of woman's wit in the war zone concerns a lovely girl of a famous French family. She is reared in luxury, and therefore has the skill with her hands, but in her convent days she was taught to do as part of her education of a gentleman. So now this fashionable beauty sits in the laundry department of a great military hospital, patching, darning and patching the coats, clothing of wounded soldiers—a wretched job, for the surgeons slit at slash it to remove it from the patients quickly. The great lady found the way to serve her country best.

Many a lovely American girl would gladly do the same thing—in Europe! But why not attempt the possibility? Why not begin at home? All that's saved here, helps there.

"MULLIGAN" IS ONCE MORE BECOME A FASHION TO BE

For some reason "mulligan" has risen into the limelight this fall and several requests have been received for recipe for it. In the two following, one for chicken and the other is plain.

Mulligan—One tablespoonful of butter, one onion, small head of cabbage, a can of tomatoes, salt, pepper and paprika to taste. Put butter in the saucepan, melt, then add the onions, slice brown it and add the chopped cabbage. Let all cook slowly for twenty minutes then add the tomatoes and seasoning a cook, uncovered, for two hours over slow fire.

Chicken Mulligan—Boil one fat chicken until tender and take meat off of bones. Boil together until tender a peck of potatoes, eight carrots, six onions, two ears of corn, one bunch of celery, one-half peck tomatoes. Cut all vegetables into small cubes and season with red pepper and salt. Put chicken with vegetables and cook on slow fire five minutes. This will serve abundantly twelve persons and although the quantities are large the "mulligan" is so good it will all be eaten.

RUPE NEW KNITTING BAGS ARE DREAD OF MERCHANTS

Not only are the shops aware of the huge knitting bag as a new vehicle for stolen articles, but they dread the Christmas shopping in consequence, and are planning a doubled vigilance in the way of plain clothes men and women to police knitting bags.

And the festive knitting bag has appeared in other fields of active service also. The signora who presides over an Italian restaurant well known to New Yorkers and visitors bubbled into investives of the knitting bags that enter there, for they carried off six silver sugar bowls in a week. And now the sugar bowl that remain repose in a safe place and the diners find their sugar in little glass or china dishes which do not cost $5 to replace—Woman's Wear.

Knitting and darning are sister arts. One creates clothing, the other conserves it. For two decades both were lost to the American woman. Now that war has restored one, why not the other?

It has for some time been the custom of well-meaning and even well-educated women to boast that they knew nothing of mending.

Perhaps this is because the American woman comes by her clothing too easily. Husband or father gives her some money, and all she has to do is to shop for the prettiest things the sun will buy. When the garments are slightly soiled or damaged she asks for more money and goes shopping again. That is what money is for—that is what men are for—in many a woman's philosophy of life.

It is part of great misfortune that when women stopped making her garments she lost her measure of their real value. The wife seldom thinks

WILDWOOD PARK AT NIGHT IS BEAUTIFUL

Sparkling Boulevard Lights Suggest a Veritable Fairyland.

Since the boulevard lighting plan in Wildwood Park has been completed, the beautiful new west side community is truly a fairyland after nightfall. Seen at a distance, as for instance, from the Taylor street entrance to the city, the stretch of sparkling lights extending over the broad sweep of dark, distant landscape appears like "a city set upon a hill." The closer view, however, gained only as the automobilist enters at either end of Washington Road, gives an entirely different impression. Here, he is in the midst of it, and he finds the distant sparkling lights to be set upon graceful posts and at sufficiently separated points along the drives to harmonize perfectly with the general plan and at the same time cast such a brilliant illumination over the streets as to create a more clearly lighted thoroughfare than can be found on any of the downtown streets. Like everything else concerning Wildwood Park the lighting scheme "fits in" perfectly.

The place as a location for homes is merely an improvement upon all that Nature could provide. Nothing has been marred or destroyed. Everything beautiful and useful has been preserved. The people who now live in Wildwood Park are delighted with their choice of home sites. Others of similar taste still have the opportunity to secure the broad roomy home sites in this ideal community.

YOUNGSTERS ESTABLISH RECORD FOR HALLOWE'EN

Neither Complaints Nor Arrests Testify to Good Behavior.

What with a sane Fourth of July and a pranksome Halloween the kids of Fort Wayne will surely some day find themselves minus any suitable material for fireside reminiscences. All officers reported an unusually quiet evening, Wednesday night. Maskers were to be found in large numbers, but they were all of the harmless variety, and most of them were off of the streets at 9 o'clock. One of the police officers found a lad sitting on the curb at about eight thirty in a very pessimistic mood. When questioned the lad stated that since there were no bricks to be hurled or gates to be carried away life was not worth living. The officer furnished the boy with some popcorn from a nearby store and advised him to gather his cronies and spend the evening popping corn. The youth at once saw the brighter side of life and sped off to get Skinnay and the rest of the gang.

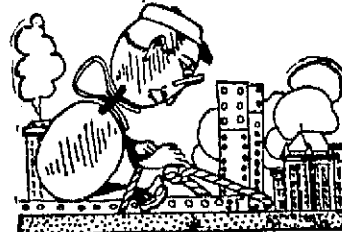

Deaths of Cases.
The high cost of getting fined has evidently caused Fort Wayne police characters to strike, for many a grace prisoner's row Thursday morning. George Wilson reported that he had a good job at Bowser's and was admonished to stay a good boy. He was the runaway lad found a week ago. The case against Mose Jacobs, fruit merchant, was dismissed, while the case of Frank Cramer of wife desertion, was continued until December 1.

WILL SEND CLOTHING TO BELGIUM CHILDREN

Ladies of Red Cross Society at Garrett Will Meet Saturday.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Garrett, Ind., Nov. 1.—The ladies of this city will meet in the Red Cross rooms Saturday afternoon and assist in getting a box of clothing ready for shipment to the children of Belgium and France. Mrs. Dr. Strong, a former well known DeKalb county woman, who was born and reared at Waterloo, is in France with her husband, who is a physician in Pershing's staff. Mrs. Strong is doing work among the orphans and has charge of a colony of 1,300 orphans ranging in ages from 1 to 15 years. Feeling that the home folks who know her so well would respond to her call for help, she has written that they send clothing for the little folks under her care. The women of the country are showing a great willingness to assist these children, and every town in the county is preparing clothing. There is not a home in Garrett but that can find some piece of clothing that is outgrown or possibly a little old style, and anything will be gladly received by these suffering children. The women of this city are urged to come to the Red Cross rooms Saturday and bring whatever you have that you can give and the ladies will send and make over all that need it. Stockings that need mending will be received and in fact anything that you can possibly give. If each person will only give one article think what the amount will mean when assembled. For those who cannot bring things Saturday the Camp Fire girls will receive them at the mayor's office in the city hall Monday. Bring your old shoes and we will have them repaired. Talk this to your neighbors and remember "inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto Me."

GOVERNMENT STARTS THEATER TICKET TAX

Extra Pennies Will Go to Help Win Freedom's War.

The government will make another strategic move in its financial campaign for the world war when the theater tax of 10 per cent goes into effect all over the United States Thursday.

The tax will gain about $600 in pennies from Fort Wayne theaters alone, according to the average attendance at the city's motion picture and vaudeville houses on Thursday afternoon and evening. On days of the largest theater attendance the amusement tax should gather $1,000 in Fort Wayne for the fighting boys "over there."

There will be no falling off in theater attendance because of the tax, amusement experts who have studied the workings of the theater assessment in Canada say. People will not hesitate to pay the extra penny in order to see Theda Bara ramp or Fatty Arbuckle throw fresh black-berry pies, when they know that the special assessment goes to feed soldiers and buy ammunition.

The tax as ordered from Washington will be: One cent additional for every 10 cent ticket; 15 cent tickets will be 17 cents; 20 cent tickets, 22 cents; 25 cent tickets, 28 cents; 30 cent tickets, 35 cents, and 31 tickets, $1.10.

Moving picture theater men have been paying a special tax of 15 cents for every reel which has been shown since November 15, and vaudeville houses have had to bear the brunt of the additional car fare levied by the government, but no burden is to be placed upon the public for these profit-reducing assessments, theater managers state.

ORGANIZED LABOR STRONGER THAN EVER BECAUSE OF ITS WAR SERVICE SAYS GOMPERS

BY SAMUEL GOMPERS, President American Federation of Labor.

Organized labor of the United States, as represented in the American Federation of Labor, will be stronger when it assembles for its annual convention in Buffalo a few days hence than ever before.

This great increase in strength is evidenced whether we measure it by the growth in membership to more than two and a half millions, by the great extension of industrial activities in which union scales and conditions are obligatory, by the government's ever increasing recognition of organized labor, or by the degree of solidarity.

It is no exaggeration to say there never has been in all labor history such a rapid extension of the principles and practices of industrial democracy as since the United States was forced to enter the world conflict.

And, mark this point—in every case this extension has been made not to impede the nation's war preparations but to accelerate them by promoting co-operation between employers and labor, but its wisdom has in every instance appealed to federal officials.

The workers in hundreds of establishments, in the past denied every form of recognition, with their wages, hours and working conditions arbitrarily determined, are now receiving the union scale and have their grievances equitably adjusted.

In four great branches—ship-building, construction, mercantile, marine, and longshore work—agreements have been perfected between the government, the employers and labor to safeguard even the unorganized men. These agreements have government sanction because of an ever-growing realization of the necessity not only for industrial stability but for a proper standard of living as the basis for efficiency.

Already the 8-hour law for government contracts has greatly extended the 8-hour day, for in many branches there is hardly a firm not working on government contract.

Although many establishments are now working 9 or 10 hours, the basis 8-hour day is in effect and the payment of time-and-a-half for overtime beyond 8 hours is a sufficient check on the employment of men more than 8 hours except in cases of genuine emergency, such as the present.

I predict the war's end will find the 8-hour day practically universal in American industry, as the result not of any spectacular "general strike" but of the recognition, at the insistence of organized labor, that in the long run more and better work can be produced in eight hours than in any longer period.

There is a rapidly growing recognition that the workers are the true basis of national strength. If labor's hand is not strong, skillful and willing, not a ship will sail, not a gun will roar. Through this recognition labor will assume a new status in the nation's councils.

Some of our American "Bolsheviks" of the socialist party, of the so-called People's Council, and other similar irresponsible undertook a campaign to sverve American labor from the standpoint of loyalty to self and country. Their futile efforts have only demonstrated that among all the millions of American workers there were only a handful mean or silly enough to join the traitorous plan.

It cannot too often be emphasized that American workmen are concerned in this great struggle not only as Americans, but as workers. They must help destroy Hohenzollernism not only because it menaced America and democracy, but because the workers more than any other class stand to suffer by the triumph of Prussianism.

To the capitalist it need matter little in what country he lives, his wealth exalts him above the laws and political government of any country.

With the worker the existence of a military absolutism is of daily concern. Whether he is the slave of the state, as in Prussia, or whether the state is his servant, determines his whole existence. Therefore labor has mobilized for an early and lasting peace.

It must be recognized, however, that labor's unwavering loyalty is not maintained without sacrifice. Not only have the men of labor gone forth as soldiers, not only have they redoubled their efforts in mine and factory, but at the same time they have had to see their families suffer through price increases far beyond any increase in their earnings. Already the standard of living has been reduced far below what is necessary to maintain their energy unimpaired. All this labor has borne with wonderful patience.

The toilers of America are willing to make sacrifices, but they must be sacrifices for the republic and not for private profit.

Labor is with the government in this war because we know the government is with labor to a degree surpassing any other administration. We believe, we know, that the wise, good-hearted man in the white house will not endure abuses, but will stand upon the war profiteers' and put an end to their pernicious practices.

LIBERTY LOAN TOTAL HALTS

Complete Figures Will Not Be Available This Week Says Washington.

FIVE BILLIONS THE APPROXIMATE

Later Returns Show Some of Reserve Districts Failed to Make Good.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Indications are that the total of subscriptions to the second Liberty loan will not be available this week. This is the last day on which banks may report subscriptions to federal reserve banks, but officials do not expect final reports from the reserve banks for several days.

In several federal reserve districts it is understood subscriptions have failed to reach the total estimated subscriptions upon which the treasury department based its prediction recently to the effect that the $5,000,000,000 would be exceeded. There is every indication, however, that the total will approximately be $5,000,000,000, and oversubscription of two billion of the minimum asked for.

CANADIANS CAPTURE IMPORTANT PLACES

Find Morale of the German Prisoners Has Become Much Lower.

Canadian Headquarters in France, Wednesday, Oct. 31.—(By the Canadian Press, Ltd.)—In addition to taking Mechelec and great farm, the Canadians captured three other fortified farms on the left of their advance after encountering determined resistance from the enemy, whose machine gun detachments had to be driven from concrete strongholds. The Canadians crossed the positions after crossing an almost impassable morass. The wounded who are returning from these fights tell of innumerable heroic incidents of men facing the fire from machine guns, snipers and hand grenades, and of the treacherous water shell holes which threatened death to the unwary at every other step.

The enemy's artillery fire while heavy over our whole advanced area, was erratic and scattered, our artillery with its harassing fire barrages dominating his guns. The superiority of our batteries was proved early in the engagement, when the fire from the enemy artillery which for some time shelled our positions was quickly and our bombardments. More than 100 prisoners together with many machine guns, have been taken in the latest advance. The morale of the opposing forces is surely weakened, appreciable deterioration being noted in the prisoners captured in the last 24 hours, as compared with last week.

A visit to the prisoners' encampment today showed the prisoners 19 years old. They report heavy casualties from their artillery during all of the week, when our shelling and airplane observation were so good the enemy's guns had to be moved constantly from fear of being put out of action. One of the most important admissions from the prisoners is that the enemy communications are in danger of breaking down in the Puschendaele area. The regiment which opposed our advance was fighting on short rations.

INDIANA TEACHERS FILL THE CAPITAL

Thousands of Them Attend Annual Meeting of the Association.

Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—Thousands of Indiana school teachers were in Indianapolis today attending the various sectional meetings of the sixty-four annual meetings of the Indiana State Teachers' association. War problems and the situation caused by the conflict in the schools occupied the time at many of the meetings. It was the general opinion that the schools must bend every energy to help win the war. The meetings will continue throughout Saturday morning.

Among the speakers were lecturers and others from all parts of the country. The subjects discussed at the sectional meetings were confined more or less to matters pertaining to the courses the teachers attending such sessions teach.

At the general meetings which will begin tomorrow night general subjects will be considered.

COAL FOR THE POOR IS LARGE PROBLEM

Trustee Hamilton Appeals to Pity of Local Dealers.

How to secure coal for destitute families is the problem with which Wayne Township Trustee Hamilton has wrestled day and night of late.

Generally the call for some householding fuel does not come until the members of the family are shivering about a fireless stove. Coal must be had at once in such cases. When called upon the coal dealers explain that they are unable to make prompt deliveries.

It has been largely by personal visits to the coal dealers and in appealing to their sense of pity that Trustee Hamilton has been able to send fuel to destitute families during the past week. A part of the dealers have agreed to sacrifice their other interests in order to make the urgent deliveries to homes where suffering crouches before a black hearth.

In former years the trustees had only to call the coal dealers and place the order for fuel with them, after he had investigated the conditions in families where help was needed. This year there is a delay of several hours in nearly every case and dealers can make no promises as to the future, they say.

SOP IS THROWN TO LABOR IN GERMANY

First Toiler to Sit in Upper House Receives Fresh Honor.

Amsterdam, Nov. 1.—Adam Stegerwald, general secretary of the Christian Trades Unions, has been appointed a life member of the first chamber of the Prussian diet. This is the first time a representative of organized labor enters the upper house and is commented upon by German newspapers as one of the first steps in the form of that assembly as announced by the emperor in his Easter message. It is believed that the honor conferred on Stegerwald is due largely to his speech at the congress of Christian Trades Unions in which he denounced American attempts to sow discord between the emperor and the people. Herr Stegerwald said:

"Let us tell the gentleman at Washington that we went to war by the side of the kaiser and the princes and that we will return side by side with them."

Knuth had developed the habit of selling various articles at a reduced rate while making deliveries. It is alleged. Flour, eggs potatoes and most any other staple articles constituted his stock.

THEATER TICKET WAR TAX IMPOSES EXPENSE

New York Theaters Forced to Employ Many Additional Clerks.

New York, Nov. 1.—The war tax on theater tickets, effective today, has necessitated the employment of many additional clerks in New York theaters to collect the tax. At one of the leading theaters where the patronage by children is unusually large, twelve extra persons have been hired to regulate the complex matter of the children's tax. Children under 12 will be taxed 1 cent on all tickets instead of 10 per cent on the value and two methods of collecting this tax will be employed. In some cases children will be given a rebate ticket entitling them to a refund and in others tickets will be stamped in a way that will identify them at once.

TWO MORE SCHOOLS CLOSED TEMPORARILY

Health Officers Will Make Complete Line Against Smallpox.

The Precious Blood Catholic school, on Fourth street, and the Trinity Lutheran school, on Huffman street, are closed until Monday morning by order of the city board of health. Temporary closing of the school doors is in order to allow thorough disinfection of the rooms and to give every pupil a chance for vaccination against smallpox.

Rooms of most of the city schools will be fumigated during the annual teachers' vacation over this week-end. There are still many boys and girls who have not been vaccinated and are taking the inoculation treatment on Thursday. Nearly 200 children were vaccinated at the city hall Thursday. Factory employees and store clerks are responding well to the request that they be vaccinated. Most of the store employees and shop workers are visiting their family physicians for the inoculation.

New cases of smallpox reported Thursday are: Charles Gall, 524 Montgomery street, and a member of the McVey family, 336 High street. Two cases of diphtheria were reported as follows: Ellsworth Thomas, 1316 Green street, and in the family residing at 803 Huffman street.

It is expected that the board will confirm the resolution and award contract for the placing of a network of sewers through the Brookview addition, north of the city. URGENT ATTENDANCE. Waterways Congress Will Be Most Important This Year.

Mayor W. J. Hosey received a message from the committee in charge of the plans for the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which meets in Washington, D. C., on December 5, 6 and 7. The mayor is urged to see to it that some Fort Wayne representative attend the waterways gathering. He states that he expects a local citizen to have a part in the congress, although selection of the citizen has not been made as yet.

"This is the moment when we need our waterways most," states the letter from Washington. "We cannot expect our railroads to bear the entire burden of our transportation in war time. The present fuel crisis might be alleviated to a marked extent if the waterways were fully developed."

The lengthy communication ends by the strong paragraph:

"In this, the supreme crisis of our country, to risk the safety of our country and the fate of civilization and the future of humanity to a single method of transportation would be worse than folly; it would be a crime."

Building permit was issued to George B. Hall to remodel house at 3529 Piqua avenue at cost of $300.

WHOLESALE ROBBERY AT TRAINING STATION

Petty Officers and Some Out-siders Steal Vast Amount of Food.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Three petty officers and five civilians are under arrest today in connection with charges of the theft of foodstuffs, worth between $40,000 and $50,000 from the Great Lakes naval training station at Lake Bluff, thirty miles north of here.

Those under arrest are: H. L. Horner, petty officer in charge of the commissary; George Bowen and C. C. Mohr, petty officer assistants to Horner; Edward and William Koos, sausage manufacturers at Kenosha, Wis.; Anton Dudek, who had a contract for the garbage at the naval station; Gustav Gehl, an alleged "fence," and Philip Levandowski, at whose farm much of the stolen property is said to have been stored.

The alleged conspiracy is said to have been disclosed to the federal authorities by the manager at Kenosha for a packing house, who said he was told by customers his products could be obtained at prices below those charged by him. Four warrants for additional persons whose names were withheld for the time being, were taken out today.

GERMAN VERSION OF WEST FRONT ACTIVITY

Berlin Disputes Claims of British Reports to Important Gains.

Berlin, Via London, Wednesday, Oct. 31.—The official statement from the war office today says in part:

"In addition to the main attacks northeast of Ypres, the British also sought to press forward to Gheluvelt, on both sides of the Menin-lyre road. As a result of our well directed artillery fire, only weak portions of the enemy were able to advance. They were driven back by our infantry and machine guns."

"As a result of the excellent co-operation of all arms the fourth army gained new successes in the fighting yesterday. The British without gaining advantages, again suffered heavy sanguinary losses."

"Front of the German crown prince: On the Oise-Aisne canal and on the elevation in front of the Chemin des Dames, there was a considerable increase in the artillery duel yesterday. The French infantry was inactive. On the eastern bank of the Meuse our destructive fire at Chaume mound prevented French attacks which were in preparation."

"Eastern and Macedonian theaters: The situation is unchanged."

INDICT GASTON MEANS FOR THE KING MURDER

State Seeks Change of Venue Because of Plaintiff's Influence.

Concord, N. C., Nov. 1.—Gaston B. Means was indicted today by the grand jury for the murder of Mrs. Maude King, a wealthy widow here last August.

Means when formally arraigned pleaded not guilty. In asking that the trial be removed to another point in this judicial district, Solicitor Clement set forth the prominence of the Means family for 100 years in this vicinity; that the defendant had employed practically all the lawyers in this city to defend him; that when he wanted to sue out a warrant charging Means with the murder of Mrs. King the officers were reluctant in issuing the same and that the feeling displayed against the New York witnesses made it difficult to properly present the case here.

WALL STREET PRICES IN A WILD TUMBLE

New York, Nov. 1.—Prices crumbled again in the stock market today, shares of recognized value as well as speculative issues falling to lowest levels of the year. In several noteworthy instances prices in the forenoon repented minimum quotations of five to twenty years. The same influence which recently provoked feverish liquidation was again operative. The Italian situation and the enormous tax exactions of the federal government as shown by the heavy appropriations made by railroads and industrial corporations were the principal factors.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Owing to the great scarcity of wholesome milk in Russia the American Red Cross has bought a million pounds of condensed milk for the babies in that country. Shipments will be made immediately. Reports from the American Red Cross committee to Russia say nothing could be more heartening to many of the Russian people at the present time than providing nourishment for their babies.

ENEMY THWARTED IS CLAIM OF ITALIANS

Withdrawal of Forces Has Been Well Completed. Says Rome.

Rome, Nov. 1.—The Italian forces under Austro-German attack in northern Italy have effected a withdrawal on the line of the Tagliamento with the third Italian army nearly complete, the war office announced today.

"Thwarting the plan of the enemy by the rapidity of their promptly decided upon movements and by the brave resistance of the covering units which have detained his advance," reads the official statement, "our troops have effected the withdrawal on the Tagliamento in spite of the extremely difficult strategic conditions. The third army is nearly complete, a beautiful example of strength and unity."

"The first and second cavalry divisions and especially the heroic regiments of Genoa and Novara and the untiring aviators are worthy of mention to the admiration and gratitude of the country."

"Last night enemy airplanes brutally bombed several unprotected towns far from the lines of communication, causing a few casualties amongst the civilian population."

DAIRYMEN STRIKE TO PREVENT LOWER PRICE

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A strike of dairymen against efforts to lower the price of milk from 13 to 12 cents a quart, seriously cut down the city's supply today. The distributors had announced that they would pay the farmers only $3 a hundred pounds, as compared with a price during October of $3.42. The farmers had demanded $3.75 as a minimum and when this was refused held back their milk. It is said the consumption of milk in Chicago during October, when boycotts started by women, because of the increase, was 20 per cent less than during September.

LOSES HALF HER U-BOATS

Almost 50 Per Cent of Germany's Submarines Are Sent Down.

STATEMENT MADE IN BRITISH COMMONS

Sir Eric Geddes Says There is No Sign But That War is to Be Long.

London, Nov. 1.—Between 40 and 50 per cent of the German submarines operating in the North sea, the Arctic and the Atlantic since the beginning of the war have been sunk, said Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, in the house of commons today.

"During the last quarter the Germans lost as many submarines as they lost in 1916," said Sir Eric. "The output of merchant shipping in the first nine months of this year," he said, "was 123 per cent higher than in the corresponding period of last year. The admiralty had decided that four new national ship building yards would be built."

"We must lay plans for a long war," said Sir Eric. "I see no signs of it being a short one."

A SIGN IN AUSTRIA. Washington, Nov. 1.—Official cables received here today describe a remarkable scene in the Austrian reich-rath Oct. 27, showing the disaffection of the numerous Czech element which has given the Austrian government great concern. The president of the chamber made formal announcement of the Austrian-German victory over the Italians on the Bainsizza plateau, and called for cheers for the Austrians. Not a single Czech responded, and members of that party sat in sullen silence to the great indignation and dismay of the Germanic elements.

The appeal board Thursday morning decided a number of cases from Union county. Thirteen having no claims were certified for service. Six who claimed exemption on the strength of agricultural claims were held and three were discharged. In Lagrange three were discharged and two held for service. One man from each of the following counties, Elkhart, Wabash and Wayne, were denied appeals and were held for service. A number of cases were given rehearings and the following who had been held were discharged: Adolphus L. Hartle, Elkhart; J. Merret Tippey and Harry Kefauver, Wabash county; William J. Miles and Don L. Shook, Union county; William A. Bell, Madison county.

In Delaware county decisions were reversed in the cases of the following four men who were discharged, but now are held for service: Sheldon V. Yockey, Robert L. Richey, Edward O. Berry and Cecil L. Funkhouser. Two were discharged on their appeal, and five were held for service. On agricultural claims ten were discharged and two were held.

The second Indiana appeal board adjourned at noon Thursday and will be in session again next Monday. Madison county will be taken up.

INDIANA ELEVEN IS GIVEN LETUP

Risley and Hathaway Round- ing to Shape and Will Be in Big Game.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 1.—After their fine performance last night, when they ran over the freshmen in the best scrimmage of the year, the Indiana varsity was given a letup in the work last evening, drill ending with another demonstration by the yearlings of the Ohio State style of attack. The youngsters had the ball and the man carrying it merely walked through the formation without charging the line.

Neither Jordan field nor the university golf links was the scene of today's workout. The coach found a stretch of high ground on Forest avenue, a quarter of a mile from the regular meeting place, where several wagon loads of straw had been scattered. This made a very good footing for the men with their heavy football cleats and an improvement over the soft, spongy ground elsewhere. Contrary to expectations, not a single practice this week has been behind closed gates, but as nearly all the members of the student body were not aware the tid was not on very few have witnessed practices.

With the return of Left End Risley every man is now back in the fold and the team probably will be in as good physical condition as it has been this season. Capt. Hathaway reported the scrimmage last night had not hurt his ankle over again and that he will be in the pink of condition. Risley played last night without limping and soreness has practically left his leg. Officials agreed upon by both schools for the game are: Birch (Earlham), referee; Davis (Princeton), umpire; Gardner (Cornell), field judge; Stehm said his men will not go to Indianapolis the night before the contest, but will make their trip on the second section of the rosters' special over the Illinois Central, on which a special parlor car will be attached. Every member of the squad will be taken, including the freshmen.

The Howling Host, which will head the parade with their fifty new hats, will attend the pep session tomorrow night en masse and introduce the new Indiana song for the first time to the student body. The band will play the accompaniment. Great care is being taken by the Boosters' club in selecting speakers for this meeting. Besides Coaches Stehm and Rathbun, talks will be given by Judge J. L. LaFollette and Prof. A. L. Parks.

HAMMOND CLASHES WITH PINE VILLAGE SUNDAY

Effort to Ignore Friars in the Championship Talk Reaches Funny Stage.

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 1.—The football championship of Indiana will be at stake Sunday, when the Hammond football team travels to Lafayette to tackle Pine Village. Hammond's victory over Wabash last week has boosted its stock, and nearly a thousand fans will follow the team to the Pine Village habitat. A special train will leave over the Monon at 3 a. m. from Hammond, returning at 3 p. m. A week from Sunday Hammond will meet the Cornell-Hamburgs at Hammond.

The football championship of Indiana will not be at stake as stated in the above dispatch from Hammond. It cannot be at stake until both Hammond and Pine Village defeat the Friars, which as all Fort Wayne fans know cannot be done this season. If Pine Village defeats Hammond the championship rightfully belongs to the Friars, whether the locals and the two above teams ever meet. And the cause for this line of reasoning is based on the result of the Pine Village and Cincinnati Celts game, which ended in a scoreless tie, which was a humiliating defeat of the Celts by the Friars. As a matter of fact the Friars have anything but in Indiana.

HARRY GREB BLAZES METEORIC WAY THROUGH MIDDLEWEIGHT DIVISION BY MANY KNOCKOUTS

Second only to the meteoric career of Les Darcy in the pugilistic world in the last few years is that of Harry Greb, the sensational Pittsburgh lad who has been blazing a trail of uninterrupted victories in the middleweight division and has the best opportunity of any in that division to win for himself the crown left by the death of the Australian.

The career of Greb has been as brief as it has been sensational. Four years ago he was laying tin roofs in Pittsburgh for $12 a week, figuring he was making good money.

Today his income approximates $33,000 a year by laying tin ears on other fellows' skulls. In the meantime there isn't a good middleweight in the country whom he hasn't beaten or held even, and this goes for Mike and Tommy Gibbons, Jack Dillon, Billy Miske, George Chip, Battling Levinsky, Gus Christie, Jeff Smith, K. O. Brown, Al McCoy and others.

In a year he has made himself one of the most popular boxers in the country which is attested to by the fact that he always has four or five bouts booked ahead and every fight club of importance in the country is clamoring for his services.

In the last eleven months he has fought forty-one bouts, netting himself more than $30,000, and sometimes fights as many as three and four times a week.

Until a year ago he boxed for points. Then he developed a punch and in his last forty-one bouts has won fifteen by knockouts. His record for knockouts in September was perfect, Jack London, Johnny Howard, K. O. Brown and Battling Kopin, the only men he met during the month, taking the count.

TOLEDO MAROONS HAVE A SPLENDID RECORD

They Have Defeated Both the Dayton Heralds and Hammond.

Judging from past performances the Toledo Maroons, who play the Friars here Sunday afternoon, are perhaps the equal of any team that has appeared here this season, being generally regarded as one of the strongest independent football aggregations in the country.

No fan should stay away from Sunday's game because the Racine team cancelled and through fear the Maroons were booked at the eleventh hour just to fill in. The Maroons had a game Sunday and for that reason it was necessary for the Friars to pay a pretty price to secure them. Like the Friars, the Maroons prefer to play at home to get them away from their home lot is no easy matter.

The Maroons have defeated some of the fastest and best teams in the country, including the Detroit Heralds and Hammond.

Sunday will be boys' day and all youngsters of Fort Wayne under sixteen years old who secure a ticket from a local merchant will be admitted. These tickets are being handed out without cost to the boy.

A quart of water glass mixed with twelve quarts of water that has been boiled and then cooled will be sufficient to preserve about fifteen dozen eggs. A stronger solution should be used for eggs that are to be held six to eight months or longer.

CHICAGO-MICHIGAN ALUMNI CLUB MEETS

Plans Going Ahead for Big Benefit Game to Be Played on Dec. 1.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A further step in the movement to bring about a football game between the University of Chicago and the University of Michigan here on Dec. 1, was taken today, when members of the Chicago-Michigan Alumni club met at the Union League club. It is planned to appoint a committee to confer with Coach A. A. Stagg, of Chicago, and Athletic Director Philip Bartelme, of Michigan, for the purpose of placing the question of a game formally before the athletic boards of the two institutions in case the faculty representatives of the western conference give their consent for a post season game for war charity.

No official suggestions have been offered for post season games between other members of the "Big Ten," but alumni of both Ohio State and Minnesota have discussed the feasibility of a meeting between the two eleveners for the benefit of a war charity.

It was also proposed some time ago that Indiana play West Virginia at Camp Shelby, where national guard troops of the two states are in training.

FOUR JUNIORS MAKE BASKET BALL TRIP

High School Team Leaves on Friday Noon for Game at Winchester.

Four juniors and two seniors are in the high school basket ball line which goes to do battle with the Winchester high school quintet, at Winchester, Friday night. The squad of six men, picked on Wednesday by Coach Russell Wright, will leave Fort Wayne, Friday noon, for the Randolph county city. The local players will be joined at Muncie by Prof. Wright, who is attending the sessions of the State Teachers' association, and who will only take time out for the contest.

The Fort Wayne team suffers from a lack of extended preparation, but every man is fit physically. Coach Wright expects the lads to give a good account of themselves.

The line-up will be: Lachot and Wooding, forwards; Ralph Wilkins, center; Elmer Wilkins and White, guards; Meyers, sub.

Gasoline or no gasoline, the English refuse to give up their motor cars. The shortage of petrol, and necessity of conserving the supply, has caused nearly every motor-driven vehicle in England to use gas as a substitute fuel, carrying its supply in a great bag. The average motor car carries its gasbag on the hood. The gasbag of the street bus is lashed to the rear. This explains why you couldn't tell at first glance whether the photograph was of a balloon or of an automobile.

FRANKLIN IN SHAPE.

Franklin, Ind., Nov. 1.—In spite of the wintry breezes which swept over Franklin field yesterday afternoon, Coach Thurber sent the Blue and the Gold squad through a hard practice in preparation for the case Poly game. The Franklin team came out of the Butler contest in good shape, and it is thought that the coach will have the use of his best lineup in the remaining two games on the Baptist schedule. Naugle, crack back field man, was able to be out for practice scrimmage for the first time in many weeks. Campbell is another man who has been released, but who is fully able to take a place in the Franklin lineup now.

THE HOWLING HOST.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 1.—The "Howling Host," Indiana's roosting organization, will wear Turkish turbans when they march and yell at Indianapolis next Saturday. The turbans are red and display a big white "I." Final arrangements for the trip of the Indiana supporters were perfected at the meeting of the Boosters' club Wednesday evening.

WABASH BARS BACON.

Bacon, star Wabash college baseball and football player, who played last season in the "Three I" league under the name of Williams, has been found out at his college and barred from college athletics on the ground that he is a professional. They say that last season wasn't his first professional experience, but the college authorities were asleep.

MAJORS IN ARMY CAMP.

Both St. Louis ball clubs are represented in the army camp at Camp Pike, near Little Rock. Pitcher Fincher, recalled by the St. Louis Browns from Portland, and Pitcher Elmer Knight, purchased by the St. Louis Cardinals from Little Rock, are the players in khaki. Floyd Kroh, veteran pitcher of major and minor leagues, is also in training at Camp Pike.

REAL NICE OF MCGRAW.

Eddie Cicotte thinks well of John McGraw, for the New York manager went out of his way to tell Eddie what a great pitcher he is. In telling of it Eddie did not say if McGraw asked him how he would like to play in New York.

Moriarity Makes Good As Umpire First Year Out

When George Moriarity was appointed umpire in the American league last spring there were many critics and ball players who feared he wouldn't do.

Not that George hadn't been a smart ball player or didn't know the game—not that he wasn't a good fellow—but Moriarity was regarded as a man of a hot temper which he might not be able to control.

But as the season rounded out and Moriarity was grinding out game after game with some of the older heads in the league these doubts were cancelled.

Moriarity did have a little trouble at the start of the season. He showed signs of becoming excited when players kicked on decisions but he later overcame this and the season closed he ranked well up with veterans in the game.

Dobie May Set New Mark for Scoring

Although Olmough Dobie this year lost his first football game in two years when the navy went down to defeat before West Virginia, he has an excellent chance to set a new scoring record with his squad of middies who have piled up 212 points in three games.

While this is not so phenomenal as the achievement of Georgia Tech, which overcame a team 222 to 0 last year, it is indeed creditable, considering that the points were made against such teams as Haverford, Carleton and Maryland State, none of which had been considered set ups at the start of the season.

It is not likely any college of importance will equal the navy's record if Dobie can keep his team going at its present speed.

MACK PROSPECT IN ARMY.

Tom Hickey, the Santa Clara university player whose services were sought by Connie Mack and other major league managers last spring, is now at an army training camp, enlisted for the war. He has been made a sergeant and hopes to work up to a commission.

SPORT CHATTER

In days of old, when Yale was bold
And Harvard piled up scores abnormal
They didn't squirm at every turn
And call their puny teams in formal.

When they were beat they met defeat
With measure calm and calculating
"Next year," they said, "We'll knock 'em dead
Our exploits will be worth relating."

But Yale today, and Harvard say,
They play the game with rule and reason.
But when they're licked, their're ain't micked

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-street, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

good, safe medicine to reduce my abnormal weight about 30 pounds.

Answer: I thank you for your confidence and advise that five grain arbolone tablets is the reliable remedy for medicine which I always prescribe in sealed tubes with directions. Any druggist can supply you.

James J. asks: "For several months I have been feeling very ill. My skin is yellow, my tongue is coated, have headache, am sleepless, nervous and bothered with chronic constipation. Please help me."

Answer: You need a laxative blood cleansing treatment in the form of three-grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur). Rest, good food and gradually your good health and pure blood will return.

"Bloodless" writes: "I sign after my name 'bloodless' because that seems to be my condition. I am pale, thin and chilly all the time. My appetite is feeble, but even when I eat a great deal I do not gain in weight."

Answer: I would advise plenty of exercise and a persistent use of three-grain sulphur tablets to increase your blood and flesh. They tend to improve digestion and the proper absorption of nourishment. A gain of a pound or two a week is not unusual.

Mrs. P. G. writes: "I hesitate to ask advice as my case is so unusual. In a word, I am tired and weary all the time. I have been married over a year and formerly did not know what it was to be tired or nervous. Sometime I feel hysterical. I fear I will become a nuisance to my husband if this continues."

Answer: Your nervous system has been overworked. You need a tonic invigorating medicine that will aid in supplying more food-energy to your nerves. Take three grain cod-liver oil tablets regularly for several months.

NOTE: For many years Dr. Baker has been giving free advice and prescriptions to thousands of people through the press columns, and doubtless has helped in relieving illness and distress more than any single individual in the world's history. Thousands have written him expressions of gratitude and confidence.

CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL'S VIEW OF BLOW TO THE ALLIES

Now Let American Copperheads See in Italy the Result of Their Work Against the New Republic of Russia.

CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL. Member of Our Staff Who Spent Three Months in Russia With the Official American Commission.

The news from Italy is the sure result of the state of things in Russia. The weakness of the Russian line gave Germany two chances to deliver a staggering blow.

She could either break through to the north, try for Moscow and Petrograd, and put Russia out of the fighting business; or she could make a feint at Russia, then wheel her great armies down south and smash Italy.

If she went north she would encounter very soon the Russian winter when operations will be impossible. On the plains of Italy she can operate almost as well at one time of the year as at another. She chose the Italian drive.

Here are some facts that ought to make us very thoughtful about this outlook. Germany would never have dared to withdraw troops from the Russian front to drive at Italy, if Russia had been in good fighting trim.

Russia would have continued to fight in dead earnest if her people had willed to fight.

The strongest reason why the Russian people had no stomach for war was because they had no confidence in the United States.

There were two chief reasons why they had no confidence in the United States. First, the work of American pacifists, German sympathizers and the German agents sent from this country to Russia to bring about exactly this condition. Second, the attitude of a large part of the American press toward Russia and its troubles.

I have from the work of the American pacifists and the German agents some here that are helping Germany to win was far more deadly to you than all the German troops and all the German commanders. You can judge now whether I had good reason for the warning.

If Germany shall succeed in overrunning northern Italy, she will have France between two fires. The whole complexion of the war will be changed in an instant.

The French and British offensive on the western front will be changed to a desperate defense, and half of the allied forces will have to be withdrawn to defend France on the south, where there are no forts, strongholds or troops.

There is hardly a limit to the disaster that might follow. We might see a situation in which this country alone would have to bear all the fighting and strain every resource to win. It would mean an American army of 10,000,000 men, two-thirds fighting in Europe.

It would probably mean five years of war.

All this growing primarily out of the fact that Russia did not understand the United States and the United States did not understand Russia.

How could Russia think the United States was sincere in the war when the Russian public was told every day that this country was ruled absolutely by its munition makers, who had driven the government into the war to get fat contracts, and having secured these were about to make peace? How could Russians believe the United States was in earnest when they heard on every hand assurances that the American people were opposed to the war and had been forced into it by their despotic rulers? What impression would Russians naturally get when thousands of agents ran about quoting the words of traitorous Americans as the real voice of the American people, and when all these lies went without refutation?

The thing to inspire Russia was the spectacle of the American republic, absolutely united, absolutely determined to wage to the end the righteous war, her unselfish motives understood, the fact well known that she had

HOW TO PREVENT APPENDICITIS

Even if your bowels move slightly each day, that is not enough. There must be an occasional THOROUGH, complete cleansing to rid your system of all accumulated, decaying matter.

HOW TO CLEAN BOWELS QUICK

THE MOST COMPLETE bowel cleanser known is a mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine and ten other ingredients, the name of Adier-I-Ka. This mixture is so powerful a bowel cleanser that it AL-ways does its work properly and thor-oughly. It removes foul and poisonous matter which other cathartic or laxative mixtures are unable to dislodge. It does a COMPLETE job and it works QUICKLY and without the least discomfort or trouble. It is so gentle that one forgets he has taken it until the THOROUGH evacuation starts. It is astonishing the great amount of foul, poisonous matter a SINGLE SPOONFUL of Adier-I-Ka draws out from the alimentary canal—matter you would never have thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural bowel movement and notice how much MORE foul matter will be brought out which was poisoning your system. In slight disorders such as occasional constipation, sour headache, gas on the stomach, or other ailments which bring relief almost INSTANTLY. Adier-I-Ka is the MOST THOROUGH bowel cleanser and ANT-ispasmodic ever offered in ready prepared form. It is a constant surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines and the various reports from physicians.

REPORTS FROM PHYSICIANS.

Dr. James Weaver, Los, Utah: "I have found nothing in my 50 years' practice excel Adier-I-Ka."

Cor. E. Noblett, Saginaw, Mich.: "I have used Adier-I-Ka in my practice and have found nothing to excel it."

Dr. F. M. Prettyman, Milledgeville, Ga.: "I have used Adier-I-Ka in all bowel cases and have been very successful with it. Some cases require only one dose."

Druggist D. Hawks, Goshen, Ind.: "Of our leading doctors has used Adier-I-Ka in cases of stomach trouble with wonderful success. It has not lost a patient as saved many operations."

Dr. J. E. Puckett, Gilman, Ark.: "I had a stomach trouble. After taking Adier-I-Ka I feel better than for 20 years. I have language to express the awful impurity which were eliminated from my system."

"Thanks to Adier-I-Ka I can sleep all night now, something I could not do for years."

Mrs. L. A. Austin, Ausland, Minn.: "I could not eat a thing, my stomach was weak. Adier-I-Ka made me feel better and am now able to work and gain."

Adier-I-Ka is sold only by the leading druggist in each city.

Sold in Fort Wayne only by H. W. Meyer, druggist, corner Main and University.

Luxburg Wanted Steps Taken to Lay Hands on
Part of Brazil.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—Sinister
aims of Germany to overthrow the Monroe doctrine and gain a foothold in South America were divulged today through publication by the state department of two additional telegrams
from Count Luxburg, the German charge at Buenos Aires, to the German foreign office.

In these telegrams Count Luxburg urged the German government to send a submarine squadron to South American waters to intimidate the Argentine government, then threatening to break relations, explaining that the presence of such a squadron would "exercise a decisive influence on the situation in South America."

Defiance of the Monroe doctrine was seen in the conviction expressed by Luxburg in one of his telegrams that Germany would be able to "carry through our principal political aims in South America," including the "reorganization of South Brazil."

Colonization of South Brazil was begun by Germany before the war. The
"political aims" mentioned by Luxburg
were believed here to disclose a plan of Germany to establish a German colony, or, in effect, a German principality, in the province of Rio Grande
do Sul in Brazil, as the opening wedge
America.

Luxburg urged a threatening naval demonstration to dispel the impression that the German "easy going good nature can be counted on."

"This is dangerous in South America," he told his government, "where the people under thin veneer are Indians."

The Luxburg Telegrams.
The text of the state department statement and the Luxburg telegrams
follow:

"In view of the fact that the substance of certain telegrams addressed
by Count Luxburg to the German foreign office has been published, the secretary of state makes public the actual text of the telegrams:

"No. 63, July 7, 1917. Our attitude towards Brazil has created the impression here that our easy going good nature can be counted on. This is dangerous in South America, where the people under thin veneer are Indians.
A submarine squadron, with full powers to me, might probably still save
the situation. I request instructions
as to whether, after a rupture of relations, legation is to start for home or to remove to Paraguay, or possibly Chile. The naval attaché will doubtless go to Santiago De Chile."

"LUXBURG."
Urges Friendship for Chile.
"No. 89, Aug. 4, 1917. I am convinced that we shall be able to carry through our principal political aims in South America—the maintenance of open market in Argentina and the reorganization of South Brazil—equally well, whether with or against Argentina. Please cultivate friendship with Chile. The announcement of a visit of a submarine squadron to salute the president would even now exercise decisive influence on the situation in South America. Prospect excellent for wheat harvest in December."

"LUXBURG."
The state department has felt indisposed to publish these telegrams
with out the consent of the Argentine government. With the publication of the two telegrams today, it is believed the way may be opened for publication of further Luxburg plots, outlining the more detail German plans of aggression in South America.
May Force Argentina's Hand.
Another development, following the publication of the new Luxburg telegrams, may be to force Argentina's hand. Both houses of the Argentine congress have voted for rupture with Germany, but the Argentine executive has refused to carry the decree into effect. The banishment of Luxburg is the only action Argentina has taken.
Chile may be forced also to declare her attitude through the evidence Lux-burg gives of the efforts to "cultivate her friendship" made by Germany.

Rheumatism

Remarkable Home Cure Given by One Who Had It—He Wants Every Sufferer to Benefit.

Send No Money—Just Your Address.

Years of awful suffering and misery have taught this man, Mark H. Jackson, of Syracuse, New York, how terrible an enemy to human happiness rheumatism is, and how given him sympathy with all unfortunate who are within its grasp. He wants every rheumatic victim to know how he was cured. Read what he says:

"I had Sharp Pains Like Lightning Flashes Shooting Through My Joints. In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Rheumatism and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were greatly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case."

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be the long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today. MARK H. JACKSON, No. 57D, Gurney Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.

To Stop a Persistent,
Hacking Cough

The best remedy is one you can easily make at home, but very effective.

Thousands of people normally healthy in every other respect, are annoyed with a persistent hacking or bronchial cough year after year, disturbing their sleep and making life disagreeable. It is so needless—there's an old home-made remedy that will end such a cough easily and quickly.

Get from any druggist "214 ounces of Pinex" (80 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Begin taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also promptly loosens a dry or tight cough, stops the troublesome throat tickle, soothes the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relief comes almost immediately. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchitis, Pinex is nothing better. It tastes pleasant and keeps perfectly.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is used by millions of people every year for throat and chest colds with splendid results.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "214 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

JOLLY MAY IRWIN GOES TO THE MAT WITH SOPHIE, CHAMPEEN OF HER KIND

Perhaps the reason May Irwin, famous comedienne, likes to milk so well as the fact that you can sit down to it. There is too much of May for her to find a standing posture very comfortable. However, in all fairness to Miss Irwin, it must be admitted that she milked Sophie, world champion cow, at the National Dairy Show at Columbus, not because the operation gave her a good chance to rest her feet but because Sophie is one of her closest friends. The comedienne, Mrs. Kurt Eisler, in private life, is one of the country's leading breeders of fancy cattle. She offered $50,000 for Sophie, and had her offer been accepted would have left the stage and settled down on the farm to milk Sophie every day.

part the results of the canvass in the larger cities in those states, that have reported, while there are still eleven states that have made no returns as yet. The number is an increase of more than 7,000 over yesterday's figures.

Indiana Still Leads.

Indiana still leads the field with 110,232 pledges. Virginia is a close second with 110,071, while Ohio and Maine are third and fourth with 109,000 and 97,000, respectively.

Storms throughout the country are still tying up the means of communication from the outlying districts and are proving a severe handicap to the campaigners.

"The close of this campaign will see one family out of every two in the United States enrolled for membership in the United States food administration," said H. J. Hill, national campaign director, today. "Reports indicate intense pro-German propaganda in certain parts of the country, but the effect of this has been to solidify our 600,000 workers and to make evident to communities farthest removed from war conditions the fact that this is a vital war work. After all, the thing we are striking at is not numbers, though we are sure of the numerical result. The canvass has been an infinitely deeper underlying purpose."

"It is to bring home to the average American family the part it can play in preparing the nation for an inevitable position in the war. The campaign has established the fact that food conservation is a definite war service, and we could submit thousands of letters and reports to prove that the matter is so being understood."

"The little pledge cards which families sign is anything but a scrap of paper. So closely are we all linked in this war that one phase of it is being fought out in the American kitchen. The scheme is unbeatable in spite of the enemy's efforts to make it appear that we are lusting the contents of family pantries to seize them. Needless to say, no intelligent family falls for this malicious propaganda and the great mass of our people are beginning to recognize the fact that homes united, families enrolled, food conserved, means America invincible."

the word has been brought to him that the present trying state will not continue long. As soon as the alarming coal famine in the northwest has been alleviated to a degree the fuel will be supplied for the middle west. Coal dealers expect shipments in large quantities in this region in a few weeks.

Woodburn Alarmed.

Closing of the Woodburn schools is threatened unless coal can be obtained for firing the furnaces in the large school building there. There is no coal supply ahead for the Woodburn school.

Mr. Beadell went to Woodburn Wednesday and made a careful investigation of the situation. Woodburn coal dealers state that their only chance to get coal is from Edgerton, where a supply is being held. The Woodburn dealers say that they will drive the six miles between the towns and haul the coal to Woodburn if arrangements can be made for obtaining the fuel.

It is reported to Mr. Beadell that the price asked by the Edgerton firm for the coal held there is almost prohibitive. He will go to Edgerton Thursday afternoon and endeavor to arrange for sale of a part of the fuel to Woodburn in order that the schools may be kept going.

Mr. Beadell has received reports that Sheldon and Gar Creek also face coal famines.

Awaits Full Commission.

While Mr. Beadell is actively engaged in attempting to solve the Allen county coal problems he will not assume full control as government fuel administrator until he receives more word from Indianapolis.

Before he asserts his authority in the matter of helping to bring more fuel to Allen county he is anxious to learn the exact scope of his powers and the limit of his responsibilities. He has inquired from the state office about these matters and is expecting a reply soon.

to sink hundreds of thousands of dollars in purchasing equipment or the plant of a competing company in order to obtain an exclusive field for the city's business. The people have no money to waste in that way. The selfish interests which seek to unload their private property upon the city will receive the rebuke which their scheme deserves.

"Look to the history of your utilities in this town. At the time the water works was established there was that crowd of selfish interests who sought to sell to this city the old feeder canal as a water supply. They even persuaded our city council that such would be the proper plan of supplying water. Citizens were compelled to seek redress in court to enjoin the purchase of the feeder canal. At the following election every councilman who stood for the purchase of the canal was defeated, and the people of this city thereby freed themselves from the burden of carrying the worthless institution as a pile of junk."

"I have confidence enough in the people of this city to believe that they will repudiate any effort to impose upon this city at an exorbitant price the second-hand junk of any private interest."

another allied power not nearly so opulent as the United States. There are many bonds and ties between our folk and the people of the great republic who use to flock to our shores as tourists before the war. Their place was filled in a large measure by the officers and the men of the United States navy, to the benefit of all traders."

Miss Lynch Makes Appeal.

Another appeal for the return of the American sailors is made by Miss Marie Lynch, who as head of the Poor Relief Guardians, has an official investigation of various charges which the Sinn Fein leaders have brought against the American visitors. She says, in placing before the house the result of her investigation:

"Many stories unproved by specific facts were spread throughout the city regarding the conduct of most American sailors. It was mentioned that the Cork union could produce evidence to bear out the allegations. Upon investigation there I found not the slightest proof. I am fully aware that many good people were led by specious arguments to believe these wicked tales against the sailors, and were so deceived themselves. Now, it is a well-known fact that the American navy, composition and organization, is one of the best in existence. Strict and constant supervision is exercised over every man by the officers in charge."

"I feel sure when some of our city fathers conclude their investigations that they may be led to assume that some mischievous people for ulterior motives have sought to cause a breach in the friendship between America and Ireland. May I hope the good sense and intelligence of our people will defeat such object, and that we shall endeavor to make an amende honorable to our American kinsmen and continue to extend to them 'cordial faith' which America has so justly earned at our hands."

Denounced by Newspaper.

The Cory County Eagle in an editorial account of the anti-American demonstrations, which preceded the American decision to put Cork out of bounds, says:

"Many strange things have happened in Cork from time to time though no more discreditable than the wanton blackguard attack made there on the sailors of the United States on Monday night. To the cries of 'Up the Huns,' hundreds of young men of the city, bearing the Sinn Fein flag in front, not only hissed and jeered American sailors whom they chanced to meet, but displayed their decided hostility in more decided fashion, by stoning some unfortunate young men who had taken shelter from the rowdism, and whose only offense was that they wore the uniform of the American."

"What political wisdom could bring even the most brainless, thoughtless youth of Cork to insult the representatives of the great people whose land have made welcome the oppressed from every clime; but in a particular and special manner the exiles of Erin? Try to picture what America will think of the people who, not content with their cries of 'Up the Huns' must emphasize that admiration by hunting, as if they were wild beasts, through the streets of their city, the men who are facing the deadly perils of the Atlantic that these wanton scoundrels, who attacked them on Monday night, might have American flour to keep them from starving."

"The Cory republicans salute the greatest of the world's republic with paving stones. Let us at least, take this poor consolation to heart, we can never sink lower than this exhibition of Monday evening."

THIRTY AIRPLANES

Some of these raiders were turned back by the outer defenses, but one or more penetrated into southeast London where bombs were dropped.

"The sixth group followed along the same course about a quarter of an hour later. Some of these machines penetrated in the southeastern suburbs of London, where some bombs were dropped. Meanwhile one or more enemy machines dropped bombs in the southwestern outskirts of London. The seventh group, which approached along the south bank of the Thames, was dispersed by gun fire before reaching the outer London defenses."

"In addition individual raiders attacked the Kentish coast, between midnight and 1:30 o'clock. Reports indicate that each group consisted of three and four machines, the total number of raiders engaged being about thirty. Of this total only about three machines succeeded in actually penetrating into the heart of London. The raiders were harassed by our gun fire during the whole of their flight and were also attacked by our air craft. The facility with which they were able to escape observation by taking advantage of the clouds, prevented any decisive engagement."

"Full reports have not yet been received, but those already furnished

TRANSPORT

The Finland is one of the largest steamers flying the American flag. Before going into the army transport service she plied between New York and European ports in the International Mercantile Marine company's service under the Red Star and other lines. The vessel has a gross tonnage of 12,860 and a net tonnage of 7,111. She normally carries a crew of 257 men. The Finland was built in Philadelphia in 1902. Her home port is New York.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK.

An Atlantic Port, Nov. 1.—A German submarine torpedoed and sank the British steamship East Wales of 4,321 tons gross, off Queenstown on October 14, according to a survivor who arrived here today. One of two U-boats which took part in the attack shelled the open life boats and four of the crew perished and five others were wounded.

FRENCH SHIPPING LOSSES.

Paris, Nov. 1.—French merchant ships sunk by submarines or mines during the week of October 26 was two ships of more than 1,600 tons and one of less than 1,600 tons. No fishing boats were sunk. Four steamers were attacked unsuccessfully.

FRESH BLOW IS

INFLICTED UPON ITALIAN FORCES

as the bulletins of General Cadorna, the commander-in-chief, indicate, the Italian troops, perfectly reorganized, are holding back the enemy at a distance of seven miles west of Udine.

The Germans and Austrians did not succeed in their prearranged plan of rushing beyond the Isonzo into the Friuli valley and enveloping the third Italian army, which occupied the region of Gorizia and the Carso.

Although they broke the Italian lines from Plezzo to Talmio, the resistance offered by picked Italian contingents, who offered themselves for the supreme sacrifice, so delayed the southwestern march of the enemy that the third army had time to cross the middle and southern Isonzo in orderly retreat. The main body of the Italian forces is intact, ready to face the invaders in the counter offensive which is being prepared.

Italian cavalry has entered into action on a large scale for the first time in the war. The mounted troops have made brilliant charges, obstructing the advance of the enemy.

SURPRISE AWAITS FOE.

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Wednesday, Oct. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Lloyd George has said that the horrors of a Zeppelin raid received much attention, whereas in their relative importance to vast sections of London remaining untouched, they are insignificant. Exactly the same conditions exist here, for while the horrors of the recent experience stand out boldly to those who went through it, yet this is offset by the magnitude of the beneficial military results accomplished.

Exactly what these are cannot be even hinted at for the present, but the main fact is that another wall—another line of steel—will face the enemy and all Europe and America are now doing their part to second Italy's tremendous task.

INVASION OFFERS CHANCE.

London, Nov. 1.—The military correspondent of the Times says of the Italian operations:

"The fact that the Gen. von Buolow, with an inconsiderable force of German troops, has burst through the Julian front and that Austrian columns found others badly defended positions in the Carnic Alps is certainly very unfortunate and we have no need to minimize the gravity of the situation. Italy's eastern frontier temporarily is lost."

The correspondent finds a silver lining to the cloud in that although the season approaches for the operations in France and Flanders to die down, there is nothing to prevent fighting on the Italian plains throughout the winter. This is advantageous to the side with the greatest resources. He adds:

"The German backon us to the Italian front and with a very hearty good will we shall oblige them."

BRITISH GUNS SAVED.

London, Nov. 1.—All the British guns with the Italian army were saved, according to a British correspondent at Italian headquarters, who says that the spirits of the British gunners are good. Lack of transport which could not be allotted to them was their whole trouble. One gun was so near to being abandoned that the breach mechanism was destroyed. However, the gun was saved eventually.

The correspondent, who accompanied the retreat of the third Italian army from the Carso, in a dispatch dated Tuesday says that the troops were cheerful and good-tempered and it was evident that firmness of command could reorganize them into a fighting force. The duke of Aosta, commander of the third army, was calm and confident Monday night as his army had saved nearly all its guns.

The right wing of the second army also fell back regularly from Sabotino and Gorizia. Troops on the left of the second army also were retreating steadily from their mountain positions so as to get into line with the left of the new defensive front. The Italian general staff, the writer says, naturally have placed a severe ban on all descriptions of what happened during the last few days, but has permitted the sending of a description of the destruction of Italian stores. The correspondent says:

"The sky was constantly springing into a vivid fire-like instantaneous sunset followed by a deep rumbling roar. Black clouds of smoke were outlined against the glowing heavens. Ammunition depots were blown up, stores being burned and bridges destroyed. The glare of explosives gave a light of ghastly brilliance over the throngs of the retreating army."

"A rain storm broke and lasted for three hours, often with extreme violence. It added to the hardships of the retreat, already severe enough, and must have meant death to many of those wounded while covering the retreat. But it delayed the enemy's advance by swelling the rivers, softening the ground to mud and making air reconnaissance and bombing raids on congested roads and railroads impossible. Such are the outlines of the story of which fuller details are not permitted."

"The situation undoubtedly is grave but the silence which the now imposes must not be construed as an indication that things are worse than they actually are. The blow has been severe, but it will not crush Italy."

SUMMARY OF THE

grips at several points between Udine and the Tagliamento, where the Italians probably will make their first determined stand. The German effort to outflank the Tagliamento from the Carnic Alps apparently is not gaining ground fast.

While the German blow overpowered and dispersed the Italian forces along the Isonzo, north of Gorizia, Gen. Cadorna, according to advices from his headquarters, saved his other armies virtually intact and the third army, which guarded the Carso plateau, succeeded in getting away in its entirety, with its guns and war material. The Italian retreat did not become a rout and it is apparent that Gen. Cadorna's strategy was to withdraw his troops from the Isonzo and across the Friuli plains to a position from which to make a strong counter attack. The invading forces are within four miles of the Tagliamento, northwest of Udine, after having captured 120,000 prisoners and more than 1,000 guns. This is the center of the advancing line and the southern wings probably are not as near the Tagliamento. Should Gen. Cadorna have to retire from the Tagliamento because of the breaking of the Italian defenses in the Carnic Alps and before assistance arrives, he will have the Piave river, which runs southwest and south from Belluno, on which to stand.

Reinforcements are being hurried to the Italian front not only by France and Great Britain but also by Italy. The German advance apparently is not as fast as at first and Berlin is less enthusiastic in its war bulletins.

If the Germans counted upon internal disorder in Italy helping to open the way to Lombardy, it has been disappointed as all indications point to a strengthening of the Italian national feeling. The government and people of Italy as well as the government of France, Great Britain and the United States are bending every effort to give the Germans blow for blow on the Venetian plains, the fighting ground of the early campaigns of Napoleon against Austria.

The French in their successful offensive of the Alsine in the division of Laon last week captured 12,187 prisoners, including 237 officers. The guns taken numbered 130. There has been little infantry fighting in this region and the German crown prince has been unable to carry out counter attacks of any strength. The artillery duel continues violently.

Count von Hertling has not accepted the German imperial chancellorship pending conferences with reichstag leaders. Reports from Germany by way of Amsterdam and Copenhagen indicate that the Bavarian premier will have difficulty in getting even a working majority in the reichstag, where various leaders are much opposed to him. His attitude toward parliamentary reform and the reichstag peace resolution is said to complicate his position.

Indications from Palestine are that with the advent of favorable weather the British are resuming their active campaign up the Syrian coast. The capture by British troops of Beer-sheba, approximately forty miles southwest of Jerusalem, is reported in an official statement today.

When the operations in Palestine halted last spring the British had pushed up the coast from Sinai peninsula to the gates of Gaza on the coast in southern Palestine, while in interior Palestine their columns had advanced on a virtually parallel front, to the vicinity of Beer-sheba. There were reports that there had been a penetration as far northward as Hebron, which is less than twenty miles from Jerusalem, but apparently there was no definite advance of the British main force to this point.

Reports early last month stated that the British and revolting Arab forces from the southern interior had effected a junction in southern Palestine and that combined operations by these forces against the Turks might be expected shortly.

Seven groups of German aeroplanes, totaling about thirty machines, made a determined effort to bombard London last night, but apparently not more than three of them succeeded in penetrating to the heart of the city, a few others reaching the outskirts. The British defensive measures—barrage fire and attacks by British aircraft—broke up the enemy formations. The few bombs dropped in London did slight damage and the casualties are reported to have been comparatively few.

Infantry fighting on the French front last night was of limited extent. The most important was an attack by the Germans northwest of Rheims, which was repulsed by the French.

NOTED SPORTING MAN DYING.

New York, Nov. 1.—Charley White, known throughout the country as the referee of important boxing bouts, who has been ill for a number of months of a complication of diseases, was reported today to be dying at his home. White's last appearance in the ring as a referee was at the Willard-Moran fight, March 25, 1916.

FAMOUS DOGS ARRIVE.

An American Port, Nov. 1.—Three Arctic dogs that accompanied Donald B. McMillan, the explorer, in his last quest for the so-called Crockerland, have arrived here on the steamer Neptune, which rescued McMillan at Etah, Greenland, last August. One of the dogs, In-you-see-ia, has a remarkable record for endurance, having traveled more than 8,000 miles over Arctic ice fields. The other dogs have records of 4,000 miles of travel. The trio will be sent to the explorer's home at Provincetown, Mass.

THREE POSTERS ARE

SENT TO HEADQUARTERS

Large Number Designed by

High School and Eighth Grade Pupils.

The food posters designed by Margaret Ann Keegan, Helen Rapp and Edith Longworth at the high school have been sent to Indianapolis as the three best from this section. The posters will be placed on exhibition at the Herron Art institute together with about fifty other posters from various sections of the state. The best designed posters will be adopted as originals for large place cards which will be distributed throughout the country within a short time. Posters designed by school children will be placed in downtown windows this week.

A considerable number of these posters are on display in the windows of downtown stores, the Steele-Myers company devoting one entire window to the display of them.

Many of the posters were designed by eighth grade pupils, the eighth grade of the Harmon school turning out more than any other school in the city. The work was done under the supervision of Miss Alice Hall, supervisor of art in the city schools.

BALTES STONE COMPANY

France Brothers Take Over

Control of the Montpellier Quarry.

The Baltes Stone company, of this city, which owns a large plant just east of Montpelier, has been reorganized, and France Brothers, big quarry owners, have taken stock in the concern and will have charge of the operation of the plant near Montpelier, as well as the other plants they own.

The new men in the company are owners of large stone plants at Huntington, the Erie plant near Bluffton, and a large plant at Cleveland, Ohio, and now will have control of the Montpelier quarries after November 1. The reorganization has been made, and everything was in readiness for the new stockholders to take charge Thursday. Ed Baltes, of Fort Wayne, retains stock in the concern, but will not have charge of the operations.

The Montpelier plant is well equipped, and the quality of stone turned out is excellent for road and concrete work of all kinds, and it makes a valuable addition to the string of quarries the Frances now control. This firm is one of the largest in the country, and will operate the Baltes quarries heavier than they have ever been run before, when the season opens up in the spring.

Announcements Are Out for
Efforts.

All plans are now in order for the battle of ballots to be waged in Fort Wayne Tuesday, Nov. 6. Preparations are nearing completion for the great roll call and the last of the verbal sallies being made by political ward generals.

Voting machines have been placed in perfect working order and are set at zero all along the line of names. Attorney William Fruententich, head of the city election commission, has worked for two days, aided by two mechanics in condition. The machines will not be moved to the precinct polling places until Monday, however.

Over in the city clerk's office Deputy Clerk Leroy Swartz is imprisoned with the heads of election supplies. He is guarding the sample ballots and all notices by day and night. He will sleep on a cot in the city hall room every night until next Tuesday.

Called for Orders.
All election officers have been ordered to meet in the assembly room of the court house at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night to receive final orders as to their duties on election day. Attorney William Fruententich, who has delivered the charge to the election men for the past twelve years, will again relate the exact obligations of those who will conduct the election.

The city council met on Wednesday night for ten minutes and ratified the list of inspectors, one for each precinct, which were nominated for that work by the democratic central committee.

Immense Cast Will "Do

Club Show.

SHOULD NOW HAVE PATRIOTIC SUPPORT

Every Cent of Profit to Be Expended for War Relief Work.

In the midst of big, unusual things, the University club's stupendous production, "The Army and Navy," has grown to the proportion of a wonderful production, away beyond the realization of the people who have possibly looked upon it as merely "another local amateur show." The fact is that five hundred loyal Fort Wayne people, including many of the most talented artists in various lines, have volunteered their best services to this exceptional affair, feeling that in this way they can "do their bit" as possibly they are not able to do it in any other. The event will take place on the Majestic stage on the evenings of Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, the 8th, 9th and 10th of November.

The production will be an artistic success from every viewpoint. The University club is enthusiastic over the splendid leadership of W. Mills Davis and Mrs. Maude George Wylie, the New York directors who have charge of the entire production. It is far northwestern sections but from the Rocky mountains eastward to the coast the weather is unseasonably cold.

The temperature is slightly above normal in far northwestern sections but from the Rocky mountains eastward to the coast the weather is unseasonably cold.

CALL FOR MECHANICS.

W. J. Hess, secretary at the post-office, has received a communication from the civil service commission asking for a large number of additional mechanics, particularly machinists, boiler-makers, machine operators, drop forgers, and blacksmiths. The government can use 1,000 machinists, several hundred boiler-makers and any number of mechanics.

MAKERS OF CIGARS ADVANCE PRICES

Increased Cost of Materials
Given as Cause for Increase to Retailers.

The cigar manufacturers, at a meeting, were unanimous in their convictions that to continue selling their goods at the present prices would spell ruin. In addition to the war tax, assessed by the government, the cost of cigar leaf tobacco, boxes, labels etc., has advanced to such proportions that it is impossible to stand the pressure any longer. Those whose old stock is depleted and now must pay the present market prices for their raw material, are operating at a loss. The increased cost to the retailer will, unquestionably, be of such character and extent that the heretofore first class five cent cigar will be a thing of the past. The local manufacturers claim that most all the large non-union factories, who employ principally girl cigar-makers and pay from three to four dollars less for wages per thousand cigars, are asking as much for their goods and some are asking more. All smokers know that for quality no better cigars are made anywhere than our local manufacturers produce. Under the advanced prices the dealers, in order to make living profit, will be compelled to ask the consumer an advance on the selling price of their cigars. There should be no doubt as to the public's co-operation with the dealers at this time.

LEAVE FOOD PLEDGE CARDS AT LIBRARY

C. B. Toland, food administrator, is anxious that all food pledge cards which are taken from the public library be returned to the library desk after being signed. Many of the cards are believed to have been lost by being left elsewhere.

There is a good response to the local appeal for signers to the food pledge and members of the relief committee are anxious that none of the Fort Wayne records be lost.
